Church Wedding Unites Couple

A very lovely wedding took place at the First Christian Church in Roseburg at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, June 29, when Karla Jean Hinthner became the bride of Ronald Dean Schiermeister. The double ring ceremony was performed by Donald Smith, pastor of the Westside Christian Church of Roseburg.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hinthner of Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schiermeister also of Roseburg. Both the bride and bridegroom attended Roseburg schools. He is in the U. S. Navy and is now stationed at Whidbey Island.

Two large baskets of pink gladioli and white chrysanthemums were placed in back of the altar. Large candelabra holding tall white tapers were near the basket of flowers. The tapers were lighted by Jeannine Hinthner, niece of the bride, and Bonnie Naas, cousin of the bride.

The bride, given by her father, was lovely in her floor-length gown of taffeta with overskirt of silk organza accented with lace motifs applied on the front of the skirt. The bodice was of lace with long sleeves and the neckline was accented with tiny pearls. She wore an elbow-length veil held in place by a crown of pearls. Her necklace, a gift from the bridegroom, was a tiny wedding bell with a diamond set. She carried a beautiful bouquet of stephanotis centered with a large white orchid.

Maid of honor was Donna Schiermeister, sister of the bridegroom. Bridesmaids were Wanda Johnson and Patty Piper. The bride's attendants all wore satin dresses of harmonizing shades of blue, all made alike with white lace bodices. Their accessories were white and they carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

The bridegroom's best man was Harold Ray Allphin. Ushers were Larry Fry, cousin of the bridegroom, and Dennis Dage, cousin of the bride.

For the occasion the bride's mother wore pink with white accessories. Mrs. Schiermeister wore an aqua and white dress with white accessories. Both mothers had corsages of pale pink carnations.

The newlyweds received more than 150 guests at the reception which followed the ceremony.

The serving table had been attractively arranged by Mrs. Irene Jackson. The three-tiered wedding cake was placed in the center, flanked by tapers. Serving was

TO BE BRIDE — Mr. and Mrs. Sig Nelson of Drain announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Sady Yvonne, to Jim Main, son of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Main of Drain. Sady will be a senior at Drain High School this fall. Jim was graduated from Drain High School and is employed by Smith River Lumber Co. The wedding is planned for Aug. 17 to take place in the Drain Methodist Church.

Tiller Lad Has Birthday Party

Frank Bryant celebrated his eighth birthday recently when his mother, Mrs. Robert S. Bryant, entertained at an outdoor party at the Bryant home at the Tiller Ranger Station. Several games were played and prizes were awarded to all participants. Frank opened his gifts before the group gathered around a picnic table for refreshments.

Frank's birthday cake, made and decorated by his mother, was iced in yellow and had yellow and pink flowers with green leaves. Eight candles were arranged on top.

Gathering for the festive occasion were Ricky Wilson, Timmy Hale, Philip Godbey, Richard Godwin, Mary Louise Utley and Jeanne Brady, and the honored guest's younger brother, Michael.

The picnic has been an annual affair among those present since 1946.

Picnic Enjoyed At Stanton Park

Stanton Park at Canyonville was the scene of a Fourth of July picnic celebrated by Mrs. Charles Pruden, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Church and their guest, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Taylor of Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Taylor, Mrs. Mel Coffman and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Eldo Coffman of Encino, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. William Kern, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Crawford of Days Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Gray Wolf of Myrtle Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leisure and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Crowley and daughter Linda.

The picnic has been an annual affair among those present since 1946.

Wedding Dress Made At Party

An informal sewing party was held at the First Southern Baptist Church Monday when members and friends met to assemble the wedding gown of Miss Ruth Stone, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Lester Stone.

Assisting with the sewing were Mrs. James Tidwell, Mrs. Addie Douglas, Mrs. Charles Hahn, Mrs. Ellis Gwaltney, Miss Nancy Garret, Miss Alice Dickens, Miss Stone and her mother, Mrs. Lester Stone.

