Church Wedding Unites Couple

Miss Celia Anne Damron, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Damron of Grants Pass, and Robert Stanley Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo M. Allen of Glendale, were married in a double-ring ceremony Friday evening, June 28, at the Fruitdale Community Church of the Brethren in Grants Pass.

The bride was attended by Mary-eda Frost as maid of honor, and by two bridesmaids, Loretta Roberts and Karen Foster. Larry Worley was best man, while Clifford Worley, Don Neifer, Darrell Roberts and Bill Frost acted as ushers. The father of the bride officiated, with the assistance of the Rev. James W. Brembaugh of Seattle, and also gave his daughter in marriage.

Clifford Worley and Don Neifer lighted the candles.

Music for the ceremony had been recorded previously, with the bride singing, "O Perfect Love" and "A Wedding Benediction," accompanied at the piano by her bridesmaid, Karen Foster.

The church chancel was lovely with large white baskets of white syringa, yellow gladioli, blue delphinium and bluebells, arranged by Mrs. Dona Vinyard. The ends of the pews along the main aisle were trimmed with syringa and white satin bows.

The bride wore a sheath dress of heavy white satin brocade, designed and made by the bride. The dress had a full floor-length overskirt of the same material, and was detailed with a high neckline, three-quarter length sleeves and a wide satin sash. With it she wore a pearl-effect tiara and fingertip veil. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations circling red rosebuds. Her accessories included a pearl drop necklace.

Her maid of honor wore a street-length gown of yellow satin brocade with a high neckline, short sleeves and bell skirt. She wore a pearl drop necklace and carried a cascade of yellow Esther Reed daisies. Her headpiece was a tiny crown of yellow tulle studded with seed pearls and sequins.

The bridesmaids' blue satin brocade dresses were patterned after that of the maid of honor, with matching blue sash and headpieces. Their bouquets and accessories were identical to that of the maid of honor.

Mrs. Swanson Is Complimented

Mrs. Dean Swanson of Glendale was honored at a pink and blue shower held recently at the home of Mrs. Steve Sutch Sr. Mrs. Sutch, Mrs. Fred Kafer, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Life Edson and Mrs. Ben Whaley were the hostesses.

The house was decorated with pink and blue paper cradles and ceramic vases shaped like baby cradles and teddy bears. The lace-covered gift table was dominated by a large papier-mache stork.

After the honoree had opened her gifts, the hostesses served refreshments. The centerpiece on the serving table was a miniature tree hung with tiny doll house furniture.

Those present or sending gifts included the following: Mrs. Gene Hartman, Mrs. Glenn Austin Sr., Mrs. Jerry Gregory, Mrs. Harold Stapleton, Mrs. Andy Owens.

Mrs. Carl Ford, Mrs. Sid Perry and Virginia; Mrs. Joe Payne, Mrs. Jimmy Johns, Mrs. Jack Snelling.

Mrs. Claude Humphrey, Mrs. Gordon Mehl, Mrs. George Wells, Mrs. Lewis Price, Mrs. George Major, Mrs. John Sether, Mrs. Rod Swanson, Mrs. Harold Van Valkenburg, Mrs. Jim Mize.

Mrs. Glenn Austin Jr., Mrs. William Neustel, Mrs. Fred Wright, Mrs. Dale Johns, Mrs. Walter Reynolds.

Mrs. Al Mohr, Mrs. Frankie Daniels, Mrs. Kenneth G. Brady, Mrs. Fritz Magill, Mrs. Merle Johnson, Mrs. Jim Booth, Mrs. Don Blakely, Mrs. Pete Taylor.

Mrs. Pat Mize, Mrs. Martin Brooks, Mrs. Elbert Myers, Mrs. Curtice Daniels, Mrs. Don Thomas, Mrs. Lynn Troxell, Mrs. Alvin Howard, Gary, Ronnie, and Debby Whately.

Mrs. Olga Redfield, Mrs. Zelma Smith, Mrs. Ida Basye, Mrs. Elaine Lewis and Mrs. Vi Kimbrough, Mrs. Dale Wright, Mrs. Mable Swanson of Noti; Mrs. Ed Combs of Eugene and Mrs. Harold Johnson of San Jose, Calif.

Arvill Millers Hosts At Party

Michelle Shepherd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Belt Shepherd Jr. of Tenille, celebrated her first birthday recently with a party held at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arvill Miller of Glendale.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. Claude Humphrey and son; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Smart and son; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hartman and children; Mr. and Mrs. Starlin Lee and children; Mrs. Jerry Shepherd and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Shepherd and family; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pruitt and family; Fred Terry, Gail Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Arvill N. Miller and family; and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Miller.

