WRONG ALL AROUND

JOPLIN, Mo. (UPI)—The police patrol car officer was stumped Friday by a man who spoke only Spanish, but apparently wanted help. So, the officer drove him to the police station.

An interpreter found that the man had mistaken the police car for a taxicab and had wanted a ride to the home of his daughter.

The man had made another mistake. He had alighted from a bus in Joplin, but his daughter lives in Kansas City, 170 miles away.

Little River Timber Sales Officer Gets Timber Management Post

By MRS. ARTHUR SELBY

Ray Armstrong, timber sales officer of the Little River District of the Umpqua National Forest, has been promoted to timber management assistant with the North Umpqua District. He and his family moved Monday to the Steamboat Ranger Station. Armstrong was recently honored with an award from the U.S. Forest Service on the completion of 10 years of service as a federal employe. The award was signed by Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman.

Dohlquist Transferred

Ken Dohlquist of the Steamboat Ranger Station has been transferred to Armstrong's position with the Little River district. Mr. and Mrs. Dohlquist have moved to the house formerly occupied by the Armstrongs at the Christian Camp on Little River Road.

The Rev. John Manitsas, pastor of the Glide Baptist Church, Mrs. Manitsas, John, David and Denise, have left with their camp trailer for a vacation. They first drove to Portland and then to Suttle Lake in central Oregon, to camp and fish for a week.

Neil Talcott was due to conduct Sunday morning services at the church and members of the Roseburg chapter of The Gideons were scheduled to speak.

Duane Seufert, engineer with the Little River District of the Umpqua National Forest, returned to his office at the Glide Ranger Station this week after a two-week vacation. He and his family spent the first four days on the coast near Tillamook. The balance of his vacation, Seugert worked on the cattle ranch he owns near Roseburg.

California residents have arrived at Idleyld Lodge to spend from one to three months vacation, according to Mrs. David Cota (nee Mayme Sendelbach) owner and operator. The guests are, Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Hall of Burbank, Mrs. Lou Grebenc of Watsonville and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Curtis of Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beck and family arrived this week with their trailer house at the Idleyld Park Resort. Beck is an employe of the Bureau of Land Management.

Glendale Church Pulpit Vacated By Resignation

The Rev. Barley White, pastor of the Glendale Southern Baptist Church for the past six months, has resigned the pulpit, effective last Sunday. Kirk Snyder of Central Point will fill in until the church has procured a new pastor.

The Rev. Mr. White has not decided definitely as to where he will continue his pastoral work, correspondent Mrs. Gerald Fox reports.

It's Easy to Write a Good CLASSIFIED AD!

Many people get confused when it comes to writing a Classified Ad. Do You? If so, here are a few simple rules to make ad writing easy. A good ad is just conversation in print. So when you're preparing to place an ad, just write it the way you'd tell your neighbor about it.

Avoid Abbreviations

Ready to write the ad? Please, no abbreviations. Studies of advertising show that abbreviations decrease readability. You want people to read and understand your message. Make it as easy for them as you can.

Why Leave Them Guessing?

What do you want to sell or buy? If it's an appliance, what is the brand? What's the size or capacity? Model? Year? Any accessories included? Does it need repair, or is it ready to use? Now put yourself in the buyers position. If you were reading this ad, what would you like to know? Price? By all means put that in. In nearly every ad, price is the most important information. Anything else missing? If so, fill in those blanks too.

Don't Cut Off Your Own Nose

ONCE the ad has been completed, read it over. It's fine to eliminate a word here and there. But don't "edit" it to the point where the reader may have to guess at the meaning. You might save a few pennies and lose dollars in results.

Ordering Is Easy

Just write the News-Review, (be sure to include payment,→ figure cost from rates on classified page); come in or call.→ The number is OR 2-3321.

If This Seems Complicated

don't give up. We will help you write your ad. Just pick up your telephone and dial OR 2-3321. An experienced ad writer is waiting to help you.
