

Old Cleveland Schoolhouse Now Home Of Melrose Newcomers

By NETTIE WOODRUFF
Newcomers to the Melrose area are Mr. and Mrs. Cosmas Solano of Glendale, Calif., who moved recently into the old Cleveland schoolhouse, which they purchased from the E. L. Lutmans. They also own about 20 acres which they had purchased earlier across the road from their house.

Parents Are Visited
Mrs. Woodrow Nielsen and children of Grants Pass visited recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pierce.

Patti Doerner has returned from a week of summer school for future teachers at Monmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom McBee and son of Springfield spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eder.

Mrs. Hazel Landis of Newport is visiting at the C. A. Coffell home. The two women are girlhood friends. Also at the Coffell home are Dana and Denise Coffell, grandchildren visiting from Bend.

Otto Matthews returned Monday from several days spent in Prineville with his son, K. L. Matthews, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ross of Denver, Colo., are spending some time at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Thames.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stoffell Jr., Mrs. Ann Campion and her daughter, Mrs. Herman Stoffell Sr., have arrived from Anaheim, Calif., where the latter was visiting various relatives. The former couple and Mrs. Campion will visit here at the Stoffell Sr. home for several days.

Fishing Trip Made
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Preschenn and children, Jean and John, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Davis and Donna and Janet spent three days recently fishing at Salmon Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Conn and Freddie and Jennifer have moved from Calkins Road to the new home they have started in Elgarose.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moon and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Webb and Frances were in Reedsport Sunday for the Fleet Days activities.

Mrs. Max Swall is recovering from severe bruises suffered in a stairway fall Saturday night at Diamond Lake. She was returned home Sunday morning by her husband and Mr. and Mrs. Sig Wolff and received medical attention here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Ault of Vancouver, Wash., and Cherris and Chellis Ralston spent the weekend with Mrs. Ault's brother, Sibley Nielsen, and family.

James Freeman of Roseburg has purchased the acreage west of the Melrose Grange from S. W. Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Frank and children have returned to their home in Bay Center, Wash., following a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Davenport. They were accompanied by Mrs. Frank's grandmother, Mrs. Cora Watkins, for a few weeks' visit. Mrs. Davenport's niece, Elaine Bircher, left Wednesday for her home in Yakima, Wash., following a three-week visit here.

Hospital Stay Ended
E. S. Wright is back home following a two-week stay in the VA Hospital for medical attention. Mr. and Mrs. James Griffin and family have moved here from Portales, N. M., and are staying with his sister, Mrs. Bill Shipp, temporarily.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Larson of Eugene spent a day this week with her grandfather, Royce Busenbark.

Clyde Wright has returned from a week spent in Southern California on business.

Mid-Western Relatives Visitors In Winston Prior To Joint Trip

By PHEBE MCGUIRE
Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Exceen in Winston were the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Exceen, their son, Dencil, and daughter, June Lynn, all of Emerson, Iowa, and a brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Watson and son, Tommy, from Grand Island, Neb. The Ezra Exceens with their houseguests drove to San Diego to visit another brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Exceen for a week's stay. Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Exceen have now returned to their home in Winston and their guests have returned to their respective homes.

Portland Trip Made
Mr. and Mrs. John Williams returned home following a trip to Portland to visit the latter's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morgan. They also visited his mother, Mrs. Ivy Morgan, and another brother, Leslie Morgan of Hoquiam, Wash., who were also in Portland for the day.

John Recano left Saturday to return to his home in Los Angeles after a visit of several weeks with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr.

and Mrs. Ernest Joras.
Mr. and Mrs. John Burt have returned from a 10-day trip which took them to Eugene to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Burt and baby, and to Portland for a visit with friends. They then drove to Canada to spend some time in Banff and Lake Louise, returning by way of Vancouver, B. C., Victoria, and on to Seattle, Wash. They then went to Diamond Lake for a three-day fishing trip before returning home.

Relatives Visit
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thorpe of Cascade Locks stayed in Winston Monday night to visit the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Paul White. The Thorpes were returning from a vacation trip to California.

Mack A. Smith of the U. S. Navy, who recently finished a tour of duty in the Western Pacific, left this week to return to his destroyer, the USS Parsons in San Diego. He has spent the past 18 days in Winston visiting his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. David Kilmer and family and his mother, Mrs. Annie M. Smith.
