Logging Activities At Tiller Of Interest To Montanans

By MRS. MILTON HAMMERSLY

Following a three-week visit at the C. J. Porter home at Tiller, Mrs. Porter's cousins, Donna and Virginia Shaak, left by plane from Roseburg for their home near Billings, Mont., last week. The teenagers, were fascinated by local scenery and particularly the sight of logging trucks, according to Mrs. Porter, recording on movie film the parade of trucks, some of the highlights of their Tiller visit.

Mid-West Folks Here

Mrs. Hillard M. Lillgren and daughter, Sandra, drove to Eugene recently where they met the former's mother and niece, Mrs. E. G. King and Susan Francis, who arrived by train from their homes in Minneapolis, Minn., for a visit at the Lillgren home at the Tiller Ranger Station. Thursday, the foursome made a trip to Glendale for a visit with Susan's brother, Stephen, who is employed for the summer on a Forest Service engineering crew.

Fred Lauffer, Oregon State University sophomore, stopped for a brief visit recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Eriebach. The visitor is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Lauffer and a descendant of early residents of Tiller whose homestead was enveloped by the growth of the Tiller community.

A billfold lost by Charles Collins a year ago was turned up recently when his son, Charles, was cultivating the family garden. When found, the contents were intact except for some weather damage.

School Reunion Attended

Mrs. Ira B. Poole of Tiller joined other members of her family, including Mr. and Mrs. John Hamlin of Canyonville, Frank Hamlin of Madras and Mrs. David L. Taylor and family of Eugene, to attend the Smick School reunion held Sunday at O. C. Brown Park near Dixonville. Mrs. Poole and Mrs. Taylor, the former Eva and Verna Hamlin, and their brothers are former pupils at the school. Also attending from Tiller were Mr. and Mrs. Anton Eriebach, the latter a teacher some 35 years ago at the country school then located between Roseburg and Dixonville.

Mrs. John O. Wilson and Ricky enjoyed a three-day trip to the Willamette valley area last week and were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heizer and sons of McKenzie Bridge. The principal purpose of the trip was to attend a reunion of former Oakridge residents held at the Ranger Station at Mill City. In the afternoon, they were joined by Mrs. William E. Lewellen who with her family moved from Days Creek to Mill City last month when her husband assumed principalship of the school there.
