LA Doders Increase NL Margin; Giants Hobbled By NY Mets, 9-7

By United Press International

The Los Angeles Dodgers are operating on the theory that a hero a day will keep the contenders away.

Sandy Koufax, Johnny Podres, Maury Wills, Tommy Davis—they've all taken their turns in the spotlight as the Dodgers have increased their National League lead to 6½ games and their won-lost percentage to .620.

And when they're not tearing up the peapatch, it seems that there's always somebody else—somebody like Ron Fairly or Ron Perranoski.

Fairly, who's been with the Dodgers since 1960 but rarely gets any publicity, and Perranoski, who's been with them since 1961 and is only beginning to get some, combined Wednesday night to enable the Dodgers to down the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-2. The Dodgers have now won nine of their last 11 games and 14 of their last 17.

Fairly Led Attack

Fairly drove in two runs with a second-inning homer and a fourth inning double and then Perranoski went to Bob Miller's rescue in a seventh-inning jam and shut out the Pirates with two hits the rest of the way. Miller received credit for his seventh win while Vern Law lost his fourth game.

The big Dodger drive has the other contenders gasping for breath—especially the San Francisco Giants, whose 9-7, 11th-inning loss to the New York Mets Wednesday night was their eighth in 10 games.

The St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 3-1, the Milwaukee Braves beat the Chicago Cubs, 6-4, in 12 innings and the Philadelphia Phillies scored a 10-9, 10th-inning win over the Houston Colts in other NL games.

Alston Was Ejected

Dodgers manager Walt Alston experienced one of his rare ejections when he protested umpire Ed Sudol's safe call at first base on a potential double play that would have taken Perranoski out of the crucial seventh. After Alston's departure, however, Perranoski went right back to work and retired dangerous Roberto Clemente for the third out of the frame.

Two players recently recalled from the minors dealt the Giants decisive blows as Joe Christopher singled and Joe Hicks homered in the 11th for the Mets. Willie McCovey hit his 11th homer of the month—five short of the NL record for a month—and his 29th of the season while Jesse Gonder and Christopher homered for the Mets.

The Cardinals moved into a virtual second-place tie with the Cubs on the strength of Bob Gibson's five-hit, 12-strikeout pitching and key eighth-inning doubles by Dick Groat and Bill White. Thirteen-game winner Jim O'Toole suffered his fifth straight loss and eighth of the year for the Reds.

Mathews Hit 16th

Joe Torre and Lee Maye had three hits each and Ed Mathews hit his 16th homer to lead the Braves' 16-hit attack which gave Hank Fisher his second win. Ellis Burton homered for the Cubs, whose three-game winning streak was snapped.

Bob Oldis' 10th-inning single drove in the winning run and ended a three-hour and nine-minute hitfest in which the Phillies made 19 hits and the Colts made nine against a total of 11 pitchers. Wes Covington drove in five runs with a homer and a double and Johnny Callison also homered for the Phillies, who overcame an early 9-2 deficit. Pete Runnels homered for the Colts.

In the American League, New York defeated Minnesota, 4-0, Detroit routed Baltimore, 9-1, Chicago downed Washington, 8-2, Kansas City drubbed Boston, 8-1, and Los Angeles topped Cleveland, 7-2 and 1-0.

Palmer Changes Tactics In PGA

DALLAS (UPI) — Arnold Palmer, noted for his charging on the fairways, changed his tactics today as he began his bid for the PGA, the only major golf championship he never has won.

Due to tee off at 1:08 p.m. (CST) when the searing Texas heat is usually at its blistering worst, Palmer planned three changes in his game.

Because he has been driving poorly, he is going to try his No. 1 iron and his No. 3 wood off the tee whenever possible; because of the heat he is going to walk slowly between shots, and because of the big greens on the DAC Country Club course he planned on lagging his putts.

Must Be Careful

"You are going to have to be careful on the greens here or you are going to wind up with a lot of three-putt greens," Palmer predicted. "So when I leave myself long putts, I'm going to concentrate on lagging the first putt up there in the hope I'll leave myself a short second."

As for giving up on his driver, he hoped that his one iron and three wood would give him more accuracy.

"You are going to get hurt here if you don't keep your drives on the fairway because of the heavy rough," he said.

