

NEW OFFICERS of Valentine Chapter No. 98, OES, are pictured above. Left to right: Pat Eubanks, worder; Angela McCracken, Martha; Betty Feero, Ruth; Ina Harryman, Adah; Dorothy James, chaplain; Oscar Olsen, associate patron; Eva Feero, worthy matron; Clifford Kent, worthy

patron; Helen Verrell, associate matron; Marvin Cornutt, secretary; Leona Bowman, conductress; Zora Stringer, associate conductress; Alberta Tilche, organist; Maryean Baker, Electa, and Mack Eubanks, sentinel. (Picture by Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek).

INSTALLING OFFICERS for Valentine Chapter No. 98, OES, are pictured above and include: Esther Hogg, installing grand organist; Virginia Wright, worthy grand matron; Eva Feero, worthy matron; Clifford Kent, worthy patron;

Miles Feero, installing grand patron; Verna Conley, installing grand chaplain, and LaVerne Williams, installing grand marshal. (Picture by Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek).

Installation Is Enjoyed

Valentine Chapter No. 98, OES, after a brief closed meeting, held open installation of officers at the IOOF Hall in Myrtle Creek June 24. Sharing the honors of the East were Virginia Wright, worthy grandmatron of the grand chapter of Oregon; Carlotta K. Wiseman, past grand matron; Millie Doud, grand Adah; Katherine Roadman and Marie Brockridge, grand committee members; Zenobia Akor grand representative, and worthy matron; Joan Harper of Roseburg; Doris Steenbaugh of Oakland, and Grace Downing of Kirby. The Chapter room was beautifully decorated with flowers of white, pink and gold. Mrs. Feero wore pink and other officers wore brocade gowns with gold jewelry and corsages made of gold lace and Hawaiian wood roses. Delicious refreshments were served by Past Matrons following the impressive installation ceremony.

Peggy Genean Vaughn Now Mrs. Emerson Atchley

An impressive wedding ceremony took place Saturday afternoon at 4:30 p.m. when Miss Peggy Genean Vaughn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Vaughn, was united in marriage to Emerson Atchley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Atchley, all of Yoncalla. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. L. S. Hootman, pastor of the Yoncalla Assembly of God Church.

Large baskets of white gladioli and blue Esther Reed daisies decorated the altar of the Yoncalla Church of Christ, with smaller bouquets of hydrangea and Canterbury bells, tied with blue satin ribbon completed the decorations.

Charlotte Atchley, sister of the bridegroom and Ellen Morin were candle-lighters for the two large candelabra on either side of the altar.

Mrs. Lehman Myatt of Santa Cruz, Calif., was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Felix Latham, who also played the traditional wedding marches. Mrs. Myatt sang "Together with Jesus" and "Wedding Prayer." Flower girl was Mary Lou Turner. She wore a blue dress with white hat, shoes and gloves.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white silk organza with a tiered floor-length skirt of Chantilly lace. The bodice was made of white satin and Chantilly lace. The dress was fashioned with long lace sleeves and a sweetheart neckline, trimmed with sequins. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place with a tiara of sequins. She carried a bridal bouquet of blue and white Esther Reed daisies and white satin ribbon.

Mrs. Clancy Cottrell of Roseburg was matron of honor. Miss Carolyn Atchley, sister of the bridegroom was bridesmaid. Both wore blue silk afternoon dresses with white accessories and white headbands. They carried bouquets of Esther Reed daisies and white satin streamers. Best man was the Rev. Hehman Myatt of Coquille, uncle of the bridegroom; Clarence Koch and Floyd Turner. The bride's mother wore a blue dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a flowered blue dress with white accessories. Both wore corsages of white Esther Reed daisies.

A reception was held in the so-

OF INTEREST to his many Roseburg friends is the assignment given to Roseburg's second lieutenant R. Stephen Dorsey, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dorsey of this city. Lt. Dorsey, who was graduated from Roseburg High School and University of Oregon, was first sent to Officer Training School for an Ordnance Officers orientation course and then enrolled in a more technical and specialized Armament Maintenance course for a study of all American weaponry in the conventional field. He is now with the Technical Intelligence Unit in Heidelberg, Germany, where he will spend three years on tour of duty. A large number of foreign officers and foreign student friends were also formerly with Dorsey at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Maryland, and at University of Oregon.

