

NAACP Demands Wide Changes In Kennedy Civil Rights Program

CHICAGO (UPI)—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) said recently President Kennedy's civil rights program is inadequate and demanded sweeping additional legislation in this session of Congress.

Delegates to the 54th annual NAACP convention voted unanimously in favor of a resolution which also laid plans for a mass civil rights convention in Washington next month to which the President and congressional leaders will be invited to explain their stands.

If a filibuster develops in Congress and it becomes necessary to invoke cloture, the resolution said "we shall continue the failure of any senator to support such action as a vote against civil rights."

The resolution said the President's program, although commendable, is "inadequate to meet the minimum needs of the existing situation."

The NAACP said "we insist" that legislation also be passed to: 1. "Creating a fair employment practices commission with adequate authority to compel the attendance of witnesses and production of evidence and for the enforcement of its decrees."

2. "Extending the authority of the attorney general to initiate and file suits for the protection and enforcement of all civil rights."

3. "Providing sanctions against labor unions which discriminate against Negroes."

The resolution called this "the minimum to be demanded and expected at this session of the Congress."

The lengthy resolution was practically the first order of business as 2,000 delegates settled down to business sessions in what is expected to be the most significant convention in NAACP history.

Monday night, the NAACP's executive secretary, Roy Wilkins, served warning that the association will work actively to defeat Sen. Barry Goldwater and other congressmen in 1964 if they fail to support strong civil rights legislation in this session of the Congress.

Today's resolution commended Kennedy "for proposing the enactment of his civil rights program as a step toward discharging the moral obligation of our federal government to its Negro citizens."

The NAACP served notice it will use mass demonstrations, including a march on Washington next month, to bring pressure to bear on Congress. It said it would also "support and participate in other mass demonstrations which may be jointly sponsored and planned by other organizations and individuals similarly committed to supporting the enactment of this minimum civil rights legislative program."

In his speech Monday night, Wilkins also named Sens. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., and Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., among those who have opposed the Kennedy civil rights program.

A number of visitors dropped by to wish the Medal of Honor winner good health, but York did not see most of them. He had some soft cereal about 9:30 a.m. and slept until past midnight.

York, who is credited with killing 29 German soldiers and capturing 132 others in the Argonne Forest on Oct. 8, 1918, has been ill for a number of years.

Mrs. Gerda Johansen of Copenhagen, Denmark, is the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Sharp. She is a cousin of Mrs. Sharp. Mr. and Mrs. Sharp went to California on a two weeks vacation and picked up Mrs. Johansen and brought her back with them to Roseburg. While in California they visited relatives and enjoyed numerous sight-seeing trips. They went as far south as San Diego. They visited Marineland and numerous other California points of interest. Upon returning here they went to Eugene to visit Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wise (Gretche Creamer) and children. Mrs. Johansen came to this country on the luxury liner "Kungsholm" and plans to return on the "Gripsholm." She reports she likes this country very much and is enjoying her stay here. Mrs. Johansen has studied English in Denmark and speaks the language fluently.

Dear Abby!

It Is Illegal -- Period!

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: Our son is 16 and very popular. We finished off our basement so he could entertain his friends there. We put in a TV, stereo and billiard table. Last Saturday night he had six couples in for a party. We served sandwiches and soft drinks. We have a rule—no beer or liquor. The next morning, while cleaning up, I found several empty beer cans and an empty vodka bottle hidden behind the TV. We questioned our son and three of his friends. One boy admitted to bringing the beer. A girl had brought the vodka from home. We told them it was against the law for minors to drink. They tried to tell us it was okay if done in a private home. Please print this with your comments in case we need something more concrete to show them.

MOTHER: It is against the law for minors to drink ANYWHERE. And if you need something more concrete to show them—how about the sidewalk?

DEAR ABBY: For years I have written all the letters to my husband's relatives. Yet I'm sure he would never write mine even in an emergency. And would you believe it, Abby, when we hear from his people all the letters are addressed to him and him alone? When they close, as an afterthought, they add, "Oh, say hello to your wife." I once got angry and told him to write his own letters. So he got even with me by putting a five- or ten-dollar bill in all the letters, and he knows we can't afford it. I've just about had it with my husband and his clan of ill-mannered morons. Tell me what to do and I'll do it.

HAD IT: You are overreacting to your husband's spitefulness. Ignore his needling and it will sting less.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is in his 60's, but sometimes he acts like a 2-year-old. Whenever we go to the big store to do our shopping, and get separated from each other, he hunts up the store manager and says his wife is "lost" and asks to have my name blasted all over the store on the loudspeaker. Everyone snickers because they start looking around for a "lost" child—and it's me—a gray-haired grandmother. They probably think I'm not all there. How can I break my husband of this foolish habit?

GRAY HAIR: When you and your husband enter a store, agree on a meeting place (under the clock, or at the south door) and have an understanding that if you should become separated, you meet there.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MOTHER OF THREE: The time to put your children to bed is when you can.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
