Johnson-Nichols Wedding July 5

At a charming lawn wedding at the home of her parents in Riddle, Miss Linda Lorraine Nichols became the bride of Carl Edward Johnson, also of Riddle.

The wedding took place July 5, the Rev. John York of the Church of Christ performing the double ring ceremony at 8 p.m. The marriage ceremony was witnessed by 120 friends of the couple.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Nichols. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Milton Johnson.

Two tall baskets of pink and white gladioli had been placed in front of a background of cedar trees to provide a lovely setting for the wedding ceremony. Tall candle holders held pink candles. Recorded music played the wedding procession.

The bride was very lovely in her floor-length gown of white tulle with a white and brown printed dragon frock with white accessories. The pleated back of the skirt flowed into a chapel-length train. The bodice of the dress featured a scalloped neckline accented by rhinestones, and the long sleeves came to points at the wrist. Her bouquet was of white gladioli.

Carol Johnson, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Patricia Jones was candlelighter. Both wore pink dresses. The frocks were styled with lace bodices, and the skirts were chiffon over taffeta with gathered cummerbunds at the waists.

Johnny Garren was best man. Ushering was done by Vernon Sutton Jr. and Gary Nichols, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Nichols, mother of the bride, wore a dress of beige and white, with beige accessories. She had a white carnation corsage.

The bridegroom's mother was attractive in a blue print dress with white accessories.

Following the wedding service, the newlyweds opened their gifts while coffee was served by Clara Deal; punch by Sharon Addis, and cake by Mrs. Kenneth Nichols. Mrs. Harold Addis and Liz Sauton assisted with the unwrapping of the gifts.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Johnson honeymooned in Canada and are now at home in Tri City. For traveling, the bride wore a white and brown printed dragon frock with white accessories.

Both the bride and bridegroom's families have lived in Riddle for 15 years, and both young people attended elementary and high school there. Mr. Johnson is employed in the lumber industry.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nichols of Wenatchee, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bone and family, Renton, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Deal and family, Toledo; Miss Judy Deal, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sell and daughter of San Diego, Calif.

Carol Surkamer Becomes Bride

Carol Surkamer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Surkamer, became the bride of Richard Carleton at a lovely home wedding June 28. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lenora Carleton of Yuba City, Calif.

The setting for the marriage ceremony was an archway of ferns and white gladioli and baskets of mixed pastel gladioli. The Rev. Alfred S. Tyson performed the nuptial service at 8 p.m. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her ballerina-length gown of white nylon chiffon which had a short jacket of nylon lace. Her shoulder-length veil of white tulle was secured by a rhinestone tiara. The bride's bouquet was of white carnations.

Betty Flemming, her bridesmaid, was charming in a beige nylon chiffon frock with matching stole. Best man was Everett Carleton, brother of the bridegroom. Flower girl was Linda Ritzman.

The mother of the bride wore a blue flowered nylon chiffon frock with a pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Carleton wore a two-piece orchid ensemble and a yellow carnation corsage.

Following a two-week honeymoon trip to Yuba City, the newlyweds plan to return here to make their home. Guests coming from out of town were Mrs. Lenora Carleton of Yuba City, Calif., and Mrs. Betty Ritzman and Edith Ritzman, both of Portland.
