Mr. and Mrs. Hornseth are now at home to friends at Maple Trailer Court in Myrtle Creek. (Picture by Warren Studio, Myrtle Creek).

June Wedding Unites Couple

In one of the loveliest weddings of the summer season held June 22 at 8 p.m., at the Tri-City United Presbyterian Church, Miss Beverly Ann Anderson became the bride of Robin Arthur J. Hornseth, both of Myrtle Creek.

Miss Anderson is the daughter of Pete T. Anderson of Klamath Falls, formerly of Myrtle Creek. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Hartvig Hornseth of Myrtle Creek.

The impressive double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Richard A. Rohlbaugh in the presence of more than 125 friends and relatives.

The sanctuary of the church was beautifully decorated with arrangements of yellow and white daisies and green bells of Ireland. The candles in the two white candelabra were lighted by Michael and Terry Bare, nephews of the bride.

The bride, escorted by her father, was radiant in a floor-length gown of Swiss Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The long sleeved, snugly fitted bodice featured a hand-clipped, scalloped sash and neckline and the bouffant tulle skirt, with overlay of lace panels. The dress was designed with a bustle effect of alternating lace and tulle ruffles cascading down the back. A petite pearl encrusted crown held her fingertip nylon tulle veil. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a cascade bouquet of gold roses and stephanotis.

Elaine Hornseth served as maid of honor. Lynda Willis, Lynda Green, Elsa Swinney and Patricia King of Seattle, Wash., were bridesmaids. Miss Hornseth was attired in a frock of emerald green tulle with an overlay of scalloped lace. The bridesmaids wore blue and green and lace. The dresses were bouffant and jackets were bolero type. Each girl wore small wedding band hats of tulle and lace with bouffant veils to match their dresses. Each carried a nosegay of white and yellow carnations and yellow spider daisies.

The flower girl was DeAnna Stevenson. She was attired in a dress of blue and white over white dotted Swiss.

Kenny Neet served as best man. Ushers were Ken Bare, Scott Gruber and John Gilmore.

Miss Carol Spahn of Myrtle Creek was the organist. The soloist was Miss Sharon Stamey who sang "O Promise Me" and "We'll Walk With God." Miss Spahn also played the traditional wedding music.

Mrs. Kenneth Bare, sister of the bride, presided as the bride's mother. She chose a brown and rose acetate afternoon short-sleeved dress and had a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Alf Hornseth, mother of the bridegroom, wore a sea foam green brocade sheath dress and a corsage of yellow carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Nash Hall of the church. Flower arrangements featured yellow roses with greenery. The bride's table was centered with a beautiful four-tiered wedding cake, decorated in white and yellow roses with silver leaves. The bride and groom cut the first slice of cake, which was then served by Mrs. Kenneth Bare and Mrs. Raymond Chichester of Prineville.

The coffee was served by Mrs. Pete Loting and Mrs. Phil Willis. Punch was poured by Mrs. Chuck Bare and Mrs. Otto Cathcart. Mrs. Kenneth Johnson of Lewiston, Idaho, was in charge of the gift table, with assistance from Miss Susan Northway of Canyonville. Miss Linda Swenigen had charge of the guest book.

For their wedding trip to California and the Oregon coast, the bride wore a three-piece blue suit of linen and silk. The bride was graduated from Myrtle Creek High School this past year. The bridegroom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Hornseth of Myrtle Creek. He was graduated from Myrtle Creek High School in 1951. He is presently attending Oregon Technical Institute in Klamath Falls. He is majoring in diesel engineering and will be graduated from Oregon Technical Institute in March.

The young Hornseths are now residing at the Maple Trailer Court in Myrtle Creek.

LOTUS KNIGHT PORTER Society BEVERLY BROOKE

Thurs., July 18, 1963—The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. 11

MR. AND MRS. LAVERN WATTERUD, above, were married June 29 at Canyonville Gospel Tabernacle by the Rev. Oscar Lohr, assisted by Pastor Claude Malan. The bride, Linda Kay Lohr, is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Oscar Lohr of Riddle, and the bridegroom, of Powers Lake, N. D., is the son of Mrs. Hazel Watterud of Riddle. (Picture by Flint Studio, Eugene).

