

Rail Union Head Urges Rejection Of Kennedy Plan To End Dispute

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A rail union spokesman said today that the railroad dispute is not nearly as hopeless as the public has been led to believe.

Roy E. Davidson, head of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, urged Congress to allow union and management to proceed with collective bargaining and to reject President Kennedy's proposal for solving the controversy.

Davidson insisted that collective bargaining had been "virtually untried" during the four-year-old dispute.

"To the small extent that it has been used," he told the House Commerce Committee, "it has brought this dispute close to peaceful negotiated resolution."

Practically No Dispute

The rail industry, which supports the Kennedy plan to turn over the dispute to the Interstate Commerce Commission, has said practically no progress has been made in talks on the key issues.

Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz continued mediation efforts in the snarl during the weekend without any reported break in the stalemate. The renewed mediation efforts were suspended after sessions Sunday.

Davidson testified at the fourth day of House hearings on the President's proposal to resolve the problem.

Denouncing the administration plan as having the other rail union leaders, Davidson said:

"...it would be hard to conceive a proposal more unsatisfactory to railway labor, more fraught with danger to our freedom, or less likely to result in ultimate harmony and cooperation between railway management and railway labor."

Asks Alternative

AFL-CIO President George Meany has urged Congress to adopt an alternative to the Kennedy proposal. Meany has suggested that a special committee of House and Senate members be set up to oversee a new round of "glass bowl" negotiations to work out the tangle on rail work rules.

Meany was expected to testify this afternoon on his plan before the Senate Commerce Committee.

Davidson stressed several times his belief that full-fledged collective bargaining had not been fully utilized and was the only proper solution to the problem.

"Despite the carriers' public utterances to the contrary," he said, "there has been considerable progress toward the settlement of this dispute and—under the surface—the dispute is not nearly so hopeless as it might seem to the public."

'Old Bailey' Courtroom Stunned By Abrupt End To Ward Defense

LONDON (UPI)—Dr. Stephen Ward abruptly rested his defense on morals charges today with a plea against being made a sacrifice to the public demand for punishment of those responsible for Britain's sex scandal.

The case is expected to go to the jury Tuesday after summations by the defense and prosecution followed by the charge to the jury by Justice Sir Archie Marshall.

Defense counsel James Burgess stumped the courtroom in Old Bailey by announcing the end of his case this morning without calling any of the major "surprise" witnesses promised when the trial opened a week ago.

Despite hints of famous names to come the only defense witness today was a young advertising executive who said he picked up playgirl Christine Keeler, 21, in a coffee bar and had relations with her at Dr. Ward's flat, but not for cash.

Begins Summation

Then Burgess turned to the jury of 11 men and one woman to begin his summation on the general theme that Ward was simply a man who found his own particular fountain of youth was to surround himself with pretty girls—and what was wrong with that?

"But," the attorney went on, "if you are there to make sure the public conscience, shocked by a major scandal should be appeased and a penalty should be paid, then you could hardly find a more suitable object for expiation than the accused who has admitted he is a loose liver whose conduct has been such as to deprive him of sympathy from any quarter."

But he vigorously denied that the 30-year-old society osteopath and artist had been guilty either of living on immoral earnings or of procuring young girls for men in high places—the charges against him which carry a possible maximum of 25 years in prison on conviction.

No "Babes in Woods"

Burgess said that neither Miss Keeler, 21, nor her colleague, Marilyn (Mandy) Rice-Davies, 18, were "babes in the woods" when Ward befriended them, but there was a vast difference between being promiscuous and being a prostitute.

Miss Rice-Davies has claimed affairs with film and television star Douglas Fairbanks Jr., and Viscount Astor who have denied it.

Miss Keeler's simultaneous romances with war minister John Profumo and Soviet naval attaché Capt. Eugene Ivanov led to Profumo's resignation in disgrace and a House of Commons debate on security which almost toppled the government.

Various Crimes Get Attention Of Local Police Over Weekend

Roseburg City Police had a busy time over the weekend taking several persons into custody for various offenses.

Officers got a call to SE Cass Ave. at SE Rose St., where some men were observed tearing down a stop sign, which was tossed against a building about 4 a.m. today.

Based on a description of witnesses, officers took into custody Kenneth Marion Couey, 27, of 393 NW Sweetbriar, who was lodged on a charge of being drunk on a public street and injury and removal of public property, and Richard Dean Drake, 26, of 402 NW Jackson, also charged with injury and removal of public property. A third man with them was not held.

