

THE FAMILY of Mr. and Mrs. Allan B. Taylor are pictured with them on their golden wedding anniversary. Standing are Mrs. Lewis (Alice) Ambrose, Mrs. Herman (Myrtle) Maneiro, Kenneth Taylor, Mrs. Jack (Roberta) Godberry, Mrs. Joe (May) LaClair and Mrs. Teen (Marion) Becksted.

Seated are Mrs. Paul (Emma) Huckins, Mrs. Vernon (Marjorie) Wellman, the honored couple, and Mrs. Oliver (Ann) Standley. Below Mr. and Mrs. Taylor are shown with their anniversary cake. (Pictures by Chris' Studio of Photography).

MRS. ANNA NICKSON, above, celebrated her 91st birthday Friday at her home on NE Nash by holding open house and receiving the congratulations and good wishes of her many friends. Her daughter, Helen Hahn, acted as hostess, following a luncheon at the Tom Tom. (News-Review Photo).

Anna Nickson 91 Years-Old

Mrs. Anna Nickson, who was 91 years-old Friday, celebrated the occasion at her home by receiving a number of her friends. Birthday gifts, cards and good wishes were extended to her by those calling to celebrate the day.

For the occasion Mrs. Nickson wore an orchid print jersey afternoon dress.

Breakfast Held

Fifty members of the Douglas Barracks No. 176, Veterans of World War I, enjoyed the patio breakfast at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bartlett. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rapp and family of Cottage Grove, formerly of this city. The group will hold no more meetings in July. The August picnic date and place will be announced later.

Tom, after which the open house was held at the Nickson home on NE Nash St. Two beautifully decorated birthday cakes were presented to Mrs. Nickson, one from Mrs. Eldridge E. Brown and one from Ricky Dico, a young friend of the family.

Mrs. Nickson was born Anna B. Keeney July 5, 1872, in Brownsville, Ore. She was married in 1892 and is the mother of four children, two of whom are still living and include Helen Hahn and Lynn Edward Nickson, both of Roseburg. Mrs. Nickson has eight grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Nickson is an avid gardener, a hobby she still enjoys. She also enjoys sewing. Her many friends here wish her continued good health in the years ahead. Out-of-town guests enjoyed the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Durwill V. Dennis of Junction City, long-time family friends.

Allan B. Taylors Honored June 22

Mr. and Mrs. Allan B. Taylor, residents of Douglas County since 1913, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary June 22 at the Glide Community Hall.

They were married at Chehalis, Wash. and came directly to Douglas County where they settled on a homestead located across from Honey Creek on the North Umpqua River. They traded this homestead for one on Rock Creek, which they still own. For a number of years they lived in the Melross area but are now residing on a place near the Rock Creek homestead.

The Taylors have one great grandchild whose parents were at the celebration: Mr. and Mrs. Larry Becksted and son Casey of Portland.

Two grandsons were unable to attend: Kenneth Ambrose, who is attending college in Italy, and Ronald Becksted, who is in Naval Air Reserve.

For the golden wedding day Mrs. Taylor wore a light blue dress with white fleck and white accessories. She received a beautiful gold orchid corsage from her children.

The Glide Community Hall was decorated with arrangements of gold-colored roses furnished for the occasion by Mrs. Kenneth Taylor.

and Mark, of Oakland, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon (Marjorie) Wellman and daughter, Doris, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Jack (Roberta) Godberry of Novato, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver (Ann) Standley and family, Adrian, Bruce, Cyrus and Dacia, of Glide; Mrs. Paul (Emma) Huckins and children, Aaron, Cherrie and Jeffrey of Armadillo, Texas. (Mr. Huckins was unable to attend.)

July 2 winners were Mrs. M. L. Hallmark and Miss Gertrude Rast, first; Mrs. Lyle Bodenner and Mrs. Ira J. Seitz, second; Mrs. Ray Carrico and Mrs. L. E. McClintock, third, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bevans, fourth.

June 28th winners were Mrs. W. C. Callison and Mrs. M. L. Hallmark, first; Mrs. Russell Diehl and Mrs. Albert Morene, second; Mrs. Lyle Bodenner and Miss Gertrude Rast, third, and Mrs. O. R. Petersen and Mrs. Walter Fisher, fourth.

and Mrs. Harry Bruffy, fourth.

Winners for July 1 North-South players were Mrs. David Weisman and Mrs. Robert Curtis, first; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davison, second; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McGregg, third, and Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp and Mrs. D. Bliss Nevo, fourth. East-West winners were Mr. and Mrs. John Davenport, first; Mrs. James Doyle and Mrs. E. N. Kaser, Jr., second; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Patterson, third, and Miss Helen Casey, third, and Mr. Robertson, fifth.

The club meets every Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Nutt Shell Cafe in Myrtle Creek and is open to all bridge players interested. No invitation to attend is necessary. Those desiring more information or assistance in securing partnership are asked to call Mrs. E. S. Wilkey, Canyonville, 839-4887.

