Eugene Wedding Of Interest Here

St. Mary's Catholic Church in Eugene was the scene June 22 of the marriage of Sandra Lee Hemmingsen of Eugene and Thomas Joseph Martin Jr. of Roseburg. The wedding date was chosen by the bride to coincide with the 80th birthday of her grandfather, Monsignor Murnane performed the double-ring ceremony at 3:30 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Helen E. Hemmingsen and Paul Hemmingsen of Eugene. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Martin of Roseburg.

The bride was given in marriage by her maternal grandfather, James D. Donovan. She was lovely in a gown made of tulle, Guipure lace bordered the three-quarter-length sleeves and the scoop neckline. The controlled fullness of the skirt flowed into a full chapel train, also bordered in lace. Her imported silk illusion veil was held in place by a pearlized headpiece. She carried a white orchid with Stephanotis. Mrs. Michael Major of Phoenix, Ariz., was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Brewer of Eugene, Miss Sharon Johnson of Portland, Miss Barbara Barnum of Florence and Miss Rita Martin of Roseburg. All of the bride's attendants were attired identically in white nylon organdy. The dresses were fashioned with bell-shaped skirts, three-quarter-length sleeves and scoop necklines, with flat bows at the back of the waist. They wore white veils and accessories and carried mon aloha vandas leis, flown from Hawaii.

Katy Starr was flower girl; Dan Barnum was ring bearer; and Michael Hemmingsen was junior usher.

Thomas J. Martin Sr. acted as best man for his son.

Ushers were James Hemmingsen, the bride's brother; Thomas Ankeny of Eugene, Robert Aiken of Portland, Carl Johnson of Newport and Douglas Randles of Reno, Nev.

The Laurelwood Golf Club was decorated with orchids for the reception which followed the wedding. Serving were Mrs. A. E. Barnum, aunt of the bride; Miss Mary McLeran of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa; Mrs. Elton Owen, Mrs. Ford Danner and Mrs. S. R. Crossley, Miss Gloria Darold had the guest book; Mrs. John Horillo had charge of the gifts; and Mrs. Richard Hayward and Mrs. R. E. Casey assisted.

For her honeymoon trip to Lake Tahoe and San Francisco, the bride changed to an avocado green dress with bone-colored accessories. The newlyweds are now at home in Eugene where the
