

Dear Abby!

She's Colorful — But Ill!

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: I've heard that some women behave rather peculiarly when they reach the age of 48 or 50, but I think my sister-in-law is abusing the privilege. She wears muu muu's on the street with large colored kerchiefs tied around her head like a fortune teller. She loads on the make-up and junk jewelry and she's off in anxiety and high-heeled shoes. She thinks she's gorgeous. She spent $12 last week just riding the buses so she could talk to the drivers. Meanwhile, she eats tranquilizers like popcorn. I'm worried.

on vacation so my plants wouldn't die. She expected some gratitude if I can judge a voice. Abby, I couldn't thank her, because I had agreed with a friend to pick those vegetables in exchange for waiting my plants! Before going on a trip next time, should I set up a sign, or canvass the neighborhood and explain the arrangement?

VACATIONER
DEAR VACATIONER: It appears that only ONE of your neighbors needs of have the "arrangement explained." So next time explain it.

OHIO
DEAR OHIO: Your sister-in-law is obviously in need of professional help, which is your brother's problem. Don't wait until the police give the poor woman a free ride home before you urge her husband to get her to a doctor.

DEAR ABBY: I am 20 and have been married for five months. My husband and I both work. We leave together in the morning and drive home together. When Joe gets home he lies down on the couch and reads the whole newspaper while I prepare supper. After supper he goes back on the couch and watches television while I clean up the kitchen. When that's done, I'm so tired I go into the bedroom, fall on my face and go to sleep. Then he has the NERVE to say that what little time we have together I spend sleeping. What should I do?

TIRED
DEAR TIRED: No bride of five months holds down a full-time job in addition to doing her own housework because she wants the exercise. Since you are helping to BUY the groceries, tell Joe to get off the couch and help you prepare them. That way you'll have YOUR work and double HIS pleasure.

DEAR ABBY: A neighbor of mine dumbfounded me this morning when she told me she had picked my vegetables while I was

Babushkas, Boots To Enter Fall Fashion Parade This Year

NEW YORK (UPI)—The casual look of country clothes takes to town for fall and winter. Babushkas and boots were a couple of the earmarks of the overwhelming trend to easy-going clothes as the New York couture group of designers-manufacturers opened today a series of shows for visiting fashion editors from the United States and Canada. The couture group showings, lasting through Friday, will be followed by another series of shows for four days by a newly-formed American designers group including some California firms.

Some of the babushkas were casual scarves, tied peasant fashion, around the head. In some collections, the babushka was fur. One manufacturer showed a leopard scarf worn with a slim-cut beige wool daytime dress. Boots stepped out in almost every collection — most of them worn with bulky, country-type tweeds and shaggy mohairs, but a few were jeweled brocades or jet beaded boots to wear with evening fashions.

Three Heights
Day time boots in suede or kid came in three heights — almost to the knee, mid-calf, and ankle high. Also part of the casual trend: Endorsement of the mid-height heel for day, shown in many cases as a single tie, Oxford walking shoe. Leg coverings in many cases were cable-knit and New York and Philadelphia reporters saw in late May and early June, here were some of the things everyone in the multi-billion dollar New York fashion market was doing. Casual Jumper — The casual looking jumper, for both day and evening. Some of the elaborate jumpers came with sealskin sleeves and collar with the rest of the garment wool. Others contrasted wool with velvet. One firm showed a shiny jet fabric combined with wool for evening. — A revival of velvet everywhere for late day and evening clothes, most often shown in black. Other fabrics, in the more casual clothes, included deep-textured tweeds, shaggy mohairs, wide wale corduroys and twills. — Use of fur in novel as well as traditional manner. Weary of merely lining a satin evening coat in mink, designers turned to making mink blouses, sleeveless, to go with tweed suits, or using white mink for sleeveless weskit tops for wool evening dresses.

POPE VISITS CARDINAL
VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope Paul VI left the Vatican Sunday night to pay a visit to ailing Clemente Cardinal Micara, his vicar for Rome.

MAKES HISTORY
DOUGLAS, Isle of Man (UPI) — Queen Mother Elizabeth made history Friday by presiding over the annual open air session of the Isle of Man Parliament, the oldest such legislative body in the world. It was the first time that a woman had presided over the parliament at the ceremony, which goes back more than 1,000 years.
