

Dear Abby!

Rough Situation!

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: Aren't there men like that, but to wait until they get home to break the news. My buddy says he doesn't want to live any more.

A BUDDY'S BUDDY

DEAR BUDDY: I've said it many times, but I'll say it again. When a girl promises to "wait" for her man who's gone in the service, she should keep that promise. Frequently, that's the only thing that keeps a guy going.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of people who invite you to their home for a visit and have the TV going full blast all the time you are there? By the time the evening is over your throat is sore from trying to out-shout the television.

SORE THROAT

DEAR SOPE: Guests who are asked to compete with the television all evening should decline the second invitation.

CONFIDENTIAL TO EDDIE AND PAUL: Get the lettuce together, boys, and you'll have no trouble finding the tomatoes.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50c to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Melvin Whiting, chairman of missionary activities in the local Adventist church, announced Saturday a special Medical Self-help course is being offered at the Seventh-day Adventist Camp meeting at Gladstone Park — the church-owned camp ground near Portland. This special course will be given from 1 to 3 o'clock each day except Saturday, he announced. The camp meeting begins Thursday evening, July 11, and closes Saturday evening, July 20.

Mrs. Clayton (Peggy) Konzack and her two daughters, Dianne and Sharon, have returned from Butte, Mont. They brought Mrs. Konzack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fuehr, to stay with them until her mother fully recovers from a recent accident. They returned by way of College Place, Wash., where they visited Mrs. Konzack's niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Nelson. They also had the privilege of attending a few of the services of the Seventh-day Adventists' camp meeting which was in progress in College Place, the home of Walla Walla College.

GLIDE ARTIST WINS

Lorraine Martin, well known Glide artist, won a first place award for her portrait "Carole," in the professional oil division at the semi-annual "Artists Showcase" held July 4-7 at the Eugene Hotel. Mrs. Martin's entry was one of 135 from west coast artists. Winning portraits will be on display in the hotel foyer through this week.

Community News Briefs

Amaranth Social Club members and their guests will have a picnic Sunday, July 14, at 1 p.m. at San Creek Park on the North Umpqua River. The club will furnish coffee, ice cream and punch.

Larry Inman, Victor White and David Ross have returned to Roseburg from a month of naval reserve recruit training and cruise at sea. They left Roseburg by air June 8 for San Diego for two weeks' training, then were flown to San Francisco where they boarded the destroyer USS Laws for a two weeks' cruise to Aberdeen, Wash., and return. The ship docked at Aberdeen for three days, then, on its return, at Eureka over the Fourth of July. Ship members participated in a holiday celebration in that city. The reservists, members of the Electronic Warfare Division 137, returned to Roseburg by air Saturday night.

Doyle Pressnell of Riverside, Calif., who was formerly a teacher in the Roseburg School System, is arriving here this week to visit his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Herriott, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert June of Hastings, New Zealand, are here visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Charles Bingham, and aunt, Mrs. Beryl Collett. June is checking out West Coast orchards and production methods for his company in New Zealand. He spent a part of this week in Idaho Falls, Idaho, attending to business and returned here today. He plans to go to the Imperial Valley next week. This is June's first trip back to America since leaving 26 years ago for New Zealand. He was born and reared in Canada. They will return home via Canadian Pacific Airlines out of Vancouver, B.C.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Treber have returned from Fargo, N.D., where they attended the wedding of Miles Nannenga, brother of Mrs. Treber. Mr. Treber was an usher at the wedding. They also visited Mrs. Treber's mother and family in Jamestown, N.D.

Mrs. Milton Smith and three children from Loma Linda, Calif., are spending a couple of weeks here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Harris and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Henderson, all on the Speedway Road, as well as other relatives and friends in the area. Mr. Smith was not able to make the trip with his family. He has served several years as a teacher in the Seventh-day Adventists' school system, much of the time as pastor and teacher. This last year he served as a teacher in the church's school at Escondido.

Miss Gertrude Hildeburn is on vacation at this time from her work at Miller's.

Dr. Dallen Jones of this city spent Wednesday in Salem attending a meeting of the State Livestock Markets Board. Mrs. Jones accompanied him and attended a meeting of the auxiliary to the State Veterinary Medical Association which was also held in Salem. They returned to Roseburg Wednesday night.

Teresa Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Leonard of this city, accompanied her aunt and cousins, Mrs. Merrill Leonard and Patricia and Margaret, back to their home in Sacramento, Calif., Wednesday to enjoy a vacation and visit here for a couple of weeks. The Sacramento visitors have been here visiting at the Leonard home the last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Schornstein of Myrtle Creek were in Roseburg Saturday to attend the services in the local Seventh-day Adventist Church. Mrs. Schornstein has served as a teacher in the Adventists' elementary school system for a number of years. She was the lower grade teacher in the church's school at Canyonville last year and is scheduled for the same work this coming year. Rupert Gessle, who taught grades 5 and 6 in the local church school, Roseburg Junior Academy, for three years, will be the principal at Canyonville again this year. Mrs. Schornstein stated. The Canyonville school serves Myrtle Creek, Glendale and Canyonville to provide a stronger school program instead of the three separate schools as before last school year.