Report also was made to police that an awning was torn down at the Harris Cafe, and investigation is being made.

There was a party in the area, all right, police said. They got other calls of goings on in the neighborhood, and several young people were chased from the vicinity by residents.

Man Booked

Other arrests by city police include Edward Ellis Scott, 24, of 271 NE Stephens St., who was booked for drunken driving. He was taken into custody on SE Pine St. near Rice. Arrested with him was Billy Ray Roberson of Winston, charged with being drunk in an auto. They told officers they were on their way home from a party.

John Robert Gibson, 19, a nd Grady Wayne Snelling, 18, both of Merlin, were taken into custody as being minors in possession of alcoholic beverages. They told the officers they purchased beer at a local market. The clerk at the market admitted selling them the beer, but stated one of them showed a card identifying him as 21 and that he had signed an Oregon Liquor Control Commission card as to age.

Two juveniles were taken into custody Saturday for shoplifting, and turned over to juvenile officers.

Police Jail Race Demonstrators In California, Virginia Cities

By United Press International

About 125 Negroes and whites protesting segregation were arrested Sunday in demonstrations in California and Virginia.

It was a relatively quiet Sunday on the racial front with arrest-producing protests reported only in Danville, Va.; Farmville, Va.; and Torrance, Calif. Demonstrations also were staged in Denver, Colo., and Pine Bluff, Ark., but no arrests were reported in those cities.

Danville police, sweltering in 102-degree heat, intercepted 77 Negroes marching on city hall and loaded them into paddy wagons and a tractor-trailer when they sprawled out on the pavement.

Negroes had promised to defy a city anti-march injunction with a march by thousands but the demonstration fell far short of the promise.

At Farmville, Va., about 50 miles from Danville, 22 Negroes who attempted to attend services at a white-only church were arrested on charges of "interfering with church worship."

Torrance, Calif., police, aided by mounted deputies, arrested 24 pickets protesting alleged racial discrimination at an all-white housing tract. The pickets, members of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), were charged with aiding, abetting and counseling other demonstrators who staged sit-down protests the day before.

At Denver, heavyweight boxing champion Sonny Liston appeared briefly at a civil rights march urging support of President Kennedy's civil rights legislation and about 25 Negroes were chased outside a segregated hamburger stand in Pine Bluff, Ark., when a white youth tossed ammonia into the small building.

There were these other racial developments:

Ocala, Fla.—Police sought two white men witnesses said fired shotgun blasts into the home of integration leader Dr. L. R. Hampton. No one was injured.

Philadelphia—Postmaster Anthony I. Lambert warned that picketing threatened by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) could lead to federal violations. The NAACP has threatened to picket Philadelphia's main post office today to protest alleged promotion discrimination against Negro postal employees.

Vicksburg, Miss.—An official of the Louisiana Mississippi Arkansas Ku Klux Klan called for mass demonstrations and outdoor rallies by segregationists to counter Negro civil rights demonstrations.

Plywood Plant Fire Is Doused

A fire of undetermined origin broke out at the National Plywood Co. plant on Highway 99 BR south of Roseburg early Saturday evening, but caused no extensive damage. An official of the firm said operations were continuing as normal this morning.

The Roseburg Rural Fire Department answered the call at 6:56 p.m. Saturday when the fire broke out in the vicinity of the repair shop and log slip.

Both the Rural and Roseburg City Fire Departments had several grass fires over the weekend.

The two departments joined forces on mutual aid calls on grass fires near Hucrest School twice Saturday afternoon. The first fire was in the rural district and the second in the city.

The city department also answered a grass and rubbish fire call at 2754 NE Douglas, about 12:05 p.m. Saturday.

The rural department answered a call at 4:32 p.m. Sunday when 2½ acres of grass were burned near the department's substation in the Green area.

Two of the grass fires answered by the rural department were started by persons burning without permits, assistant chief Bud Wheeler said. One was on highway 99 BR south near the Highway Department scales and the other behind the Hucrest School.

The rural department was called to the home of J. W. Francoeur on River Bend Road when a lawnmower caught on fire, causing $160 damage.

Fire Destroys Cabins On Little River Road

A fire of undetermined origin destroyed two cabins and a garage on Little River Road Sunday night, reports Glide correspondent Mrs. Arthur Selby.