Pictures of the group at work and fitting of the bridal gown were taken by Mrs. Lee Gaylor. Dinner was prepared and served by Mrs. Katie Perkins and Mrs. Edna Boyer.

Miss Stone is to be married to Donald Wayne Porter Aug. 31 in Kansas City, Kan.

Bridge Group Is Entertained

Mrs. Walter W. Whitford was hostess recently for the newly-formed bridge group at Tiller when she entertained at her attractive riverside home. Summer flowers were arranged as decorations, and the hostess served dairy refreshments at the close of the afternoon's play.

Present were Mrs. Avery Greenman and her mother, Mrs. Mattie Black of Drew; Mrs. Ira B. Poole, Mrs. Paul J. Brady, Mrs. Don Olson, Mrs. Hillard M. Lillgren and Mrs. Ralph Perkins of Tiller. Prizes for high score went to Mrs. Greenman and low to Mrs. Poole.

The Glendale Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star held its open installation of officers for the 1963-64 term Sunday afternoon at the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Ed Bailey was installed worthy matron, and Kenneth G. Brady, worthy patron. Other officers installed included Mrs. John Sether, associate matron; Joe Payne, associate patron; Mrs. Kenneth G. Brady, conductress; Mrs. Fred Wright, associate conductress; Mrs. Howard Edson, secretary; Mrs. Ralph Place, treasurer; Mrs. Martin Brooks, chaplain; Mrs. Fred Kafer, marshal; Mrs. Howard Chiavara, organist; Mrs. Robert Stumbo, Adah; Mrs. Richard Reid, Ruth; Mrs. Roy Williamson, Esther; Mrs. Katherine Beckham, Martha; Mrs. Joseph Jacques, Electa; Mrs. Alice Webster, warder; and Howard Edson, sentinel.

The retiring worthy matron, Mrs. Howard Chiavara, and the retiring worthy patron, Howard Edson, presided.

The following visiting officers were introduced: Miss Charlotta Wiseman of Josephine Chapter, No. 26, Past Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon; Mrs. Marie Breckenridge, a member of the Estar Committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon; Mrs. Eleanor Johnson, worthy matron of the Nevada Chapter of Central Point; Mrs. Grace Downing, worthy matron of Western Star Chapter, Korb; Mrs. Muriel Rose and "Duteh" Miller, worthy matron and worthy patron of Josephine Chapter, Grants Pass.

Betty Stepleton, honored queen of the Glendale Bethel of Job's Daughters, was introduced.

Installing Past Matron Mrs. Joe Payne and Installing Past Patron Fred Beerli, were assisted in the installation ceremony by Mrs. Fred Kafer, marshal; Mrs. Vera Kemp, chaplain; Miss Charlotta Wiseman, organist.

Candlelighters for the occasion were Angeline Brady, daughter of the worthy patron-elect, and Kathy Buell, niece of the worthy matron-elect. Larry Brady, son of the worthy patron-elect, served as Bible bearer.

Mrs. Melvin Davis sang, accompanied at the piano by Miss Charlotta Wiseman.

Addendums were presented in honor of both the retiring and the incoming worthy matrons and worthy patrons. Gifts were presented to each from the chapter and from their officers.

The past matrons and past patrons then presented the newly retired matron and patron with their jewels. Brief congratulatory talks were made by Miss Charlotta Wiseman, Mrs. Marie Breckenridge, Mrs. Grace Downing, "Duteh" Miller and Betty Stepleton.

P. Brady, son of the worthy patron, presented his father with a fraternal ring on behalf of the family.

Decorations in the main hall were strings of silver stars. White baskets of mixed flowers were used as well.

After the installation service was closed, refreshments were served in the dining room of the Temple on tables which had been arranged in the shape of a five-pointed star.

Mrs. Robert Thompson was chairman of the refreshment committee.

