

Legion Bees Drop Tough 4-1 Battle To Oakridge Nine

The Roseburg Legion Bees wound up their season's play Friday night by dropping a tough 4-1 decision to one of the finest young right-handers in the area, Oakridge's Larry Hill.

Hill, a quick-actioned chucker with a sharp-breaking curve ball, came on in the third inning and held the Bees to one hit to notch the win for Oakridge.

For the Bees, ace Rusty Hubbard came on in the fourth and held Oakridge to three hits and one run. The hometowners had scored three runs on four consecutive hits in the first inning to take the lead that proved to be the margin of victory.

This gave the Bees a 10 win and 4 loss season record. Coach Jerry Droscher said Friday night "these kids played real fine ball and hustled real well throughout the season. They got a late start, but put in a lot of time and effort."

They've shown some tremendous improvement, especially on the part of the pitchers," he said. "Some of these kids will really help the Legion in the future."

Oakridge collected four consecutive singles and took advantage of three Roseburg errors in the first inning to push in three runs. This enabled them to overcome a 1-0 lead the Bees had picked up in the top of the first, when Danny Withers led off with a double and scored later on a sacrifice fly by Ray Shepard. The only other hit picked up by the Bees was a single in the fourth inning blasted off Hill by right fielder Jim Coon.

Hubbard came on in the third inning to relieve starter Pat Long and held Oakridge at bay until the top of the fifth, when they pieced together a pair of singles to score their fourth and final run.

A scheduled game with Cottage Grove for Sunday has been called off so the Bees can take in the district playoff game at Klamath Falls.

Fred Hawkins Boosts Lead In Western Open Golf Play

By ED SAINSBURY
United Press International
CHICAGO (UPI) — Home cooking might be just what Fred Hawkins needs to score his second tournament victory in 16 years on the pro golf tour.

Hawkins, 39, held a four-stroke lead heading into the final two rounds of the $50,000 Western Open with a 36-hole total of 135 on 18-hole rounds of 67 and 68.

He is the only player who has turned in consecutive rounds in the 60s.

It's not all because Hawkins is living at home for the tournament, where there's mother and father at Antioch, Ill. He has to drive his car for an hour and 20 minutes between home and golf links.

"It's too far and too long, really," Hawkins said, "but it's the only chance I get to see my parents during the years, so it's worthwhile."

It would be worth a minimum of $10,000 first money if the home cooking can keep him on the road to a win. Hawkins has played the tour steadily for a longer period than any other current competitor except 51-year-old Sam Snead, and he's won only one tournament, the 1956 Oklahoma Open.

Hawkins' consistent assault on par for the first 36 holes indicated he could hold his form for the rest of the event and see if anybody left in the field could catch him.

For today's third round, only those who scored 150 or under can continue, a field of 70 pros and one amateur.

The closest challengers were the ancient Snead, who has won more PGA tournaments than any other player, National Open champion Julius Boros and Bob McCallister, all with 139. Another trio was deadlocked at 140, five strokes behind, Joe Campbell, leading money winner Arnold Palmer, and Lionel Hebert.

Though five players, including Palmer and Boros, were able to score 67s yesterday, while only Hawkins could do it Thursday, the course generally played tougher than it did in the first round when 16 players netted par. Yesterday, only 14 could do better compared to 29 on the first round. For the 36 holes so far, 13 players were under par and seven were even.

Dodgers Defeated, Giants, Cards Both Claim Victory

By United Press International
The song of the open road is the saddest song of all for the New York Mets.

This is the saddest of all major league teams and it's official today that the sad, sad song of the open road is their official theme song.

New York fans have accepted them with an amused tolerance and even glamorized their ineptitude but in foreign cities they find their real home because they are accepted with open arms. They are the solution to every manager's problem — the team that can't win for trying.

It went into the record book Friday night when the Houston Colts whipped them, 7-3, and handed them their 20th straight loss on the road. No team in the annals of modern major league baseball history ever did that before and if you're looking for a worse reason for more big league expansion you'd better check commissioner Ford C. Frick. Casey Stengel is fresh out of ideas.

Details? They're awful.

The Colts scored seven runs in the first inning. They got three walks and starter Tracy Stallard hit a batter, Rusty Staub. Bob Lillis and Dick Farrell hit singles. Al Spangler hit a double and Bob Aspromonte hit a grand slam homer.

The Mets made a pathetic effort to avoid topping the all-time record for road futility set by the 1916 Philadelphia Athletics when they rallied for three runs in the third inning but Dick Farrell, a tough cookie who knows a pigeon when he sees one, settled down and shut them out for the rest of the way to score his eighth victory of the season.

The Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers, 6-5, the San Francisco Giants beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-4, the Cincinnati Reds bombarded the Milwaukee Braves, 11-1, and the St. Louis Cardinals topped the Chicago Cubs, 4-1, in other NL games.

In the American League, New York edged the Minnesota Twins 6-5, Baltimore clipped Chicago, 6-0, Washington shamed Kansas City, 3-2, and Boston nipped Los Angeles, 5-4.

Tony Taylor drove in five runs with three singles to lead the Phillies to their 20th victory in 26 games this month. Chris Short picked up his third win for the Phillies although Jack Baldschun, one of the unsung relief aces of the season, took over in the eighth. The Dodgers threatened in the ninth when Jim Gilliam and Tommy Davis singled but Baldschun struck out Frank Howard and retired Ron Fairly on an infield out.

Face Sets Record
Chuck Hiller hit a two-run, ninth-inning homer off Pirate reliever Earl Face, who set a major league record by making his 360th appearance in relief without a start. Jack Fisher won his fifth game for the Giants after the Pirates tied the score in the eighth on Johnny Logan's triple and a single by Bill Vukobratovic. Willie McCovey hit his 30th homer of the season for the Giants.

Others by Frank Robinson, Tommy Harper and Pete Rose led Cincinnati's 18-hit attack on five Milwaukee pitchers. Joe Nuxhall pitched a seven-hitter and struck out seven batters behind the attack which routed Tony Cloninger in 1 2-3 innings and saddled him with his seventh defeat. Rose, Harper, Vada Pinson and Johnny Edwards had three hits apiece for the Reds.

Bob Gibson's four-hit pitching and Ken Boyer's two-run homer paved the way for an easy victory over the Cubs. It was Gibson's 12th win of the season while Paul Toth was tagged with his sixth defeat.

New York Yankees Tough At Home—Beat Twins 6-5

By United Press International
The New York Yankees' American League rivals know how old-time visitors felt when they bought the Brooklyn Bridge because after a visit to Yankee Stadium this year they're lucky to escape with their shirts and gold teeth.

The Yankees are always tough but playing them at home is like fighting Sonny Liston in a dark alley. There's no percentage in it.

"Out team, especially out pitching, is geared for the stadium," explains manager Ralph Houk, "viewing the Yankees' current eight-game lead through a cloud of cigar smoke. "Also, when we play on the road the fans turn out to see us beaten and they help get the other teams 'up.' Sometimes it's like taking on a whole city."

Well, the Minnesota Twins couldn't bring all their fans to New York Friday night and they'll settle Sunday night to escape with all their ball players. Because the Yankees not only knocked them off, 6-5, in the first game of a four-game series but also knocked star third baseman Rich Rollins into a hospital. The victory was the Yankees' 35th in 45 home games — a .778 percentage that compares with the AL record 65-16 home mark they had in 1961.

Rollins To Hospital
Rollins went to the hospital with a concussion of the left cheekbone after being struck by a wicked grounder hit by Hector Lopez. Earlier, Lopez delivered an even more damaging blow — a two-run homer that sent the Yankees off to a lead they never lost.

Jim Bouton was tagged for two homers, two triples and two doubles but went 8 1-3 innings to win his 13th game with the relief help of Steve Hamilton. Lopez had three hits and Elston Howard, Tony Kubek and Bobby Richardson two each for the Yankees. Minnesota homer hitters were Zoilo Versalles and Johnny Goryl.

The Baltimore Orioles defeated the Chicago White Sox, 6-0, the Boston Red Sox edged the Los Angeles Angels, 5-4, the Cleveland Indians nipped the Kansas City Athletics, 3-2, and the Washington Senators beat the Detroit Tigers, 3-1, in other AL games.

In the National League, Philadelphia beat Los Angeles, 6-5, San Francisco beat Pittsburgh, 6-4, Houston downed New York, 7-3, Cincinnati drubbed Milwaukee, 11-1, and St. Louis topped Chicago, 4-1.

The Orioles moved into second place behind the three-hit pitch-

The Central Douglas All-Stars will take on the powerful South Douglas All-Stars for the District 4 Babe Ruth baseball championship at 7 p.m. Sunday at Legion Field in Roseburg.

Central Douglas won the right to meet the Myrtle Creek area squad in the finals by defeating the Roseburg No. 1 All-Stars 4-1 on a no-hit pitching performance by Dave Sikstrom Friday night at Sutherland.

Should Central Douglas win the first game, there will be a second and final game in the double-elimination tournament held Sunday night at Legion Field. If South Douglas wins, there will be no need for a second game.

