Methodist Posts Filled At Sutherland-Wilbur

R. Richard Case, newly-appointed minister of the Methodist churches at Sutherland and Wilbur, arrived July 4 to take up residence in Sutherland. He was accompanied by his wife and 7-month-old son, Douglas.
Case occupied the pulpits in his assignment for the first time at services last Sunday. He comes to the area from the Henderson Settlement in Frakes, Ky., where he and his wife were house parents. According to E. J. Aschenbrenner, district superintendent, Case, whose formal training is in engineering, is leaving a business career to enter the ministry. He replaces the Rev. Eugene Groves who was called to a pastorate at Anchorage, Alaska.

Two Women Seek Astronaut Jobs

HOUSTON (UPI) — Two women were among 175 civilians who applied for jobs as astronauts before the July 1 deadline, the Manned Spacecraft Center said today.

Military services have until July 15 to recommend qualified volunteers for the space pilot program. No combined total of military and civilian applicants will be announced until then.

Neither of the two women applicants was named. A spacecraft center official said the policy was to name no applicants, only those finally selected.

From the civilian and military applicants, the space agency will select 10 to 15 new members of its pilots' pool. The pool now includes the seven original Mercury astronauts and nine trainees selected last year.

Tiller Residents Join Group For Tour Of Historical Site

By MRS. MILTON HAMMERSLY
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dahack of Tiller joined his cousin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Daley of Eagle Point and friends from the Rogue Valley for a trip to view unusual arrangements of stones, apparently the work of prehistoric inhabitants, located near Bray, Calif. Daley, who is retired from service with the California Highway Patrol in the Yreka area, had viewed the site from an airplane some 30 years ago and then explored it on foot shortly thereafter. This was his second trip to the spot. He told the Dahacks that although the site has been visited by archeologists, both expert and amateur, no one has come up with an explanation of the purpose of the laborious and unusual project, which covers a number of acres and presents a striking view from the air.

Graduate In Training

Alan Helges is now undergoing boot training at the San Diego, Naval base following his induction into the service at Portland June 13. Alan, son of Mrs. Roy Jackson of Drew, was a June graduate of Days Creek High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Bell of Vancouver, Wash., brought the latter's mother, Mrs. Eula Rainville, back to her home in Tiller following a two-month visit with friends and relatives in Vancouver and the Portland area. Mrs. Rainville will spend the summer in Roseburg caring for her great-granddaughters, Sheila and Carla Davis, while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Davis, are at work.

The Davis family lived here for a brief period a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Blum of Los Angeles, who have been visiting at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Keith McGinnis and daughters in Canyonville, called on Keith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon McGinnis, recently.

Mrs. Mildred Condie and daughters, Carlene Anderson and Naoma Condie, have moved to the Cooper & Young rental on the old Tiller Mill hill formerly occupied by Mrs. Charlotte Ostlund, who taught in the Tiller-Drew Grade School in the past year. Mrs. Condie and daughters have been staying at the home of another daughter, Mrs. Charles Jackson and family, at Drew.

Mrs. Jack Lehnberg has returned to her home at Tiller following a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Clair Henry at Idleyd Park. The Henrys moved there recently from Tiller when Henry went to work for Don LaBranch in his logging operation.

Former Residents Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Willis P. Bootz of Fontana, Calif., have arrived for an extended visit at the home of George Dillethm upriver from Tiller. Bootz formerly lived here and operated the local tavern. Parking their trailer at the Dillethm place for a brief visit were Mr.

and Mrs. Gary Freehill and two children, also of Fontana, who were spending their vacation touring California and Oregon. Mrs. Freehill is a daughter of Mrs. Bootz.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Belcher of Tiller have entertained relatives in recent weeks and have taken them to Diamond Lake to enjoy fishing and camping. Their daughter, Mrs. Stanley Williams and her grandson, Mike Kesely, of Arcata, Calif., arrived by plane in Medford and were met by the Belchers, who took them directly to the lake for a rendezvous with other friends for a three-day stay. The following weekend, Mike's parents, and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kesely and daughter of Arcata, Calif., came for a visit and the entire group returned to the lake for an overnight stay. They reported making some fine catches of trout.