Woodmen Circle Meeting Enjoyed Monday Evening

The regular meeting of the Woodmen Circle Umpqua Grove 31 was held Monday evening at the Winston Evergreen Grange Hall.

Plans were discussed for the annual luncheon to be held in the patio at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Croucher on Laner Lane. Mrs. Croucher will be assisted by Bessie Cornish, Alice Hill, Ethel Fearnow and Gertrude Hess.

An announcement was made that several members were donors during the recent visit of the Bloodmobile.

A report was made on the recent benefit spaghetti supper held at the home of Beatrice Cornish. A portion of the evening was spent in reviewing the Constitution and By-Laws, which was conducted by Beatrice Cornish. A benefit breakfast will be given by Agnes Veach in the patio of her home, July 14, from 7 a.m. until noon. She will be co-hostess with Ann Strong.

Phebe McGuire will hostess the Work Basket at her home in Winston July 15 at 7:30 p.m. Co-hostesses will be Jessie Thomas and Ethel Fearnow.

Those present for the evening affair were: Bella Holm, Beatrice Cornish, Viola White, Jessie Thomas, Ruby Tucker, Phebe McGuire, Ethel Fearnow, Gertrude Hess, Alice Christensen, Lou Benson, Marjorie Doyle, Evelyn Croucher and Kim Dyhre.

Women's Mission Circle enjoys quilting session

The Women's Mission Circle of the Glendale Assembly of God Church met Wednesday for an all-day meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stackhouse. Members worked on a quilt for the missionary box. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon.

Society

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER
BEVERLY BROOKE
8 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. — Tues., July 9, 1963

Church Rites Unite Couple

Double ring rites performed Sunday, June 2, at the Church of the Nazarene at Coos Bay united in marriage Miss Maxine Marsh of Coos Bay and the Rev. Jamie France of Port Orford.

The bride is the daughter of W. R. Marsh of Rockaway and the late Mrs. Marsh. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank France of Roseburg.

The Rev. F. M. Landis performed the 3 p.m. ceremony. He was assisted by the Rev. Malcolm Turkington.

Arrangements of calla lilies and yellow iris decorated the church for the wedding which was attended by more than 300 friends and relatives of the couple.

Alecron lace formed the bodice, long sleeves pointed at the wrists and deep front skirt panel of the bride's floor-length gown. Iridescent sequins outlined the sweetheart neckline of the bodice, and an overskirt of tulle completed the bouffant skirt of net. Her elbow-length veil of illusion was edged in handmade lace and was held in place with a tiara of matching lace. She carried white orchids bound to a white Bible, and wore a pearl pendant, a wedding present from the bridegroom.

The bride was given in marriage by Dr. Carl C. Werth.

Mrs. B. J. Trytko of Milwaukee, the bride's sister, was matron of honor. Mrs. Ronald Marsh, her sister-in-law from Portland, and Mrs. Charles Lane, another sister from Oregon City, were her attendants. They wore identical frocks of pale yellow, and their matching headresses were of net attached to coronets of satin. They carried nosegays of white carnations and yellow Dutch iris. Denise Marsh, small niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She was costumed in yellow.

Alvord France of Mesa, Ariz., was best man for his brother. Ushers were the Rev. Bill Sparks, missionary in Guatemala; the Rev. Don Heiter, Cloverdale, Calif.; Ronald Marsh, brother of the bride; and B. J. Trytko, the bride's brother-in-law.

Candlelighters were Roolie and Donald Walsh, nephews of the bride. Another nephew, Steven Marsh, was the ring bearer. A reception in the church social rooms followed the ceremony. Wisteria, golden chain and calla lilies were used for floral decorations. Mrs. C. C. Werth, assisted by Mrs. Robert Garrett, cut and served the six-tiered wedding cake which had been made and decorated by Mrs. Wallace Blakely. Mrs. Anna Ediger, Dallas, presided at the coffee service, and Mrs. Herman Welch, a sister of the bride from Molla, ladled the punch.