Watterud-Lohr Wedding June 29

Linda Kay Lohr of Riddle and Lavern James Watterud of Powers Lake, N.D., exchanged wedding vows at a double ring ceremony held June 29 at the Canyonville Gospel Tabernacle. One hundred sixty guests were present for the 8 p.m. double ring ceremony which was performed by the bride's father, the Rev. Oscar Lohr, assisted by the Rev. George Malan.

The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Oscar Lohr, and the bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Hazel Watterud. Both families reside in Riddle.

The wedding music was traditional, except for two solos: "Together" by Ted McDowell, and "Submission" by William Knapp. The church was decorated with two baskets of pink and white gladioli and candelabra.

The bride was lovely in her long-sleeved floor-length gown of white tulle with a white lace at the neckline and waist, with a large bow in the back. She wore a fingertip veil and carried a large orchid in a cross design on a white ribbon.

Mrs. David Howell of Mt. Shasta, Calif., sister of the bride was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Beverly Cornelius of Hillsboro, Suzanne Linde of Canyonville, Mary Harder of Canby and Mrs. William Knapp of Eugene. All wore light avocado street-length dresses with matching veil hats. The bridesmaids carried pink and white carnation nosegays, and the matron of honor carried an all-pink nosegay.

Flower girl was Beverly Jean Howell of Mt. Shasta, niece of the bride. Junior usher and bridesmaid were Doyale and Gayle Peterson of Woodburn, niece and nephew of the bridegroom. Candlelighters were Diane and Penny Garrison of Eugene, cousins of the bride. They wore pink dresses and hats made like those of the bridesmaids.

Bob Watterud of Power Lake, acted as best man for his brother. Ushering were Gerald Watterud and children of Rosholt, S.D.

Attired in pink and white, the bride and her new husband left for a honeymoon at the Oregon coast. They plan to reside in Canyonville for the summer. Both are students at North Central Bible College in Minneapolis, Minn.

Coming from out of town to attend the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. David Howell and daughters of Mt. Shasta, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. William Knapp, Redding, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lohr, Sebastopol, Calif.; Mrs. Hazel Watterud, Bob and Gerald Watterud and Mr. and Mrs. Orris Enget and Bonnie, all of Powers Lake, N.D.; and the Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Watterud and children of Rosholt, S.D.

The descendants of Charles and Candace Jones, early Oakland pioneers, will hold their annual picnic Sunday, July 28, at Stearns Park west of Oakland.

Those attending should bring a picnic dinner and table service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oakley Rogers of Roseburg. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James F. Witt of Dillard.

A garden setting with ivy and rose-covered trellis, combined with baskets of calla lilies, Easter Reed daisies and bronze chrysanthemums, formed the decorations.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of all-white lace. It was designed with a very full skirt of five tiers of scalloped lace, with long sleeves and a scalloped neckline. Her elbow-length veil was held by a teardrop pearl-trimmed tiara. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations.

The maid of honor was Kathryn Rogers, sister of the bride. She wore a bronze-colored dress. The full skirt was chiffon over tulle. Draped chiffon accented the neckline, falling to the hemline in back. She carried a lace fan with a nosegay of yellow chrysanthemums with bronze stain streamers. The bridesmaids were identically attired in yellow and carried bronze chrysanthemums on fans. Bridesmaids were Wanda Witt, sister of the bridegroom, and Julie Tallon.

Candlelighters were Misses Dixie Schroeder and Wanda Toles. Their dresses were of aqua and were fashioned identically to those worn by the bridesmaids. They wore wristlets of yellow chrysanthemums.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Rogers wore a blue lace with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a darker blue dress with a bolero jacket and white accessories. Both mothers wore white rosebud corsages.

After the ceremony, the couple left for a honeymoon in Reno, Mexico and points of interest in Southern California. For going away, the bride chose a white mandarin sheath dress with matching slim coat and white accessories. The newlyweds will reside in Roseburg.

Coming from out of town for the ceremony were Mrs. C. L. Young, Tacoma, Wash.; Mrs. Mark Nichols, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coop, Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Elliott, Florence; and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shambaugh, Springfield.
