Fretwell-Griesse Wedding June 29

Miss Janet Marie Griesse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Griesse of Winston, and Theodore C. Fretwell, of Arcata, Calif., were united in marriage at a lovely ceremony Saturday, June 29 in the Faith Lutheran Church in Roseburg.

The double ring ceremony was held at 7:30 p.m. with the Rev. Ingebrigtson officiating. Candelabra with white satin bows and lighted tall tapers and two tall white baskets of white gladioli and yellow chrysanthemums provided a lovely setting for the impressive occasion.

Soloist was Miss Martha Kay Vance who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Robert Shultz, who also played the traditional wedding march.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her wedding gown of organza and Chantilly lace. White rosettes decorated the overskirt. The bodice with wrist-length sleeves was fashioned with a square neckline of scalloped Chantilly lace. The bride's bouquet a large white orchid with yellow center topped a white Bible. She wore an elbow-length veil of tulle, which was held in place with a crown of seed pearls.

Maid of honor was Miss Sue Trobaugh of Dillard. She wore a

There were 12 garden club members and 13 local guests present.

After a noon picnic lunch the business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Jack Wilson. Program plans for the following year were concluded. There was a request for articles for the fire box.

Plans were discussed concerning garden plots at the coming county fair.

Couple United Pair Married On June 8th

Yellow gladioli and yellow and white carnations decorated the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Becker in Curtin when their daughter, Lurene Francis Becker, became the bride of Terry Rex Swearingen, June 21 at 8 p.m. The ceremony was performed by Delbert White of the Drain Church of Christ, with 40 relatives and friends present.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Becker, Loraine Route Cottage Grove, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Swearingen of Drain. The bride was radiant when given in marriage by her father. She wore a white ballerina-length bridal gown with elbow-length sleeves and decorated with Italian brocade. She carried a bridal bouquet with a white orchid surrounded by carnations.

Sherry Bigelow was maid of honor and wore a yellow lace ballerina-length dress with a full skirt and carried a nosegay of yellow carnations.

John Snead was best man for the bridegroom.

The bride wore a white sheath with orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet for her traveling attire to California.

A reception was enjoyed at the home of the bride's parents. A four-tiered wedding cake with yellow roses had been made and decorated by the bridegroom's mother, Gay Cunningham, sister of the bridegroom, and Diana Becker, sister of the bride, cut and served the cake. Mrs. Tom Edwards, cousin of the bride, poured coffee, and Mrs. Fred Thompson, Jr. served punch.

Sherry Becker, sister of the bride, took care of the gift table and Linda Becker, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

The bride and bridegroom both attended and are 1963 graduates from the Drain High School. The bridegroom is employed by Ron Landers. They will make their home at Star Route 38, Box 22, Drain.

The Johnston home was decorated with large baskets of white, pink and red peonies, roses, white wedding bells and crepe paper streamers. Mrs. Niel Fisher was organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was lovely in a white street-length cotton brocade dress, created by Mrs. Helen Cornelius, aunt of the bride. The frock was fashioned with a full skirt and fitted bodice. Her tulle veil and crown had been fashioned by Mrs. Don Isakson. The bride carried a bouquet of pink and red rosebuds bound to a white Bible.

Vickie Lynn Cornelius, a cousin, was maid of honor. Michael Johnston was best man for his brother, Carl and Gregory Jenkins were ushers.

A reception was held following the ceremony. The bride's table was dominated by the beautiful cake which had been decorated by Mrs. Gregory Jenkins.

Regina Jenkins and Christine Welch, cousins of the bride, attended the guest book. Mrs. Jenkins and Mrs. Fred Cornelius, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. C. S. Osburn, her grandmother, served cake, coffee and punch.

The bride attended Douglas High School. The bridegroom served in the U.S. Army for five years and is now employed by Gray's Furniture Store. The new couple are now at home at 1017 NE Klamath St.

Coming from a distance to attend the wedding were the Rev. and Mrs. William Thomas and Betty Jo of Noti, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Osburn and Christine of Myrtle Point; and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cornelius of Grants Pass.
