Famed Boxing Manager Dies

MIAMI, Fla. (UPI)—Through-out the boxing world today, the bell was mournfully tolling for Jack (Doc) Kearns, the fight game's most fabulous manager, who died here early Sunday in his sleep.

Jack Dempsey and others among the eight world champions who had been managed by 80-year-old Doc phoned or messaged their condolences to members of the family.

Dempsey, 68, who teamed with Kearns and the late promoter, Tex Rickard, in the Roaring Twenties to produce the first million-dollar fight, got assured over the phone from New York: "I'll fly into Miami Tuesday afternoon."

Services were tentatively scheduled for the Philbrick Funeral Home in nearby Coral Gables, Fla., at 10 a.m. Wednesday.

Doc was given the baptismal name John Leo McKernan shortly after his birth at Waterloo, Mich., Aug. 17, 1882.

But later when he became a professional boxer in the Far West, he shortened the name to Jack Kearns. And it was Dempsey who gave him the nickname of Doc because Kearns knew so many prescriptions for blood-stoppers for cuts and for limbering oils used in rubdowns.

Kearns recently estimated that he had managed more than 500 professional boxers and that since nearly all of my boys were good earners, I figure their total purses must have exceeded $40 million, and that my share was about $13 million.

He paused then and added, "And you'd never believe a man could go through that much money."

Kearns, the real "golden boy" of boxing, said heavyweight champion Dempsey's purses and other earnings totalled about $19 million, and that the money registered by Mickey Walker, former welterweight and middleweight champion, approximated $6 million.

Doc, spry and wiry in his 80th year but somewhat withered and stooped, was taken ill at Los Angeles in March but he returned to Miami, where he underwent a month's hospital check-up.

BRIAN STERNBERG, University of Washington ace pole vaulter shown here displaying the form that made him holder of the pending world's record vault of 16 feet, 8 inches, was injured in a trampoline accident at Seattle July 2 and has been paralyzed from the neck down due to a dislocated cervical vertebrae. The latest medical report is that Sternberg may be permanently paralyzed. (UPI Telephoto)

Crashes Thrill Fans As Hardtops Roll Again At Roseburg Speedway

Thrilling crashes highlighted the second night of hardtop and jalopy racing at the Roseburg Speedway Saturday.

In the scheduled 35-lap main event for hardtops the race was called after 15 laps with Hal Weller of Roseburg leading the field. Medford's Johnny Jones hit a light pole at the north end of the track during the 15th lap, twisting the pole around and leaving a dark spot on the track which caused the race to be stopped.

Don Hein, Roseburg, smashed the front end of his hardtop in the sixth lap of the same race when he rammed a light pole at the other end of the track.

Only seven of the 12 cars that started the jalopy main event managed to chug across the finish line. Bob Hooker, Roseburg, was declared the winner, but officials could not decide the remaining order of finishers.

In the fast heat races for hardtops, Bud Van Osten and Dan Pitt tangled on the sixth lap. Van Osten hit the retainer wall, taking a chunk out of the concrete and disabling his car. Pitt ended in the infield with his machine also out of commission.

Van Osten set the fast time of the night in the time trials as he circled the newly-paved quarter mile track in 15.67 seconds.

Winners of the trophy dashes for the second time were Jim Standley for the hardtops and Vern Dykstra in the jalopy action. Both are Roseburg drivers.

In the jalopy heat races John Wilson and Hooker emerged victorious, while Ray Gardner, Coquille, and Hein came out on top in the hardtop heat races. Hein won the fast heat.

The next hardtop and jalopy races at the Roseburg speedway will be held July 13 with time trials starting at 7:30 p.m. and the regular action beginning at 8.

HEAD FOR HILLS
 NUMATA, Japan (UPI) — So many Japanese mountain climbers swarmed Sunday over Mt. Tanigawa that police with walkie-talkies helped direct the traffic. With the climbing season at its summer peak, an estimated 5,500 persons were on the slopes of the 6,380-foot mountain 70 miles northwest of Tokyo. The mountain has claimed eight lives this year.

Roseburg B Team Tops Myrtle Point, 13-4

Blasting 14 hits, the Roseburg B American Legion Juniors racked up their third victory in four starts Sunday before the home fans.

The local team exploded for seven runs in the second inning, then coasted to an easy 13-4 triumph over the invading Myrtle Point crew in the first game of a scheduled twin-bill.

Rain cancelled the second game at Legion Field.

Roseburg collected more than enough runs for the victory in the second inning when it began pounding the Myrtle Point mound staff. Charles Dornisfe started a five-run third inning uprising when he blasted a solo homer to lead off the frame. When the inning came to a close the local powerhouse was on top by a rousing 12-0 count. Roseburg's final tally crossed the plate in the fourth frame.

Russ Hubbard, flashy Roseburg right-hander was credited with the triumph. Hubbard allowed only one run before being relieved by Pete Woodruff who was charged with the final three Myrtle Point tallies. The victory evens Hubbard's pitching record at 1-1 as he was on the losing end of the B team's lone setback—that being a 4-3 loss to the strong Lockwood Motors team of Roseburg.

In collecting 14 hits off the Myrtle Point chuckers, the B crew set a new high for the season. The previous high was in the 10-2 opening win over the same team.

Roseburg's second Legion team has now posted two wins over Myrtle Point and bested the Myrtle Creek Babe Ruth contingent.

The next outings on tap for the rampaging B team will be Wednesday when coach Jerry Droscher's crew travels to Marshfield to meet the Al Pierce Lumber Co. team in a pair of games starting at 6 p.m.

The pitching in the Marshfield series will be handled by Pat Long, Ray Shepherd and Doug Matson, with Long and Matson the probable starters. Dornisfe will complete the Roseburg battery against the coastal crew.

Starting in the infield against Marshfield will be Stan Young at first, Jim Kiser at second, Mike Cashner at third and Danny Withers at short. Young is from Glide, Kiser from Camas Valley, Cashner from Roseburg and Withers from Douglas High as the B team's infield boasts a complete representation of Douglas County.

The probable outfield starters include Jim Coon, Myrtle Creek, in left field, Shepherd, Douglas, in center, and Chuck Person, Douglas, in right.

Topflight reserve power added strength to Droscher's charges. Reserves include Dick Davidson, Dave Fenner, Butch Watson, Bill King, Mike Doyle, Woodruff, Mattson, Long, Gary Heeter and Rian Brown.

The next home appearance for the highly-polished B team is set for July 14 when the Towers Motors team of North Bend invades Legion Field for a 1:30 p.m. contest.

BOUT ON BRITISH TV
 NEW YORK (UPI) — Sportvision Inc., which owns the ancillary rights to the Sonny Liston-Floyd Patterson heavyweight title bout, has made arrangements with the British Broadcasting Corporation (BBC) for "same-day" telecasting of the fight.

The bout will be held on July 22, which is early morning of July 23 in Britain. A kinescope of the bout will be flown from Las Vegas to Britain via the polar route immediately after the fight.
