

SIMCA DRIVER JOSE CANGA isn't toppling over. Ace driver was performing balancing act at British Grand Prix in Silverstone, England this week. Car is like others, except for a locked differential.

RAGNAR BENSON, center, leads grandchildren, other relatives and employees here Thursday to chartered plane for his annual trip to Sweden. Benson, a construction contractor, annually takes a large group on jaunt to Sweden and pays all the bills. His party this year includes thirty persons.

SINGER EDDIE FISHER, left, is shown with his latest girl friend, Renata Boeck as they prepare to watch the championship fight between Floyd Patterson and Sonny Liston in Las Vegas, Nev., Monday.

COAST GUARDSMAN SECURES 14-foot outboard boat found in San Francisco Bay this week with the bodies of seven passengers floating nearby. All aboard were drowned in an as yet unsolved mystery.

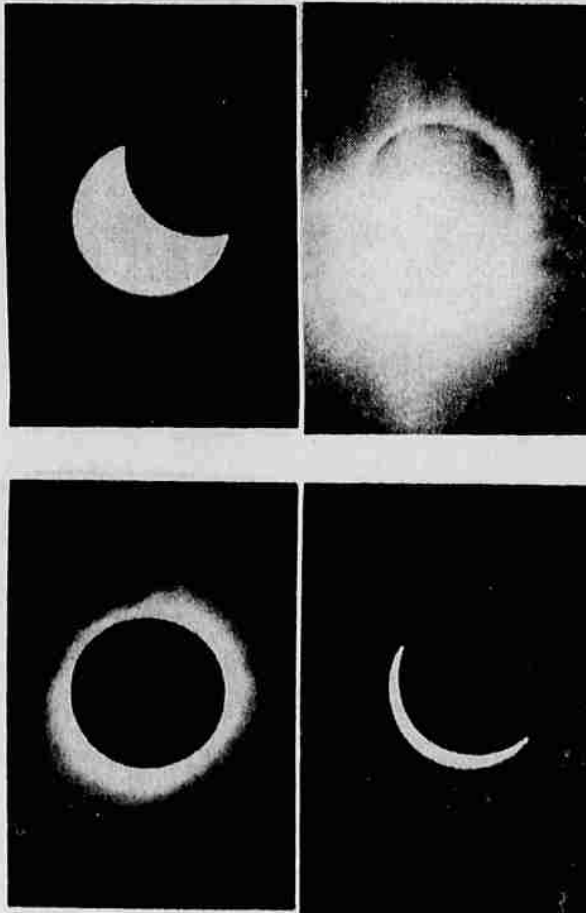

MANDY RICE-DAVIES is attended by huge battery of photographers as she leaves Old Bailey Court early this week after testifying in second hearing of Dr. Stephen Ward's morals trial. She claimed Douglas Fairbanks Jr. was one of her lovers.

Picture Page

All pictures via UPI Telephoto Service

12 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore.—Sat., July 27, 1963

THESE PHOTOS of solar eclipse last weekend were made from a plane flying over the clouds at Grand Mere, Quebec. The moon, upper left, starts moving over the face of the sun. Sparkling diamond effect, upper right, is seen as eclipse approaches totality. Totality is seen, lower left, and lower right, the moon moves away from the sun.

TWO OF THREE MEN who survived 1,500-foot fall on Mt. Hood arrive at Hood River hospital early this week. Dr. William Mason, center, examines Dr. Eberhard Gloekler, right, as his climbing mate, Dr. Mark Hanschke, on stretcher, is removed from ambulance. Third member of trio was Robert C. Shoemaker, Portland attorney. All received only minor injuries.

BRITISH ARMY BOMB DISPOSAL EXPERTS check crater on farm near Charlton, England. Cause of the crater had been attributed to a flying saucer but Friday the engineers dug up a meteorite from beneath the crater, thus ending one of Britain's finest science fiction mysteries since the Loch Ness monster.

POLICE USE HEAVY BOLT CUTTERS to snip the chains of 14 civil rights demonstrators blocking the entrance to the construction site of the Downstate Medical Center in Brooklyn, N.Y. this week. The police protesting alleged discriminatory hiring practices, had chained themselves together. Police arrested 84 persons.