

'ACE' KNUDTSON will make another attempt to become airborne Sunday during the annual Roseburg Airport Recognition Days and Air Show. During the last air show, Knudtson tried to get off the ground with a home-made rocket—and failed miserably. This time, he's going to use a hot air gas bag in which he hopes to ascend to 10,000 feet. The air show is scheduled Saturday and Sunday.

WANTS CUBAN ACTION

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., wants the Kennedy administration to encourage and aid anti-Communist guerrillas in Cuba.

Hruska said this week U. S. aid should include "air drops and covert landings of supplies and equipment." He also said the administration should sponsor a Cuban provisional government which would be established at the U. S. Naval Base at Guantanamo Bay.
