

Bridge Player's Dream Finesse

By OSWALD JACOBY
(Written For NEA)

The late George Reith was one of the great bridge players of the twenties and thirties. George started me off on my bridge career by inviting me to be his partner in the first contract tournament ever held. Not only did he invite me to play with him, but he carried

10 From Roseburg On The Honor Roll

Ten students from the Roseburg area are listed on the spring term honor roll from Oregon State University.

To qualify for honor roll listing, students must make at least a B plus average for the term. Students from the Roseburg area on the honor roll are Karen L. Wishart, Sally J. Myers, Lynn M. Forrest, Dennis L. Ellison, Terry S. Watters, Darald W. Callahan, James W. Booker, Jr., and Albert C. Parr all of Roseburg; and William A. Worden and Donald G. Page of Winston.

Page was singled out for special recognition as a straight-A student.

Two On Honor Roll

Walt Edmonds, Route 2, Box 1426, and Gayle Harris, 1447 SE Overlook, both of Roseburg, are among 103 Linfield College students placed on the spring semester honor roll here by Dr. E. Avarad Whitman, college registrar.

H.S. Matmen Win In Japan

HACHINOE, Japan (UPI) — A team of Oregon high school wrestling champions Saturday night defeated an all-Aomori Prefecture high school contingent by a 6½ to 1½ score.

It was the Oregon Grapplers' second victory against a draw in the first three of their scheduled nine matches in Japan. An all-star Japanese high school squad competed last January in Oregon.

The Oregonians will compete again Tuesday at Asahikawa on Hokkaido, Japan's northernmost island.

Saturday's results:
110 pounds: Rich Henjyoji, Portland, drew with Wako Fawauchi, 3-3.
120 pounds: Rich Sanders, Portland, decisioned Yoshihiro Sirasaka, 8-0.
130 pounds: Grant Humphrey, Klamath Falls, decisioned Kazumi Wakamatsu, 3-0.
140 pounds: Katsutoshi Kawahie, decisioned Keith Flack, Canby, 1-0.
150 pounds: Don Dykstra, Lebanon, pinned Kenzo Tanaka, 3-38.

160 pounds: Rollin Schimmel, Rainier, decisioned Mitsuya Faki, 4-56.8.
170 pounds: Fred Fozzard, Portland, pinned Tadashi Fafaki 3-45.
180 pounds: Henk Schenk, Silverton, pinned Katsuyoshi Mizuno, 4-56.8.

Open class: Don Kauffman, Lebanon, decisioned Toshiharau Takeuchi, Senshu College, 6-0.

Roseburg Youth To Be Soloist

An unusual trombone concert will be presented at the University of Oregon tonight.

The concert will be in the School of Music auditorium at 8:00 p.m. It is open to the public.

The all-trombone program will feature two student musicians in their senior recital, assisted by a trombone choir.

The student soloists are James Erickson of Grants Pass and Wayne Travillion of Roseburg.

Members of the choir, all teachers or band directors, are Ralph Beardsworth and Terry Warner, both of Eugene; Don Goodwin, Bend; Richard Evans, Prineville; Charles Warren, Ontario; and Rodney Wong, Hilo, Hawaii.

The program will open with Erickson's presentation of McKay's "Sonata for Trombone." Travillion will perform "Concerto for Bass Trombone," by Spillman. Two works will be performed by the trombone choir. These are: "Dra Equale" by Beethoven, which was composed for a trombone choir and was played at Beethoven's funeral; and "Piece for Six Trombones," composed by Burrill Phillips.

Travillion: Majoring in Music. His home address is 944 M.W. Hill Place in Roseburg.

Today's Youth Youth Exchange Farm Trips Set

Young Oregonians—between 20 and 30 years of age—who desire to contribute to better world understanding are invited to apply for expense-paid trips overseas as International Farm Youth Exchange delegates.

Two men and two women will be named for 1963-64 trips after interviews at Oregon State University, Aug. 9 and 10.

Qualifications for applicants are these: must be single, a high school graduate, have some familiarity with farming or agriculture, and be willing to adapt to home situations in other lands. A foreign language is desired but not required.

IFYRE's spend four to five months in a host country living with assigned families for two to three weeks — long enough to get the "feel" of the country and its people. An IFYE shares with the family as a family member in work and leisure activities. Oregon has sent 46 young adults to 31 countries in the 12 years that OSU has sponsored the program.

Money for the trips comes from four sources — interested individuals, mainly 4-H groups, businesses, the Oregon Bankers Association, and the National 4-H Sponsor's Council.

IFYRE's will be selected by personal interview, largely based on their attitudes and concerns with other people, says Ruth Brasher, state 4-H agent.

A few countries have particularly requested IFYE's who are of non-Caucasian descent and American Indians so persons who might qualify are asked to apply. Application blanks may be obtained from county extension agents or from Miss Brasher at the State 4-H Club Office, OSU.

Grace Elliott, Astoria, will leave Oregon for Australia in September as an IFYE in the 1962-63 program. Already in host countries are Don Anderson, Colton, Germany; Suzanne Lozier, Enterprise, The Netherlands; and Dean Wimer, Brownsville, Ireland.

ROTC CADET David P. Lewis, Jr., of Roseburg, learns to aim, load and fire the army 81mm mortar during training at the 1963 ROTC Camp, Ft. Lewis, Wash. Cadet Lewis, as a candidate for commission, will receive intensive instruction and practical work in all phases of leadership, military tactics and weapons. A 1960 graduate of Roseburg High School, who is presently majoring in chemistry at Oregon State University, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David P. Lewis, 4514 NE Stephens St., Roseburg.