The winner of this tournament will head for The Dalles Monday and will enter competition in the state tournament at 4:30 p.m. Tuesday.

South Douglas has shown up as the power squad of the tournament so far, blasting out a total of 50 runs in their first two games. They won by scores of 30-3 and 20-2.

Central Douglas pulled into the finals Friday night with a revenge win over the Roseburg No. 1 squad, which had edged them 10-9 in the first game of the tournament.

Roseburg scored an unearned run in the second inning, but was unable to get to Sikstrom, No. 1, who twirled the nifty no-hitter. The ace Central Douglas moundman struck out eight and walked six.

For Roseburg, Dale Pfeiffer struck out seven and walked only three, while giving up six hits.

Central Douglas scored lone runs of Pfeiffer in the first and fourth innings and added a pair in the sixth. Bob Dawson led the winners in the hitting column with two hits in four trips to the plate.

All of the Central Douglas hits were singles.

Terrell Meets Zora Folley In Televised Bout Tonight

NEW YORK (UPI) — Tall Ernie Terrell, Chicago's rapidly improving heavyweight contender, seeks his eighth straight victory tonight in a nationally televised fight with veteran Zora Folley at Madison Square Garden.

In his latest bout on April 13, the six-foot-seven Terrell outpointed Fuged Cleveland Williams of Houston, Tex., whom champion Sonny Liston described as "the toughest man I ever fought," although Sonny stopped Williams twice.

Tonight eighth-ranked Terrell engages seventh-rated Folley of Chandler, Ariz., who also fought Liston — and also was knocked out by savage Sonny.

Terrell, 24, is gunning for a title fight with Liston because he knows he has the long-jabbing and tight tying-up style that Liston abhors.

At Las Vegas, Nev., last week, Liston said:

"You can have that Terrell. I don't want him. I don't like his style. He won't fight yuh. He pecks away with those long arms; then grabs yuh and ties yuh up in clinches. All he does is make yuh look bad."

Despite 31-year-old Folley's 11-year experience and slightly higher rating, betting is at even money for tonight's bout. It's "65 and pick 'em."

Yanks Picked In 5 Events Of Track Meet With Poland

WARSAW (UPI) — The United States track and field team smothered Poland 68-36 Friday on the opening day of their two-day dual meet. The Yanks are favored to win five of the nine events scheduled today.

The American men won nine of Friday's 10 events to take a 68-36 lead while the women, rebounding from last week's poor showing at Moscow, trailed the Polish women only 27-33.

Pennel, a doubtful starter because of a back injury, equalled his world record established at London July 13 when he soared 5.10 meters (16 feet, 8 3/4 inches).

Either Rex Cawley of Southern California or Jim Allen of Washington State was favored to score in the 400-meter hurdles. Paul Drayton of Cleveland, Ohio was expected to win the 200-meters, but Henry Carr of Arizona State University was thought to have to give it all he's got to hold off Poland's Marian Folk in that event.

In the high jump, Gene Johnson of California, was the choice, with Edward Czernik of Poland given a good shot to beat Paul Stuber of Oregon for second place.

Dave Davis of the U.S. Marines was picked in the shotput and young Rudy Matson of Pampa, Tex., was a slight choice over teammates Pat Traynor and Jerry Fishback for the runnerup spot. Bogdan Zaluska was Poland's chief hope.

Ronald Laird of Chicago and Ronald Zinn of the U.S. Army were chosen to lead the way home in the 20 kilometer walk.

A crowd of 40,000 Friday watched Hayes Jones of Detroit win the 100-meter hurdles. U.S. Williams of Arizona State U. took the 400-meter run, Robert Hayes capture the 100-meter dash and Darrell Horn of the U.S. Air Force won the broad jump.

Other American victories were scored by Droyl Burleson of Eugene, Ore., in the 1,600 meter run, Bob Hemphrey of Los Angeles in the discus, Pete McArdle of New York in the 10,000 meter run and John Gilbert, John Moon, Paul Drayton and Hayes in the 400-meter relay. The Poles' only victory came in the hammer throw by Olgierd Cieply.

Annie Oakley at the age of seven could handle a rifle so well that she was shooting quail to help feed her family. At the age of eleven she was hunting big game, and at seventeen she was starring in Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. . . . One of her favorite trick shots was to have the five of hearts held up at a distance of fifty feet and she would rapidly fire through each heart. Complimentary tickets to sporting events, theaters, etc. are called "Annie Oakley's" because they are similarly perforated.

At one time she had 5,000 pennies tossed in the air and she shot, or rather "hit," 4,777 of them. At the age of sixty-three, she could still hit 100 clay targets in succession from a distance of sixteen yards. . . .
