Dear Abby!

Hop To It — Now!

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: Recently I answered my door and was confronted by a woman who insisted that I KNEW her. When I told her I didn't, she seemed offended, and kept me guessing for some time. It was most embarrassing. She turned out to be an old schoolmate I hadn't seen in FORTY-ONE years! Really now, Abby, we weren't that close in the first place and hadn't had any contact in all that time. It was good to see her again, but wasn't she presumptuous to have expected me to remember her? She had the advantage over me because she had been told where I was living. How does one tactfully handle the idiotic question, "I'll bet you don't remember me, do you?"

EMBARRASSED
 DEAR EMBARRASSED: With a forthright honest reply, "Perhaps I should but I'm sorry I don't. Who ARE you?"

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I have three children under five years old. Several times when I've come home from work, I've found her husband bathes once a week. She's lucky. MINE takes his bath in July. Her man has 4 teeth. Mine has 5, and has never been to a dentist in his life. He also refuses to see an M.D. We have been married 51 years, have 9 grown children and 22 grandchildren. I keep his clothes clean and also his bed, but I will not share it. You probably wonder why I stay with him. I love him. But not a physical love. That's out!

DEAR WORRIED: Ask a lawyer (or District Attorney or sheriff) how to get your children away from a possibly dangerous and ill mother. They may need something beside your word for it, but they will advise you on tactics. And don't delay.

DEAR ABBY: To the 52-year-old woman who is pregnant goes my congratulations. She should be world famous. There are only TWO cases on record where a woman past 45 has had a child.

DR. K.
 DEAR DR.: WHAT record? Many women are able to bear a child in their fifties. And have the "children" to prove it.

DEAR ABBY: I have just read the letter signed "ICEBERG" and it is almost a perfect report on my situation, except for a few details. HER husband bathes once a week. She's lucky. MINE takes his bath in July. Her man has 4 teeth. Mine has 5, and has never been to a dentist in his life. He also refuses to see an M.D. We have been married 51 years, have 9 grown children and 22 grandchildren. I keep his clothes clean and also his bed, but I will not share it. You probably wonder why I stay with him. I love him. But not a physical love. That's out!