10 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. — Tues., July 16, 1963

MR. AND MRS. RAYMOND GERLACH, above, were united in marriage in an afternoon ceremony at Ebbert Memorial Church in Springfield. The bride, Ila Jean Batsch, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene F. Blosser of Roseburg, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gerlach of Springfield. (Kennell-Ellis Photo).

Ila Jean Batsch Now Mrs. Gerlach

Miss Ila Jean Batsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene F. Blosser of Roseburg, and Raymond Lee Gerlach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gerlach of Springfield, were married June 8 in an afternoon ceremony which took place at the Ebbert Memorial Church at Springfield.

The Rev. Ross Knotts officiated at the double ring ceremony. Bouquets of spring flowers decorated the church. Elwin Myrick was the organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of Italian lace over tulle and net with a chapel train. The bodice had long tight fitting sleeves, and scalloped neckline trimmed with beaded sequins. A small crown of aurora borealis crystals held the bride's elbow-length veil. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of stephanotis and yellow rosebuds, centered with a yellow throatied orchid.

The bride's attendants wore waltz-length gowns in pastel shades with matching halo hats and slippers. Miss Patricia Blosser, maid of honor for her sister, wore pink and carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis and pink and white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Tuthill of Oakland, dressed in green; Miss Janet Gerlach of Springfield, sister of the bridegroom, in yellow; and Miss Carolyn Wasson, in blue. All carried cascade bouquets of carnations to match their gowns.

Flower girl Debra Ann Blosser, sister of the bride, wore an orchid dress and carried a white basket of orchid sweet peas.

Dan Wilson of Nyssa was best man. Ushers were Wayne Brown of Springfield; Gordon Hill of Seattle, cousin of the bride; and Bill Holly, cousin of the bridegroom. Gordon and Dennis Batsch, brothers of the bride were candle lighters.

The bride's mother wore a pastel print jersey chiffon sheath dress, and the bridegroom's mother wore a yellow embroidered lace frock. Both mothers wore white cymbidium orchids.

At the reception, those serving included two of the bride's aunts from Seattle, Mrs. Gordon Shirley, and Miss Elnor Sherck, all of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Blundell and Mrs. Pearl Lawson of Riddle; Mrs. Mesick of Days Creek and Mr. and Mrs. Erlebach of Tiller. Guests included Mrs. J. S. Mary of Roseburg; Mrs. Alice Brookmiller, aunt of Mrs. Carraway and a resident of Forest Glen Senior Residence in Canyonville; and Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Belcher, Mrs. Fred J. Huffman and daughter, Evelyn; Mrs. Charles Collins and Mrs. Milton H. Hammersly, all of Tiller.

The next meeting will be at Umpqua Park in Roseburg July 27 when newly elected officers will be installed. A potluck picnic at 12:30 p.m. will precede the business meeting, with Mrs. Levi Swinford, Mrs. Nellie Grimes and Mrs. R. B. Spackman, all of Roseburg, as hostesses. Members are requested to bring their own table service and a covered dish.

Preceding the buffet-style meal, Mrs. Erlebach offered a prayer. A brief business meeting was held with Mrs. Erlebach, president in charge. Annual reports of committees were read, as were letters from Miss Wixon and Mrs. Marsh thanking the group for their contribution to the WCTU Boys Home. A motion was passed urging members to write to the Oregon Congressional delegation protesting the Supreme Court decision banning prayers in public schools.

Taking part in the program were Mrs. Max Kimmel who gave a reading, and the entire group who joined in singing the club theme song and the birthday song in honor of Mrs. Kimmel and Anton Erlebach who have birthdays during June.

Members and associate members present were Mr. and Mrs. Andy Carraway, Mrs. Mabel Agee, Mrs. Ora Lee Hibbard, Mrs. Kittie Winniford, Mrs. Kathryn Ewens, Mrs. Mabel K. Jaeger, Mrs. Max Kimmel, Miss Helen Casey