Miss Emilie France, sister of the bridegroom, from Roseburg, registered the guests. Miss Sally Jacobsen, Miss Gail McCrary and Mrs. Dick Cripe took care of the gifts.

The bridegroom's mother wore a rose-colored frock with bone-colored accessories and an orchid corsage.

When the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Crater Lake, the bride was wearing a pink wool suit with white accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The new Mrs. France attended Cascade College and was graduated from Canby High School and Simpson Bible Institute, Seattle, Wash. Her husband was graduated from Lebanon High School and attended Oregon State University before attending and graduating from Multnomah School of the Bible, Portland, and Portland State College.

The newlyweds are making their home in Port Orford where the Rev. Mr. France is pastor of the First Community Church.

THE FRANCE-MARSH NUPTIALS, which took place in Coos Bay at the Church of the Nazarene united in marriage Miss Maxine Marsh, daughter of W. R. Marsh of Rockaway and the late Mrs. Marsh, and the Rev. Jamie France of Port Orford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank France of Roseburg. (Picture by Salon Portraits, Coos Bay).

Lawn Wedding At Oakland Charming Event Of June 8

Beverly Sharon Koch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Koch of Sutherlin, and Jerold Franklin Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brown of Oakland were united in marriage June 8 at 1 p.m. at the lovely wedding on the lawn of the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The Rev. Eugene Groves of the Sutherlin Methodist Church officiated at the double ring ceremony, points at the wrists. Her shoulder-length sheath dress of white lace over taffeta. Her jacket was white lace with the sleeves ending in points at the wrists. Her shoulder-length veil was held in place by a white pearl tiara. Her bouquet was of white carnations and red roses.

Linda Brown, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor, and Linda Koch, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. They wore red brocade satin sheath dresses. Their veils were held in place by red bows matching their dresses. They carried nosegays of red roses, buds, and wore white gloves and slippers.

Best man was Richard Samaron. Ushers were Charles Koch, brother of the bride, and James Brown, brother of the bridegroom.

The reception, held on the lawn of the Brown home, was given by the bride's parents. Margie Robins had charge of the guest book, and Mrs. Frank Butcher, sister of the bridegroom, had charge of the gifts.

Ella Mae Hulen cut and served the four-tiered white wedding cake which was decorated with red roses and topped by bridal figurines. The cake had been made and decorated by Mrs. Allen Bradley of Sutherlin. Punch and coffee were served by Marlene Thomas.

The bride's mother wore black and white with a red and white rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore beige, with matching accessories and yellow rosebud corsage.

The newlyweds honeymooned at the coast and are now residing at 322 Pitzer St., Roseburg. The bride is attending Roseburg Beauty School, and the bridegroom is employed at National Plywood.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Koch, Mr. and Mrs. Erma Koch, Mr. and Mrs. John McBee, Geraldine Ekberg and Barbara Suecine, all of Springfield; and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fering and Mr. and Mrs. Carylie Scarbrough of Creswell.

Surprise Affair Is Given At Eldon Powell Residence

A surprise gathering was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Powell, Sunday, with polka at noon followed by a pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Powell.

Those taking part in the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Keppinger and granddaughter, Pamela; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Keppinger and baby; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Weaver; Ova Patchen, Mr. and Mrs. John Powell and grandson, Eric; Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Harms and daughter, Tina; and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Powell, all from Salem.

Mrs. Elmer Richards and son, Dennis, Aumsville; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Koenig and daughters, Twila and Loree; Dallas; Mrs. Everett Butler and son, Paul, Forest Grove; Minda Chladek, Lebanon; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Yarbrough and Mrs. Lora Swan and children, Reedsport; Mildred Powell, Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Lenard Harms and son, Danny; Mr. and Mrs. John Booher and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Powell, all from Salem.

The program included instrumental music by five girls, Rebekah Dalke and Debra Lowden, playing flutes, and Susan Lowden, Martha Allen and Arlene Murphy, clarinets. Mrs. Paul Schimp and Mrs. Richard Derrig sang a duet.