Winners Thursday evening for the Timber Town Club were Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Rollen, first for North-South players; Rick Peterson and David Forrest, second; Don Borglum and Mrs. Walter Ulrich, third. East-West winners were Mrs. S. G. Palmer and Marcella Acumb, first; Terri White and Mrs. K. W. Fitzgerald, and George Foster and Dr. Bruce Tuck, third.

Shower Slated

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Allen, who were married in Grants, Pass June 28, will be honored at a potluck dinner and shower at the Azalea Community Church Sunday, July 14, at 1 p.m.

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER Society

Fri., July 12, 1963—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 5

Lovely Wedding Unites Couple

At 3 p.m. June 30 Linda Salcido and Larry K. Jones, both of Roseburg, exchanged marriage vows in a double ring ceremony performed by Donald H. Smith, pastor of the Westside Christian Church. The wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glennon C. Thomas, parents of the bride.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. June Jones of this city. Arrangements of old-fashioned sweet peas, in shades of light and dark pink, were used in decoration.

The bride was charming in white satin brocade, a street-length frock on sheath lines, with bell skirt and short-sleeved overblouse. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Susan Jean Wulff was maid of honor. She was clad in a beige sheath of nylon eyelet over taffeta. Her bouquet was of pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Larry Cooley was best man for the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Thomas wore a blue and white flowered print of dacron. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink lace sheath. Both wore corsages of pink and white carnations.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Decorations included sweet peas and silver net ribbons in white milk glass vases. The bride's table was covered with white lace over pink. The table was ornamented with gold candelabra and the three-tiered wedding cake which was white with clusters of pink sweet peas and pink net and topped with pink satin bells edged in pearls.

Mrs. Robert A. Berry cut and served the cake. Mrs. Keith Christopherson served coffee and punch. The gifts were attended by Miss Karen Jones, while Miss Susan Salcido had charge of the guest book.

For her wedding trip to Washington and Canada, the bride wore a white wool dress and the corsage from her bridal bouquet. The newlyweds are now at home at W. Kenwood in Roseburg.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended Roseburg High School. He is currently working at Mark's Market No. 1.

MR. AND MRS. LARRY K. JONES, above, were married June 30 at the home of the bride's parents in Roseburg by Donald H. Smith, pastor of the Westside Christian Church. The bride, Linda Salcido, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glennon C. Thomas, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. June Jones, all of this city. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography)

Grove Holds Social Night

The Woodmen Circle Umpqua Grove Social was held at the home of Viola White in Winston Monday evening. She was assisted by Jessie Thomas and Myrtle Glen.

The evening was spent in visiting and viewing colored slides taken by Agnes Veach during her recent tour of Puerto Rico and the mid-western United States.

Those present to enjoy the delightful evening entertainment and refreshments served by the hostesses were: Alice Hill, Ethel Fearnow, Jessie Thomas, Viola White, Myrtle Glen, Ruby Tucker, Sarah Cyrus, Bea Cornilisen, Bella Holm, Goldie Willis, Agnes Veach, Rowena Rhodes of Los Angeles, Calif., Miss June Sibole of San Diego, Calif., Alice Jane Howell of Inglewood, Calif., and Susan Gilberd of Portland.

Shower Party Lovely Affair

Mrs. Stanley Quinton was honored at a lovely pink and blue shower party at the home of her mother, Mrs. Hal Esselstrom with Mrs. Jack Lander acting as hostess for the affair. Mrs. Rex Quinton served the cake; Mrs. Rex Ralph Irving, punch, and Mrs. C. H. Esselstrom, coffee. Pink carnations formed the lovely bouquet.

Lovely gifts were presented to the guest of honor from the hostesses and Mrs. Ralph Irving, Mrs. Leona Davis, Mrs. Rex Quinton, Mrs. Dorothy Neal, Mrs. Bill Endicott, Mrs. Dave Flury, Mrs. John Lander, Mrs. C. H. Esselstrom, Mrs. L. V. Titus, Mrs. James Simms, Mrs. Betty Bakke, Miss Connie Bakke, Mrs. Howard Hunsaker, Mrs. Hulda Thurman, Mrs. Dorothy Houser, Mrs. Al Bashford, Mrs. Stanley Esselstrom and Craig Esselstrom.

Seelys Honor Visitors Monday

Dr. and Mrs. Hall Seely entertained at a delightful 8 o'clock breakfast Monday morning at their beautiful home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hull of Pomona, Calif. Guests included Miss Helen Falbe, Paul Geddes and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter, who with Dr. Seely were classmates of Hull in school here. Tiger lilies and Mexican orange greenery formed the attractive centerpiece for the serving table.

The Hulls stopped over Sunday and Monday to visit en route north. Hull is owner of Hull House Enterprises in Pomona. His 16-year-old daughter had gone through here a week ago en route to Vancouver, Wash., to visit. She will join them for a trip to Seattle and to Moscow, Idaho, to visit Mrs. Hull's two aunts, before returning to their home in California.

Christmas Club Is Entertained

Mrs. L. E. McClintock graciously entertained the Christmas Club at a delightful 7 o'clock dessert supper Wednesday evening at her lovely home in Laurewood. Roses and hydrangeas formed the attractive decorative motif for the occasion.

