

Bloodmobile Visit Slated in Glendale

By MRS. GERALD B. FOX
Glendale residents are reminded that the Red Cross Bloodmobile will be in Glendale on Thursday, August 1, from 3 to 6 p.m. at the Masonic Temple.

Resident Hospitalized
Donald Harbour is in Josephine General Hospital in Grants Pass for treatment of third degree burns suffered in a welding accident recently.

Mrs. Clemmie Smart of Okolona, Ark., who is here visiting with her children and their families, visited recently, also, with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnston of Glendale. Mrs. Smart and Mrs. Johnston were school girls together in Oklahoma.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hicks of Harmon, Ill., aunt and uncle of Mrs. Clyde Marriott, are here for a week's visit. They were accompanied by their daughter, a grandniece, also of Harmon.

Mrs. Emma Smith, formerly a member of the Glendale Elementary School faculty, has accepted a position on the faculty of the Seaside Schools for next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lee and children of Prineville, former Glendale residents, visited over the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Starline Lee and other members of the family.

Club Makes Plans

Members of the FL Club at a recent meeting made plans for assisting during the visit of the Bloodmobile on Aug. 1. Another activity planned was the painting of the 1007 Hall in preparation for the Rebeekah convention to be held in Glendale in the fall.

The club's monthly Well Child Clinic will be resumed in September, it was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Marriott of Fresno, Calif., parents of Clyde Marriott, have arrived to spend the remainder of the summer in their house on property they own at the old Highway Junction.

Frank Elst and Ethel Harris have returned from spending a week as counselors at the 4-H camp for younger club members at Camp Myrtlewood, near Bridge.

Dear Abby!

She Wants A Choice!

—By ABIGAIL VANBUREN—

DEAR ABBY: Just before school was out my Dad asked my Mom for a divorce. Mom didn't want one, but they got divorced anyway. Now my brother gets to live with Mom and I have to live with Dad. All my friends got to choose which parent they wanted to live with when their parents broke up, but nobody even asked me. I think a 13-year-old girl should know what is best for her, but Mom says she knows better what is best for me. I don't want to live with my Dad. My mother is always yelling at me for something and we don't get along. Don't you think it should be MY choice?

DEAR ABBY: Arthur's idiot (who broke out in uncontrollable laughter every time he kissed her) brought back memories of myself. My husband and I eloped many years ago. We were young and didn't have much money. In fact, I had to dig into my purse to help pay for the blood tests. When the Justice of the Peace asked my husband if he would "shower all his worldly goods on me," I broke up in laughter and became so hysterical they had to hold me up.

DEAR ABBY: If you don't answer this right away I am going to have a nervous breakdown. I have been married for nine years and have three children. Out of the clear blue sky my sister, who is four years older than I am, said to me, "I wish you'd tell 'Baldy' (that's what she calls my husband) to keep his eyes off me." I told her she must be imagining things. When I mentioned this to my husband he said to forget it—that she was a trouble maker. My sister has never been married and claims she hates men. I can't get this out of my mind. How can I be sure?

DEAR NERVOUS: Believe your husband. And tell your sister the next time she catches your husband ogling her to direct her complaints to "Baldy" himself.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a guy who tells you that he loves you, and in the next breath he says he doesn't care if you go out with other guys?

DEAR GIRL: I think it is an angling for the same privilege. (Oh—GIRLS—not "GUYS.")

Inattention Was Asset

was looking for better things. He did not know exactly what was going on, but he assumed that his partner had heard the opening bid and East led the three of hearts.

South won and played the eight of clubs. West thought a while and decided to rise with the ace. Then West led the queen of hearts and South took his second high heart. Now South led a heart and ruffed in dummy, whereupon the roof fell on him. East overruffed with the nine and led a spade for West to ruff. West led a trump right back. As far as he knew his partner had opened the bidding and was clearly marked with good diamonds.

East took the trick with the king and gave his partner another spade ruff. This left poor South down one and he still had to lose a heart and a trump for an 800-point loss.

♥CARD Sense♥

Q—The bidding has been:
East South West North
1♦ 1♥ 1♠ 2♥
You, South, hold:
♠ A Q J 7 6 5 4 3 2
♥ A K 9 8 7
What do you do?

A—Bid four no-trump! If your partner holds an ace you want to play the hand at six. If he doesn't hold an ace the chances are that you would be forced to five hearts in any event.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of bidding two spades East jumps to four spades. What do you do now?