This is Palmer's sixth try for the PGA title. The closest he has come was in 1961 when he tied for fifth.

Many Good Bets

Palmer, U. S. Open champion Julius Boros, Masters champion Jack Nicklaus and the PGA defending titleholder, Gary Player, were rated as the players to beat in this 45th annual tournament for the nation's golf professionals.

But at least a dozen others in the 167-man field were rated as good bets — including big George Bayer, Tony Lema, Mike Souchak, Don January, Phil Rodgers, British Open champion Bob Charles and Bo Winninger.

Except for the heavy rough on the 7,046-yard course with its par of 36-35—71, the golfers found the DAC layout to their liking.

The field starts teeing off at 7 a.m. with Ed Whalley of Newton Centre, Mass., hitting the first ball. The last threesome will tee off at 3 p.m. After Friday's second round, the field will be cut to the low 75 and ties for the final two rounds of play on Saturday and Sunday.

Patterson Plans Shadow-Boxing Prior To Fight

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — Floyd Patterson will shadow-box in his dressing room next Monday night and come out "red hot" for his return heavyweight title fight with champion Sonny Liston at the Las Vegas Convention Center.

"He'll shadow-box four rounds after I wake him up from his dressing-room nap," co-trainer Buster Watson said today. "He'll go into that ring red hot instead of cod fish like he was at Chicago."

Watson of New York, long-time buddy of the ex-champion, said Floyd was caught "cold" by big Sonny at Chicago, Sept. 25, and knocked out at 2:06 of the first round because he had taken only about 30 or 40 seconds of light exercise in the dressing room.

Meanwhile Liston, in his final sparring session at the Thunderbird Hotel, appeared so impressive in three rounds with mediocre Foneda Cox of St. Louis, that Billy Conn of Pittsburgh, former light heavyweight champion and heavyweight challenger, predicted:

"Liston will knock out Patterson in the first round again—maybe quicker than at Chicago."

But when asked how Liston would have fared with ex-champ Joe Louis when Bomber Joe was champion, Conn said: "Louis would have knocked his brains out. Louis was too fast with his hands for Sonny."

In very light wagering, Liston continued the 4-1 favorite.

Roseburg's American Legion Juniors all but clinched their third consecutive Doug-Lane League title Wednesday before the home fans by winning a pair of crucial counters.

The double victory over a tough Pitchford's (South Eugene) club gives the Lockwood Motors crew a perfect 14-0 record and insured the local team of no worse than a tie for the league crown as second place Springfield is a full six games back with an 8-6 mark. Pitchford's is now out of the running with a 6-8 record in league play.

Roseburg needs only one league victory or one Springfield loss to officially clinch the title.

The local wrecking crew surged from behind with a four-run rally in the sixth inning of Wednesday's opener before 1,469 fans at Legion Field to post a thrilling 6-4 triumph. In the nightcap Lockwood Motors unleased a 12-hit attack to grab a 9-1 victory.

Dick Williams paved the way for the win in the nightcap with a brilliant four-hit performance despite a cut finger on his right hand. Williams settled down after allowing three base raps in the first inning to whiff 16 South Eugene batters and hold the invaders hitless until the final inning. Williams issued three walks and hit one batter.

In the opener Ran Cool suffered an off night, leaving the game in the fifth inning with Roseburg trailing 4-2. Ron Westbrooks came on in relief to get credit for his sixth win against two setbacks.

Jim Beamer found the range with a single in the sixth inning of the first game, then banged out four consecutive hits in the second tilt to sport a 5-7 record at the plate in the two games. Included in Beamer's clouts in the second outing was a triple and a double as the veteran catcher drove in four runs. Bob Manning, Tom Morrison and Mike Blomberg each had three hits in the twin-bill.

Invading Pitchford's drew first blood in the opener. Fred Myers started things off with a walk and Wayne Smith followed with a towering triple to left-center to drive in the first run of the game. Smith scored on a ground out by Jack Willis.

Roseburg tied the count in the bottom of the inning when Mike Markham and Artie McDonald drew free passes. The two advanced on a double steal and Markham scored on Beamer's ground out. With two away Morrison worked his way for a free pass, then on an attempted steal the South Eugene catcher threw into centerfield allowing McDonald to score.

