

Glide Graduate Home On Visit

By MRS. ARTHUR SELBY
Ramona Shanafelt, daughter of Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. Orville Shanafelt of Glide, arrived at the home of her parents Friday for a week's visit.

Miss Shanafelt was graduated from Glide High School in 1960, then went to San Francisco, obtaining employment with an insurance company, later joining the Lewis Memorial Blood Bank as clerk-typist for the past two years. After her vacation, Ramona leaves for Chicago where her fiancé resides. She plans to obtain employment with a business firm.

Eugene Visit Made
David Collins spent the holiday weekend in Eugene visiting the Orville Reese family. David is a senior this year at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee and four children of Portland were holiday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Lewis. Mrs. Lee is a niece of Mrs. Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cammer, Roy, Tommy and Marcia, drove to Longview, Wash., to spend the holiday visiting old friends and to enjoy swimming, fishing and clam digging. They returned Saturday with razor clams and two nice salmon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Spencer and three children also chose Longview for their holiday vacation. They camped on the beach and spent the time clam digging.

Singer Hosted
Members of the Glide Baptist Church were hosts to the Singing Ambassadors from the Multnomah School of the Bible at Portland for overnight Sunday. The Ambassadors had presented a concert that evening at the church. Mr. and Mrs. George and Mrs. Ralph Hickman provided the hospitality.

Ice Cream Social To Aid Tennile Fire Department

By MRS. WALTER COATS
At the last meeting of the Tennile Volunteer Department, members voted to sponsor an ice cream social at Aldine Park on the W. D. Lockwood ranch on Aug. 4, starting at 5 p.m. Pies and cakes will also be on sale.

The next meeting of the fire department will be at the Tennile home in Tennile July 21 at 8 p.m. when final plans will be completed for the social. Proceeds are to go for needed fire equipment.

Californians Are Guests
Visiting for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Thomas on Reston Road in Tennile were Mrs. Thomas' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Francis and daughters Margie and Linda, of San Diego. The two men drove to Siltcoos Lake for fishing.

The visitors left for Medford to visit Mrs. Francis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Radcliffe, with whom they will leave their daughter Margie who will attend Linfield College next fall.

Miss Lillian Bushnell spent a recent weekend visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Matthews, at Cooson.

Mr. Dawson Dowdy has returned to her home in Chico, Calif. She has been visiting her cousin, Minnie Dowdy, and family in Tennile.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lockwood and family and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lockwood and family have returned to their homes at Myers Flat, Calif. They spent the holiday weekend visiting the Lawrence Lockwood family and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Dwight, and family and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Lockwood, and other relatives in the area. Larry is a brother of Mrs. Dwight.

Former Pastor Serves At Church In Oakland

Dr. Homer Noble of Port Orford will be the pulpit at the Oakland Community Presbyterian Church again this Sunday in the absence of the Rev. Neil Brown who is on vacation.

Dr. Noble was formerly pastor of the church for several years. He was the supply pastor last Sunday and was accompanied by his wife and her sister, Miss Gertrude Bayless of Los Angeles who has been a house guest of the Nobles.

Funeral Rites Slated

PORTLAND (UPI)—A funeral service will be held Thursday for Gladys Tucker of Portland, recently appointed chief of the exploration section for the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers here. Tucker, 35, died at his home Saturday.

Glendale Family Back From East

By MRS. GERALD B. FOX
Mr. and Mrs. Chester Smith Jr. and family have returned to Glendale after spending a year on the East Coast where he was doing graduate study.

The Smiths' 8's Square Dance Club finished the Azalea Grange Hall floor on a recent Saturday. At the same time the Home Ec club of the Grange repaired the dining room floor.

Three members of the Glendale Assembly of God Bible School were presented top prizes for bringing additional boys and girls to the recent sessions of the school. Jimmy Sheppard was winner of an eight-transistor radio as president of the contest. Linnearup, Bonnie Wells and Analee Brady, were named king and queen for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Marlow of Kingsley Air Force Base, Klamath Falls, are the parents of an 8 pound boy, Dorman Jacob, born July 6. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Austin Turner of Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ray and their three children of Sacramento arrived July 3 to visit with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gossett, and daughter, Teachers On Tour.

Bill Lapsy, a teacher at Douglas High School and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gaeckede of Astoria, accompanied by John Bergson of the Ridge High School faculty, left last month for a vacation trip to Europe. A card received by Mrs. Gaeckede reported that the duo had visited England and Holland and that Germany and Denmark are next on their itinerary.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Turner of Doris, Calif., and their children, Darlene and Frances, were July 4 visitors at the home of the Austin Turners.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hatton and family recently purchased the McDiarmid home in the Locker Addition of Glendale. Mr. Hatton is a recent item mentioning a visit by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cole of Albuquerque, N.M., an error was made in Coate's rating. He is an Airman First Class, not as reported. Private First Class.

Conference Slated For Baptist Women

The Woman's Baptist Mission Society of Oregon will hold its 30th Annual Conference at Linfield College at McMinnville, July 15-17. Registration will open at noon on Monday, July 15, in Dillon Hall, Thome, near the conference will be "Crown Him With Many Crowns." Tuesday morning's program will be "The Woman's Baptist Mission Society." Mrs. C. S. Mobley, president, will have an active part in the program. Women of the Roseburg church have made the programs for the more than 200 delegates expected to attend the banquet on Wednesday. Southern Oregon Baptist Churches that will be represented are Brookline, Grants Pass, Medford, Meritt and Ridge.

Featured speaker will be Mrs. A. T. Fishman, American Baptist missionary from South India who served many years there as district missionary to the people of Gunter Taluk County. She is author of a book, several papers and has written numerous articles on home life which have proved to be a popular and effective way of conveying the concept of the Christian home to the people of India. Mrs. Fishman will be speaking at 1:30 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday on "Crown Him Lord of India" and at the banquet on Wednesday at 8:45 p.m.

Special feature on Monday night will be "Getting to Know You." Dorm parties and on Tuesday night a talk and pictures of Africa, in Pioneer Lodge, by Mrs. Paul Bauer who spent 20 years in the Cameroons as a Baptist missionary.

The conference will close on Wednesday night with the banquet, theme of which is "Crown Him Lord of All."

Picnic Outing Held By Canyonlagers

By BETH CHAPPELL
Mr. and Mrs. John Terry and daughters of Canyonville met Mrs. Terry's sister, Mrs. Walter Mault and family, of Clifton, Ore., at Crater Lake July 4. From Crater Lake they went to Diamond Lake and on to Union Creek for a day of picnicking and visiting.

California Visit
Carol Smith of San Jose, Calif., was a weekend guest at the W. F. Dunbars.

Mr. and Mrs. Bart Nordling, formerly of Canyonville and now of Montana, visited recently with their son, William Nordling, and family.

Salem Pastor Called To Glendale Church

The Glendale Assembly of God Church held a special meeting Sunday and voted to call a new pastor, the Rev. Robert Hutchison of Salem. Hutchison was the speaker at the morning worship service on Sunday, June 30. He is married and has one pre-adolescent child. The present pastor, the Rev. Leslie Sapp, who resigned the pulpit to move back to Springfield, will preach this Sunday, July 14, and the new pastor will move to Glendale and be ready to assume his duties here by July 21.