The cabins were owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Watson of Little River. Occupants of the cabins were not home at the time.

The cabins and garage were rented by three Fugate families, including Mr. and Mrs. Woody Fugate and their seven children, ranging in ages from 2 to 18.

The cabins were located on the Little River Road about 13 miles south of the North Umpqua Highway and one mile past the Christian Church Camp.

The Watson family discovered the blaze and called the Glide Ranger Station. Fire fighters Charles Bechtel, Ken Dalquist and Carl Varner were rushed to the scene, and at the same time, the Douglas Forest Protective Association was called. Firemen battled the blaze until 2:30 a.m. A forest service man was left on the job to mop up.

One cabin was saved, and the fire was kept in bounds until firemen arrived by the quick action of the Watsons' son, Bob, who cleared a firebreak around the cabins.

A neighbor, Mrs. Harry Branson, said the Fugates were away for the evening when the fire started. The Woody Fugate family has moved into an apartment across the road from the Greenwood Lunch. All furniture and clothing was lost, Mrs. Branson said anyone wishing to donate articles may leave them at the store or at the Glide Ranger Station.

Carl Williams Named To Local Highway Post

Carl M. Williams, district maintenance superintendent for the State Highway Department in The Dalles, is being promoted to assistant division engineer in Roseburg.

The announcement was made by Forrest Cooper, state highway engineer in Salem.

The new position will involve responsibility for assisting in the direction of all engineering and maintenance functions for Southwestern Oregon.

Williams is a Purdue University graduate, who had considerable private engineering experience before joining the department in 1954. He is a registered professional engineer who has served with the department at Newport, McMinnville, Sealm and Lakeview before going to The Dalles in 1961.

DFFA Answers Three Alarms Over Weekend

The Douglas Forest Protective Association answered three calls over the weekend.

The first was on Saturday four miles up Quines Creek and was confined to some old logs. It was started by a camper. The Quines Creek crew and one tanker extinguished the blaze.

Another fire Saturday, grass and brush, at Schrieker's auction barn near Sutherland burned an eight-acre area. The Roseburg DFFA crew with the help of local residents put out the blaze. Cause was unknown.

On Sunday, a fire of unknown cause burned over a tenth of an acre of old logs in an area one mile north of the Scotts Valley Junction. The Yellow Butte lookout spotted the blaze, and the call was answered by the Elkhead crew.

Drain Area Notes 15th Anniversary

For 15 years, Drain area people have enjoyed some of the county's finest recreational facilities at the North Douglas Living War Memorial. The swimming pool, in particular, has afforded pleasure to thousands.

Sunday was the date chosen to commemorate the 15th anniversary of the memorial's dedication. Paul O. Cormier directed the program.

An estimated 300 people turned out for the program which began with a group in the pool displaying sheets of Myers spelling out "Hello."

Tom Myers, Drain's mayor, was master of ceremonies. He introduced some of the men who made the memorial park a reality. These were Jim and Ernie Whipple, Harold Woolley and Ed Wetzel, took part in the anniversary celebration.

The program, which lasted for two hours, had among its features swim group from the Central and YWCA in Eugene which had several water ballet-type numbers.

"Teaching Johnny To Swim" was demonstrated by Jean Mill, swimming instructor. She showed the method she uses to make the beginner into a swimmer.

Other exhibitions included those from the swimming and diving teams.

Music was furnished by a Yoncalla combo, "The Safari 7."

The program concluded with the original group displaying markers forming an American Flag.

The Lions Club barbecue, beginning at 7, topped off the memorial celebration.

Winners Picked For Legion Play

By United Press International

Teams from Salem, The Dalles and Portland collected berths in the Oregon American Legion junior baseball semifinals Sunday.

The fourth entry will be decided tonight when Klamath Falls plays at Roseburg. Each team has won one game in the best-of-three series.

Salem's Capital Post 9 smashed Albany 15-2 Sunday night to complete the two-game sweep of that series. The win put Salem into the semifinals opposite the Klamath-Roseburg winner.

The Dalles made it two in a row over Pendleton, 15-10, Sunday and will play Sargeant's Construction (Madison High) of Portland in the other semifinal. Sargeant beat Watco Electric (Cleveland) 4-1 Sunday.