The two teams battled on an even keel until the fifth inning when South Eugene struck for two-more counters on singles by Myers and Gary Vogler and an error on Smith's easy grounder back to the pitcher.

Lockwood Motors, fighting from behind, came to life in the sixth to record the victory. After collecting only one hit off Al Mendenhall through the first five innings, the first four batters to face the husky right-hander ripped safeties in the sixth. Manning started the rally, followed by Beamer, Morrison and Bruce Wassom. A pair of errors allowing extra bases on the hits and Dave Sevall's sacrifice fly sent four runs across the plate.

In the nightcap Pitchford's struck in the first inning with three bingles, including a double by Smith and singles by Willis and Vogler.

The local crew came back with two runs in the bottom of the first, and was never headed. Blomberg started off with a scratch single when the shortstop lost his pop fly in the lights. After two outs Beamer singled to right and Morrison followed with a booming triple to left-center.

Four insurance runs crossed the plate for Lockwood Motors in the third on walks to McDonald and Manning, singles by Beamer, Sevall and Boucock and a triple by Morrison. Single tallies were recorded in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings by the winners as they routed the stubborn Pitchford's nine.

Roseburg, needing but one victory to clinch the league crown, will be out to secure the title Sunday when it travels north to face second place Springfield. Prior to Sunday's league doubleheader the Lockwood Motors crew will be at Grants Pass Friday for a 3:30 p.m. twin-bill and will host the Albany Cummings Movers in a pair of games Saturday evening at 6:30.

League Leaders Stay Undefeated With Crucial Pee Wee Victories

The Winchester Wildcats and the High School Braves remained deadlocked in Roseburg Midget League (8-9 year olds) play Tuesday by keeping their undefeated records intact.

In Minor League action (10-11 year old), the Fullerton Cubs and the Winchester Seantors continued their winning ways to remain unbeaten in conference play, while the Winchester Red Sox kept their victory string unscarred in the Major League (12-13 year olds).

The Winchester Wildcats toppled the High School Cardinals, 6-1, and the High School Braves trounced the Winchester Wolves, 13-5, to stay on top in the Midget League. The Fullerton Cougars remained one game back of the leaders with a 6-5 triumph over the Riverside Yankees.

Other games in the Midget League found the Riverside Tigers bombing the Fullerton Bearcats, 10-1 and the Eastwood Bulldogs whitewashed the Green Rams, 11-0.

In Minor League play the Fullerton Cubs racked up an easy 12-0 victory over the Riverside Indians with Duke DeBernardi handling the pitching. Mike Avery pitched the Winchester Senators to a 6-1 win over the Eastwood Vikings. The two undefeated Minor League teams will clash head-on Tuesday night in the Pee Wee Jamboree.

The Eastwood Athletics, paced by the hitting of Keith Cooper and Bruce Richmond, downed the Eastwood Vikings, 7-6, to stay a mere one game behind the leaders.

Other scores in the Minor League included a 4-3 victory by the Riverside Angels over the Fullerton Colts, the High School Pirates dropped the Winchester White Sox, 9-1, and the Fullerton Mets outlasted the Eastwood Owls, 5-4.

Gordon Smith tossed a nifty one-hitter to lead the Winchester Red Sox to an 11-1 triumph over the High School Giants in Major League play. The victory kept the Red Sox's undefeated string intact.

The Fullerton Reds moved into a second place tie by topping the Fullerton Phillies, 8-3, and the Green Huskies moved out of the cellar by downing the Eastwood Orioles, 8-6. The Reds are two games behind the Red Sox.

Yankees Topple Twins, 4-0; Detroit Bombs Orioles, 9-1

By United Press International

When in doubt, decide in favor of youth.

That's been manager Ralph Houk's policy since he became manager of the New York Yankees in 1961 and it has paid off dramatically in the cases of pitcher Jim Bouton and first-baseman Joe Pepitone.

The ultimate payoff, barring a spectacular uprising by some American League contender, looks like a romp to Houk's third straight pennant.

In May, 1962, Houk was faced with a choice between veteran Robin Roberts and Bouton. He decided in favor of Bouton. And last winter Houk approved the trade of veteran Bill Skowron on the grounds that he had 22-year-old Pepitone waiting in the wings.