The Rev. Keith Potts was speaker. A ventriloquist, the Rev. Mr. Potts, was accompanied by his dummy, "Joey."

Mrs. Gallup's CURRICULUM KINDERGARTEN

In East Roseburg

1624 S. E. Douglas Roseburg, Oregon

- Specializing In "Reading Readiness"
 - Presenting a Foundation For Arithmetic
 - Offering a Pre-School Testing Service
- For Children Approximately 4-6 Years Of Age Including Individual Tests of Intelligence

REGISTRATION DATES

Now Thru July 15 — and August 1 to 15th.
9 A.M. to 5 P.M. — Limited Registration

Please Call 673-7593 For Registration Appointment

Personal Registration By Mrs. Mary Lou Gallup (Master of Arts in Elementary Education) 11 Years Teaching Experience

- The Curriculum Kindergarten Will Begin September 3rd.

Sunshine Club Hosted Recently

Miss Bernadine Princen entertained the Northside Sunshine Club at the home of Mrs. M. L. Sory. After a short meeting, the rest of the afternoon was spent in games and visiting. Mrs. Phil Hart won the high prize, and Mrs. William Stewig won the extra prize. The hostess presented Mrs. M. L. Sory with a gift.

Lovely roses and peonies from the gardens of Mrs. M. L. Sory and the hostess decorated the room. A low heart-shaped vase of roses served as the centerpiece. Mrs. Sory assisted the hostess in serving refreshments to guests. Misses Julie and Katherine Weatherby, who are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Sory; Mrs. Stewig, Mrs. Phil Hart, Mrs. A. B. Johnson and Mrs. R. D. Parsons.

Anniversary Is Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wallace invited several of their friends in Thursday afternoon to help them celebrate their 57th wedding anniversary. Visiting was enjoyed and refreshments were served to Mrs. Harold Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey, Mr. and Mrs. George Edes, Mrs. Charles Vian, Miss Kay Turpin, Rev. and Mrs. Palmer Sorlein, Mr. and Mrs. Noble Snider, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Luce and Mrs. Harold Turpin.

Picnic Enjoyed

The following Camas Valley people enjoyed a picnic and get-together last Sunday at the Camas Mountain Wayside Park. Mrs. Sue Jesell, Mrs. Louis Stimbach, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robertson and Mrs. Pearl Waters all from Grants Pass; Jim Truman from Klamath Falls; Mrs. Cynthia Truman, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Davis, Camas Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Royal from Myrtle Point. Later in the evening, Laurence and Mrs. Myrtle White from Myrtle Point joined the J. A. Davis family at their home for a visit.

Association Has Meeting Friday

The Women's Association of Oakland Community Presbyterian Church met Friday at the church for a delicious dessert luncheon served by Mrs. Clyde Manning and Mrs. Hunter Early assisted by Joanne Manning.

Mrs. Carlton Goff, president, conducted the meeting and Mrs. Manning led the devotions with Mrs. Jesse Lee reading the Outreach story.

Joanne Manning reported on attending 4-H summer school at Corvallis and demonstrated some of the activities held there. Mrs. Harold Crouch led the discussion on the topic, "Who's Listening?" Mrs. Alta Howard presented the Missionary report.

Add-A-Neighbor Club Entertained

The Add-A-Neighbor Club held regular picnic for year at Umpqua Park on Thursday. Present were Mrs. N. R. Fisher, Mrs. Harold Curry and children, Bruce, Jolyn and Cynthia; Mrs. Donald E. Jones and daughters, Ruthann, Linda and Kathy; Mrs. Russell P. Chase, Mrs. Floyd Jacobs, Mrs. Elmer T. Schiender Mrs. Lewis, members and guest for the day was Russell P. Chase. A dinner was held followed by a social hour of games and other entertainment.

Whatever your budget,
Whatever your taste,
When you want
PICTURE FRAMES
See the largest Selection Available at
CHRIS' STUDIO
427 S. E. Main St. — Ph. 672-3212