

Blanchard Blasts 2 Homers To Lead Yanks To Victory

By DICK JOYCE
Tiger Sports Writer

Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris—$172,000 worth of muscle—may owe their World Series checks this fall to second-stringers Johnny Blanchard and Steve Hamilton.

With sluggers Mantle and Maris still on the sidelines because of injuries, the New York Yankees have boosted their American League lead to nine games. In the stretch utilityman Blanchard has regained his 1961 form and Hamilton has nailed down a "dependable" tag in the bullpen.

The 30-year-old Blanchard whose batting average dipped to .235 last season after a brilliant .305 and 21 home runs in 1961, drove in four runs with two homers to lead the Yankees to a 7-0 victory over the Los Angeles Angels Tuesday night.

Hamilton, a southpaw, bailed out starter Stan Williams in a bases loaded, none-out situation in the eighth inning by striking out Leon Wagner, Lee Thomas and Billy Moran. The crowd of 17,203 at Yankee Stadium gave Hamilton a standing ovation.

Tigers Sweep Two
The Detroit Tigers swept a doubleheader from Chicago, 5-1 and 6-4, to drop the White Sox into third place; Steve Barber pitched a 4-0, four-hit victory for the Baltimore Orioles over the Washington Senators; the Kansas City Athletics stopped the Boston Red Sox 1-0, and the Cleveland Indians edged the Minnesota Twins, 3-2, in 13 innings.

Blanchard, playing right field in place of Maris, connected for his fifth and sixth homers of the season. His second round-tripper of the game was a three-run blast off southpaw reliever Jack Springs, topping a six-run fifth inning. Cleve Boyer chipped in with his 11th homer and Hector Lopez, another substitute outfielder, collected two hits.

The victory was the Yankees' fifth in a row, with Hamilton presiding. Stan Williams' fourth triumph. So far this year, Mantle and Maris have played only 21 games together.

Four Nine Behind
The White Sox' double loss dropped them one percentage point behind second-place Boston. Only three points separate Boston from fifth-place Baltimore. Boston, Chicago, Minnesota and the Orioles all are nine games behind the Yankees.

Norm Cash and Al Kaline knocked in eight runs during the doubleheader for the Tigers. Cash smashed two homers, including a grand slam, to give Hank Aguirre the triumph in the opener while Bob Anderson won the nightcap with a solid relief job.

Barber earned his 13th victory—his first in almost a month—as Luis Aparicio collected four singles and John Orsino homered for the Orioles.

Wayne Causey's first inning double and Jerry Lumpe's single gave the A's Diego Segui all the help he needed for his sixth triumph. Segui held the Red Sox to six hits and struck out nine.

Tito Francona's two-out home run in the 13th off Camilo Pascual snapped the Indians' nine-game losing streak. Willie Kirkland also homered for Cleveland as Jim Grant gained the victory.

Maybe some team will steal the National League pennant from the Los Angeles Dodgers but who's gonna rob the MVP award from Dick Groat?

The answer should be nobody because what value do you put on a slick-fielding shortstop who is a fiery field leader in addition to hitting .348?

That's the 32-year-old Groat's average today and it puts him squarely on the path toward his second NL batting championship and second MVP award. Groat won 'em both in 1960 when he batted .325 and led the Pittsburgh Pirates to their first NL pennant since 1927.

Winchester Team Downs KPIC 14-6
With Gordon Smith striking out 12 batters, the hot Winchester Pee Wee Major League team conquered KPIC, 14-6 this week.

It is scheduled to take part in a father-son game at 6:30 p.m. tonight at Joseph Lane Junior High School and then play in the Pee Wee Jamboree Thursday night at 9:30.

Smith went all the way in the game with KPIC. He scattered five singles, while walking nine. His teammates scored in every inning but the third and fifth. Roger Taylor led the hitters with two singles and a triple. Bill Shinn counted a double and homer in three trips. The Winchester squad scored seven of its runs in the last inning.

Woodworth Fires One-Hit Shutout In Second Game

The Roseburg Legion Bees went against one of the top high school and junior league pitchers in the region Tuesday night and gave him a real run for his money before dropping a narrow 4-2 decision.

In the first game, the Bees drew first blood as they got to Gjesvold for two runs in the second inning. Gary Heeter led off with a double and scored on a single by Chuck Dornisife. Dornisife stole second and scored later on a single by Matson to make it 2-0.

Lowell came right back in the bottom of the second, as back-to-back singles and a Roseburg error allowed them to score a pair of runs and tie it up.

The score remained knotted going into the bottom of the sixth, when Lowell put together four singles to bring in another pair of runs and give Gjesvold the victory.

Woodworth Sharp
In the second game of the doubleheader, the Bees came back to down Lowell 6-0 on a beautiful one-hitter by Pete Woodworth. Woodworth allowed only three base runners, as he gave up a single to the leadoff batter and then walked two men later in the game. He set the side down in 1-2-3 order in three of the five innings of the nightcap.

Jim Kiser led off the game with a single and Ray Shepard followed later with a walk. Heeter then doubled to drive in Kiser and he and Shepard scored on back-to-back singles by Jim Coon and Danny Withers.

The Bees, meanwhile, pounded out eight base hits to work their way to the victory. The Bees now have a 10 win and three lost record for the season. They take on Creswell at Creswell Thursday night.
