

SOVIET FOREIGN MINISTER Andrei Gromyko, second from right, cocktail glass in hand, looks around with surprise while attending dinner party he hosted for delegates to nuclear test ban talks in Moscow Wednesday. Others from left to right are: Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin, U.S. Presidential Envoy Averell Harriman, Gromyko, and British Delegate Lord Hailsham.

RACE RIOT HITS WINDY CITY — Overhead view shows chanting, singing Negro and white demonstrators as they clash with police in a pushing and shoving melee in front of the Chicago Board of Education this week. Three demonstrators were arrested, a 10-year-old girl and three policemen were injured. About 150 persons had gathered to protest alleged segregation in public schools.

A HOUSE DIVIDED — When Joe Conrad refused to sell his home to the city for a right-of-way, Charlotte, N.C., went ahead and took what it needed to extend a thoroughfare in front of Conrad's home. With the law on its side, the city sawed the house in half, offering him about $28,000 for the half it claimed. Conrad promised to take the matter to court.

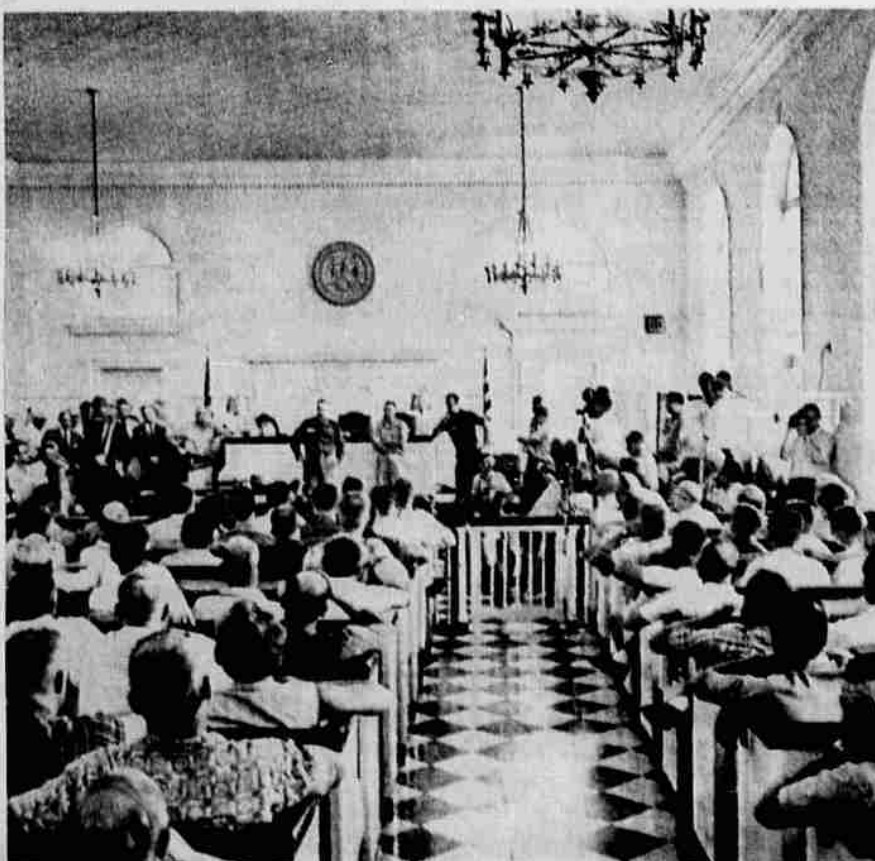

LOTTERY PAYS OFF — Mrs. Jeanette Boarley of Portland plans trip to Orient after winning a $50,000 gold brick, offered as prize in Calgary Stampede drawing. While in Canadian city, Mrs. Boarley bought the dollar ticket which won prize. In 1947 she entered a jingle contest, won a new car.

Picture Page

All pictures via UPI Telephoto Service

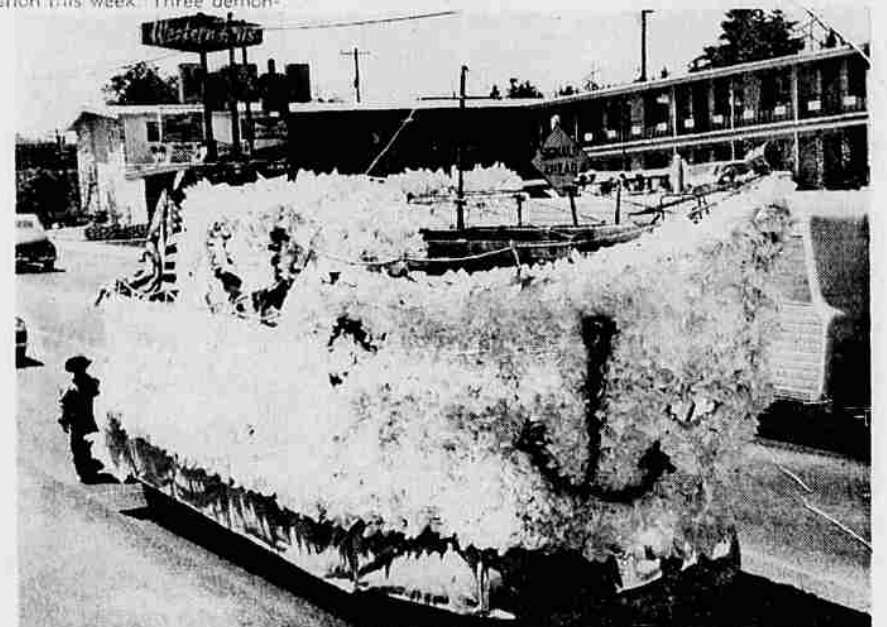

12 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore. — Sat., July 20, 1963

WHITES MASSES in Cambridge, Md. courthouse Tuesday to protest restrictions imposed by the National Guard, most objectionable of which is the 7 p.m. closing time of all businesses. Standing in front of judge's bench is Col. Maurice Towes, Guard commander.

MISS INDIAN AMERICA — Ramona Soto, from Klamath Falls, presents Denver Mayor Tom Currigan with Indian souvenirs and an invitation to attend the All-American Indian days in Sheridan, Wyo., in August. She has the Indian name Olsombunwas, or "Prairie Flower."

FLORENCE BOOSTERS captured first place in the Fleet Days parade last weekend to gain honors as one of the outstanding floats in the annual extravaganza at Reedsport. The parade was called the largest parade in the history of Fleet Days. Other activities, including the blessing of the fleet, were packed into two big days. (News-Review photo)

CHANGE RECOMMENDED — The floor of the New York Stock Exchange may be minus a few traders if Security Exchange Commission report recommendations are carried out. The report, released recently urged abolishing the floor trader on both stock exchanges, and placing of severe restrictions on the role of stock specialist.

DEAN OF THE HOUSE — Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., who set a new record for House tenure recently, was honored by his colleagues at the Capitol. He has served more than 48 years, eight months. Vinson is seated on right.