Covers were placed for Mrs. C. B. Wade, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. S. G. Palmer, Mrs. Chester Morgan, Mrs. H. C. Church, Mrs. J. R. Wharton, Mrs. Kenneth Quine and the hostess, Mrs. McClintock. Sewing and visiting were enjoyed during the pleasant social hour.

POLYNESIAN NIGHT will be celebrated at the Roseburg Country Club Saturday when Elana and the Polynesians touring as the "Hawaiian Holiday" will present a 60-minute floor show. The Hawaiian band will furnish music for the three hours of dancing. A social hour will be held from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. with the traditional Hawaiian luau being served. Orchid leis flown directly from Hawaii will be presented to each lady guest. From 10 p.m. to 1 a.m. a special torchlight swim will be enjoyed. Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Tuck and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sayre have arranged the evening extravaganza, which is reported to be the most entertaining fete to be held at the club to date. Hawaiian attire is in order for the affair.

Henry LaPraths Hosts At Dinner

A 50th wedding anniversary dinner was held at the home of the Henry LaPrath's of Glendale Saturday evening as a preliminary to their official reception which was to be held at the Masonic Temple the following afternoon. Wally Peterson, pastor of the Glendale Church of Christ, was present with his wife, and he conducted a mock wedding in which the couple starred.

Guests present included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Bill LaPrath and family of Issaquah, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Jack LaPrath and family of Stockton, Calif.; Mrs. Eleanor Boxx, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Malone, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Thomas, Mrs. Katherine Beckham, Tom Malone and Bob Davidson of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Tindall and Miss Ada Porter of Glendale; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hatfield of Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. Marie Fog of Corona Del Mar, Calif.; Mrs. Evered Putnam of Inglewood, Calif.; Mrs. Ernie Quigg of Orville, Wash.; Ed Blanchard of Seattle, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bennett of Bothell, Wash.; Mrs. Richard Farmer of Tacoma, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Wally Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edson and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Reed of Glendale.

Barry Davis Has Fourth Birthday

Barry Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal (Loneita Kelley) Davis, of Eugene, celebrated his fourth birthday in Roseburg at the home of his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harl Kelley, in Laurewood Saturday.

Guests included Michelle Smith and her mother, Mrs. Darrell (Lois Patterson) Smith, of Eugene; Kenny Yonker and his mother; Mrs. Wayne (Elaine Wash); Mrs. Ronald J. (Nancy Allen) Smith, of Chicago; Mrs. Dick Kerr (Jan Sinclair), of Washington, D.C.; Mrs. E. C. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Harl Kelley, of Roseburg.

Visitors Complimented At Dinner Party Here

Mrs. Charles W. Wharton and her daughter, Mrs. Florence Wickland, entertained at a charming dinner party Saturday evening at their beautiful home on SE Chadwick St. in compliment to Mrs. Stanley R. Kidder and daughter, Sarah Ann, who left the following Friday for Djakarta, Indonesia to join Mr. Kidder and make their home.

Others enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Miss Gertrude Rast and Miss Jane Wharton.

Mrs. R. B. Rummel Entertains Club

Mrs. Russell B. Rummel entertained her bridge club at a very charming luncheon Wednesday at her lovely home. Roses formed the attractive decorative motif for the occasion.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Roy Catching, Mrs. M. C. Cassel, Mrs. Edwin S. Booth, Mrs. Kenneth Quine, Mrs. E. C. Patterson, Mrs. Burton T. Randall, Mrs. Kenneth Kirk and the hostess, Mrs. Rummel.

High score for the afternoon's contract bridge play was won by Mrs. Quine with Mrs. Randall winning the second high score.

Mrs. Kidder and Sarah Ann left by plane here Friday for Portland and that evening went by plane to Honolulu. They were in Tokyo, Japan, the following day, where they remained over to visit friends for a few days. From there they will visit in Singapore and then go on to Djakarta. The Kidders have lived in Manila, Tokyo, Singapore and Viet Nam, before Mr. Kidder was given this recent assignment to Indonesia. Kidder is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Kidder of this city. Sarah Ann attended school here for the last term.

AGATE CUTTING AS A HOBBY

When you wish to cut a few stones and haven't the right tool Remember that Dorothy's Agate Shop maintains a Lapidary School.

Where you can use your equipment and get advice. Perhaps you would like to use this service only once or twice. Then purchase lapidary equipment of your very own. At Dorothy's Agate Shop, where it is always well known that they carry all of the leading lapidary lines.

And some of the prettiest stones that anyone ever finds! There's many books on this agate cutting hobby, too. So whatever you decide that you are going to do. You are invited to visit Dorothy's Agate Shop today. It isn't an expensive hobby, in fact, it will really pay! It is a hobby in which the whole family can take part. So Friend of mine, do not delay, get right in at the start!

DOROTHY'S AGATE & GIFT SHOP
4639 N. Stephens 672-4505

Z's BEAUTY SALON
727 S. E. Parrott
Operators
Lorette Anderson
Laurette Irwin
Zelma Davis, owner
Hours:
Tues. thru Fri. 8:00-4:30
Saturday, 8:00-Noon
Phone 673-6300