

Kansas City Buses Roll

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — Public buses rolled in greater numbers today following a last-minute "tentative agreement" between transit officials and the bus drivers union.

Negotiators for the union and Kansas City Transit, Inc., announced the agreement at midnight Wednesday night — the time set by the union as an "absolute deadline" for a settlement of the 21-month-old dispute.

Union President Loren Hargus said he would urge acceptance by union membership of the 11th hour offer by management. Transit President Donald Eyer termed the offer "fair to both sides," and said he would recommend that

Luck Dangerous To Depend Upon

By OSWALD JACOBY
 (Written For NEA)

I have often stressed the importance of the key word, "Arch." I am indebted to George Gooden, President of the American Bridge Teachers' Association for the first three letters of that word. I added the "H," which asks "How can I make or set the contract?"

The ABTA will be holding its annual meeting in Los Angeles the 25th and 26th of this month and anyone interested in learning the latest things in teaching will do well to attend.

The "C" stands for "Count your winners and losers."

George points out that South can count nine sure winners at his three-trump contract if he wins the first trick with dummy's ace of spades and knocks out the ace of clubs immediately.

George points out further that if South tries a spade finesse and East holds the king a heart shift will beat the hand in the event that the heart finesse is wrong.

Of course, it is tough luck to lose two finesses, but George says that a winning player should not depend on luck when he doesn't have to.

South's correct play is to take the ace of spades and go right after East's clubs.

East will take his ace and shift to a heart and now South can try the heart finesse. It will lose, but South won't be hurt. He will still gather in four diamonds, three clubs and the two major suit aces for his nine tricks.