Both moves have paid off handsomely. Bouton has developed into a 12-game winner this season while Pepitone is hitting .288 with 15 homers. Roberts is below .500 with the Orioles and Skowron is batting .217 for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Pitched SevenHitter

Bouton pitched a seven-hitter and struck out eight and Pepitone had a homer and a single when the Yankees whipped the Minnesota Twins, 4-0, Wednesday night before a crowd of 42,034 — the largest ever to see a baseball game in Minnesota. The loss dropped the pennant-hopeful Twins 7½ games behind the front-running world champions.

The Chicago White Sox beat the Washington Senators 8-2, the Detroit Tigers routed the Baltimore Orioles, 9-1, the Kansas City Athletics whipped the Boston Red Sox, 8-1, and the Los Angeles Angels topped the Cleveland Indians, 7-2 and 1-0, in other American League games.

In the National League, Los Angeles nipped Pittsburgh, 3-2, New York downed San Francisco, 9-7, St. Louis beat Cincinnati, 3-1, Milwaukee defeated Chicago, 6-4, and Philadelphia shaded Houston, 10-9.

Ron Hansen hit a two-run homer and Jim Landis had three hits to lead a 14-hit White Sox attack that enabled Dave DeBusschere to win his first big league game. Hoyt Wilhelm shut out the Senators for the last two innings to preserve the rookie's win.

Hit Grand Slammer

Gus Triandos' sixth grand slam homer of his career was the big blow for the Tigers as Hank Aguirre pitched a five-hitter for his eighth triumph. Steve Barber was tagged for three runs and seven hits in five innings and suffered his seventh defeat against 12 victories.

Charlie Lau's three-run homer in the first inning and George Alusik's grand slammer in the eighth paved the way for Kansas City's Dave Segui to win his fifth game with the ninth-inning relief aid of Johnny Wyatt. Dick Stuart had two hits for the Red Sox.

Dean Chance pitched an eight-hitter in the first game and Paul Foytack and Art Fowler combined in a four-hitter in the nightcap as the Angels swept the Indians. Leon Wagner and Charley Dees paced the Angels' 14-hit attack in the opener with three hits each. The Angels scored the only run of the nightcap in the fifth inning on Hank Foiles' triple and Jack Kralick's wild pitch.

SECRETS OF A "WORKED" DRY FLY

WESTERN TROUT, ATLANTIC SALMON AND BASS MAY GO FOR A FLY DRAGGING AGAINST THE CURRENT, BUT A "WORKED" FLY TAKES FISH WHERE DRAGGING A FLY WOULD FAIL. WHEN THE DOWNSTREAM DRIFT ENDS AND DRAG BEGINS, START A WRIST-JERKING TWIST-RETRIEVE AS ROD TIP IS GRADUALLY RAISED. THIS SKIPS THE FLY BACK UPSTREAM, MUCH LIKE AN INSECT AGAINST THE CURRENT. USE A SMALL, "BIVISIBLE" DRY FLY WITH A WIDE HACKLE NEAR EYE TO CAUSE LESS WAKE AND TO SKIP BEST. LET FLY FALL BACK A BIT BETWEEN SKIPS SO IT WON'T BE DROWNED.

Nip-And-Tuck Battle Looms For Fleet Trophy

HONOLULU (UPI) —The winner of the coveted handicap fleet trophy of the 1963 transpacific yacht race may be decided today as the two favored Class D yachts —one from California and the other from New York—battle nip-and-tuck to the finish line.

The sloop Island out of Newport Harbor, Calif., appeared to have an edge in the race for the handicap trophy and the class award, but it was being pressed by Marvyn Carton's Tiare, which is sailing under the pennant of the Knickerbocker Yacht Club of New York.

The 40-foot Island, owned by Thomas C. Corkett, was trailing the Tiare by two miles at the last report, but was ahead on a handicap basis. Both vessels were due across the Diamond Head finish line early today.

Thirteen boats in the 32-yacht field which tackled the 2,225-mile race from San Pedro, Calif., to Hawaii have finished. They include the Ticonderoga, Audacious, Kamalii, Orient, Astor, Legend, Queen Mab, Novia Del Mar, Ichiban, Khamsin, Tenderfoot, Mistress and Rasca.
