

Liston Signing Delayed

By JACK CUDDY
UPI Sports Writer

LAS VEGAS (UPI)—As heavy-weight champion Sonny Liston flew home to Denver today, his plans called for a trip late next week to Philadelphia for the probable announcement of his next title defense against Cassius Clay in the Quaker City, Sept. 30.

Big Sonny, who again knocked out Floyd Patterson in the first round at the Las Vegas Convention Center Monday night, will combine pleasure with business on his eastern trip next week; for he and wife Geraldine plan to spend a few days at Atlantic City, N.J.

Although there was considerable hedging about the Sept. 30th fight at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium during Tuesday's news conference here, persons close to Sonny and advisor Jack Nilon say that announcement of the fight has been delayed until next week, at least, in order to first obtain complete approval from the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission.

Meanwhile, Patterson flew back to his home at Scarsdale, N.Y., in his private plane with a co-pilot. Despite his second knock-out in the first round by Liston in less than a year, Floyd says he plans to continue fighting and to challenge Sonny again in the future. Sonny is 30 years old; Floyd, 28.

Each fighter was estimated to have earned a purse of about $300,000 Monday night from the gross gate of $286,180 at Convention Center and from the estimated gross of about $1,500,000 from theater television, movies, radio and other ancillaries.

As president of the new International Promotions, Liston's first official act was to appoint Ben Bentley of Chicago public relations director for International. Bentley was chief boxing publicity man for Chicago Stadium a few years ago when the stadium was an outstanding fight center.
