Judith Byron Becomes Bride

A wedding by soft candlelight took place Friday evening in the Yoncalla Church of Christ, June 21, when Miss Judith Diane Byron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Byron of Yoncalla, became the bride of C. Melville Kirkland, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Kirkland of Springfield.

The 8 a.m. double ring ceremony took place in a setting of large bouquets of pink gladioli and white snapdragons. Bobby Byron, brother of the bride, and Darwin Dodd lighted the candles. The aisle boys were pink satin ribbon. The Rev. Mr. Hootman performed the double ring ceremony.

Soloist was Miss Karen Brown of Coquille, who sang "All The Things You Are" and "From This Day Forth." She was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Leroy Hopkins, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her wedding gown of white taffeta with a full over skirt of silk organza and a chapel train. The bodice was made of Chantilly lace, tight fitting; long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. She wore a shoulder-length veil of net held in place with a crown of sequins. The bridal bouquet was made of white carnations and tiny pink rosebuds, with streamers of narrow white satin ribbon and white satin slippers.

Miss Leila Schroeder of Myrtle Point was maid of honor. Miss Phyllis Woods of Central Point and Miss Juanita Johnston of Yoncalla were bridesmaids. They were all dressed alike in stretch length pink satin dresses, with pink satin headbands twined with white flowers. They wore pink satin slippers.

Calvin Taylor of Eugene was best man. Ushers were Dennis Ness of Salem; Clayton Kirkland, brother of the bridegroom of Springfield; Jerry Reeves, cousin of the bride, and Jimmie Byron, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a white silk suit with carnation corsage and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a flowered silk dress with white accessories and a white carnation and pink rosebud corsage.

A reception was held in the recreation room of the church immediately following the ceremony. A large four-tiered wedding cake elaborately decorated and topped with a miniature bridal couple was

Siltcoos Lake Home Scene Of Picnic For Gardeners

The annual picnic of the Oakland Garden Club was held Monday at the sun-drenched home of Mrs. George Blanck at Siltcoos Lake.

Members drove to the lake where they were met at the dock by Cal Bowles and two neighbors, who took the group by boat to the Blanck landing. The landing is in a setting of native trees and shrubs and a variety of plantings.

The 1 p.m. luncheon was served on the lawn by Mrs. Blanck and Mrs. Cal Bowles to 18 members and four guests. Guests were Mrs. Frankie Moore, Mrs. Gilbert Fields, of Northridge, Calif., a guest of Mrs. Sara Watkins; and Danny and Vicki Young.

After the luncheon, the group held its business meeting in the living room which has a glassed-in front facing the lake. Mrs. Norman Nelson, as new president, conducted the session.

BETROTHAL TOLD — Mr. and Mrs. George Edwin Andes of Roseburg announce the engagement of their daughter, Cheryl Elaine, to Arlan Wayne Foote, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foote of this city. Both young people were graduated from Roseburg High School, Arlan in 1961 and Cheryl in 1963. The bride-elect is working in the office of Oregon Foreign Agencies and plans to attend Southern Oregon College in the fall. Arlan has been active in baseball in both high school and college. He played Junior Legion baseball in 1960-61 and also played for Columbia Basin College, Pasco Wash., which he attended last year. He is working for National Plywood this summer and will continue his education at SOC this fall. The wedding is planned for late 1964. (Photo by Ed Andes)

Following a delightful day and more boat riding, the group departed for home. This was the last meeting until September.