Special Meeting Planned By WOM

The Roseburg Chapter of The Women of the Moose met Monday with the College of Regents in charge of the meeting.

College of Regents members, Nora McIntire and Betty Wambolt, received their red tassels in the impressive Red Tassel Ceremony.

Candidates welcomed as new members were Josephine Guse and Earlene Buell.

Special guest of the evening was Dixie Vater, who is transferring from the Santa Rosa to the Roseburg chapter.

A special meeting will be held July 15. All officers, committee chairman and committee members are requested to be present.

Judith Endicott Now Mrs. L. Hirn

On June 11, the Oak Tree Inn at Winchester was the setting for the wedding of Miss Judith Endicott and Lee Hirn. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Len G. Ingebrithsen, minister of the Faith Lutheran Church of Roseburg at 8 p.m. before 50 members of the family.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Endicott of Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Arola of Lower Garden Valley, Roseburg.

The inn was decorated with white and lavender gladioli. Flanking the prayer bench were candelabra with traditional white tapers.

Wedding music was played by organist, Mrs. Archie Amorde. The "Lord's Prayer" was sung by Eugene Endicott of Portland, brother of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of white satin, with trailing overskirt of chiffon, with lace floral brocade on bodice and skirt. Her shoulder-length veil of French illusion was held by a crown of pearls with cluster of satin roses in the center. She carried a white Bible covered with Stephanotis and a white orchid. She carried a handkerchief belonging to her great grandmother, and wore a small heart shaped necklace belonging to her mother.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Eugene Endicott, sister-in-law of the bride, who wore a full skirted dress of lavender lace and chiffon. Her headpiece was of lavender lace. She carried a nosegay of white carnations with lavender satin streamers.

Best man was George Arola, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother was attired in a pastel orange linen crocheted sheath dress with matching floral hat and white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

The bridegroom's mother wore a beige full-skirted dress with pink carnations.

The guest book was presented by Dianna Maben of Portland.

The reception was held on the covered patio. The serving table, covered with lavender net over white, was centered by a lovely three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, flanked by silver candelabra with white candles. Mrs. Miriam Scott of Portland, sister of the bridegroom, served the cake.

Punch was served by Mary Veltri, aunt of the bride. Faye Endicott, aunt of the bride, served the coffee.

For going away the bride chose a pink suit with white accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid from her wedding bouquet.

The bride attended Roseburg graduating in 1960. She is employed as receptionist-switchboard operator for Cummins Diesel in Portland. The bridegroom attended and graduated from Williamina High School. He is employed by Harlan Griffin Ford in Portland.

After a honeymoon trip to coastal points the newlyweds are now at home to their friends at the Thunderbird Mobile Club, 80, Rt. 1, Wilsonville.

MR. AND MRS. WARREN T. CLOAKE of Roseburg celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at the First Conservative Baptist Church, when their sons-in-law and daughters, the Rev. and Mrs. Nick Neufeld and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Langhoff, were hosts and hostesses. Golden Wedding Enjoyed Sunday

One of the loveliest affairs of the season was held Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Laurance celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a large reception held in the Dillard-Winston Methodist Church social hall.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Mills of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Earle Oakley of Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Laurance of Days Creek. Mrs. Oakley and Mrs. Mills are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Laurance and Hayden Laurance, their son. The Laurances also have eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Gold was the predominate color carried out in the church social room decorations. Floor baskets of pink roses and blue delphinium were used about the room and a fan shaped bouquet of pink gladioli with gold foliage decorated the piano. The piano arrangement was a gift to their grandparents from Kathi and Tim Oakley.

The reception table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with a tiered white wedding cake beautifully decorated with gold colored roses. The silver and crystal candleholders used on the reception table were a gift to the church several years ago in memory of Mr. Laurance's father, G. B. Laurance. Serving the cake were Mrs. W. H. McLain and Mrs. Fred Burks, sister of Mr. Laurance.

Mrs. Gordon Burnett, Mrs. Roy Rice and Mrs. Ruby Peterson, sisters of Mr. Laurance, poured and Mrs. Pearl Harvey and Mrs. Lloyd Pinkston served at the punch bowl.

The serving table and chapter room were decorated with blue and white Esther Reed daisies.

Edna Campbell was chairman of the reception. Michelle Hogan was in charge of the guest book, and Danielle and Shawn Hogan distributed the programs.

From Roseburg were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Arensmeier, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bailey and Kyle, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Banning, Mr. Grover Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Richard D. Bonebrake and David, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Borg and Rebecca.