Klamath Falls took an 8-3 decision over Roseburg Sunday night to even that series after Roseburg won 2-1 Saturday.

Mrs. Hildeburn Bridge Winner

Mrs. Harry Hildeburn of 813 SE Mosher Ave., Roseburg, shared in a one-session championship round in the 35th Summer National Contract Bridge Championships of the American Contract Bridge League Saturday night.

The championships are being held at the Hotel Biltmore in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Hildeburn was teamed with Mrs. C. Methvin of San Joaquin, Calif. The two claimed top score in their section.

Tournament will end Sunday afternoon with competition during which three major titles and a score of lesser championships will be decided.

Lot Lee Bowls

Graveside services for Lot Lee Bowls are slated at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday in Mountain View Cemetery at Oakland, Calif.

Bowls, of Box 137, Winchester, died Friday night at Riversdale Sanitarium. He was 96.

The deceased had resided at Winchester for the past 10 years. He was born Dec. 22, 1866, in Lewis town, Mo.

Surviving are a son, Calvert Bowles, of Oakland, Ore., and one stepson, Barton Slane, of Winchester.

Sutherland-Oakland Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

Lloyd Neil Taylor

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday in Long & Shukle Memorial Chapel for Lloyd Neil Taylor, 58-year-old Leaburg resident who died Friday following a sudden illness.

Two daughters of the deceased reside in Roseburg.

Dr. Eugene Gerlitz of the Roseburg First Baptist Church will officiate. Private cremation will follow at Rest Haven Memorial Park in Eugene.

Taylor was born June 17, 1905, at Alesia, Ore. He had resided the past 16 years at Leaburg where he worked for the Oregon Fish Commission. He previously resided at Mapleton.

Surviving are his wife, Margaret, of Leaburg; two daughters, Mrs. Billy Rae Wooden and Mrs. Eleanor Gay Sweet, both Roseburg; his father, Chesney Taylor of Leaburg; a brother, Alvin Taylor, of Toledo, Ore.; two sisters, Mrs. Blanche Applegate and Mrs. Velma Preston, both of Milton-Freewater; and five grandchildren.

Galveston Bay Claims Portland Man Sunday

GALVESTON, Tex. (UPI)—Stanley N. Trelawny, 43, of Portland, Ore., Sunday became the second Galveston Bay drowning victim in a week.

He was discovered floating in the water by a bather.

Mrs. Trelawny, who had been changing clothes in the family car nearby, came upon rescue workers trying to revive her husband. Justice of the Peace, James L. McKenna has ordered an autopsy in the death, the 18th drowning of the year in the bay.

Pernella T. Kirkelie

Pernella T. Kirkelie, 69, of Yoncalla, died at the Cottage Grove Hospital Thursday, July 25.

Funeral services were held Saturday at the Yoncalla Methodist Church, with the Rev. J. T. Sorlem officiating. Interment was in the Yoncalla Masonic Cemetery. Mills Mortuary of Drain and Cottage Grove was in charge.

Mrs. Kirkelie was born Pernella Trasad April 10, 1884, at Harmony, Minn. She was married Nov. 13, 1921, to Charles Kirkelie. He died in 1962. They came to Yoncalla from Compton, Calif., 32 years ago. She was a member of the Lutheran Church.

Surviving are an aunt and several cousins.

Burning Restrictions Effective In Roseburg

Burning restrictions went into effect today for Roseburg.

Fire Chief LeRoy Seibold said burning by permit will be allowed only before 10 a.m. and after 7 p.m. This is to reduce to possibility of fire outbreak from permit burning during the hot part of the day.

The chief said the restrictions stem from a rash of weekend fires. He said the fire hazard is becoming more severe as evidenced by the fast rate of travel detected in the grass fires. The weekend fires, he noted, were non-permit outbreaks.

Fire permits may be obtained by contacting the city Fire Department.

Guy Griswold

Guy Griswold, about 60, of Newport, long time employe of the Oregon Liquor Commission, died suddenly Sunday about midnight at a Newport Hospital of a heart attack.

Griswold, who was a sergeant with the Salem district, had worked in this area in connection with his employment and was known here by law enforcement agencies. He was at one time chief of police at Newport and a Lincoln County deputy sheriff.

He leaves a wife and two daughters. Services will be at 11 a.m. Tuesday at a Newport funeral home, it was reported.
