Roseburg Legion Wins Area 4 Championship

WINNING PITCHER Dick Williams was lifted high off his feet by happy teammates Monday night as he completed striking out the side in the ninth inning to pace Lockwood Motors to a 2-0 win over Klamath Falls. Williams struck out 17. Third baseman Jerry Boucock (12) and Jim Beamer (behind Williams) hoist the winner off the ground, as first baseman Dave Sevall rushes in to join the happy throng. (Photo by Bob Leber)

Mulligans Cop Kart Honors

The Darrell Mulligan family from Springfield had a field day at the Tri-City Kart Track Sunday, winning first place honors in three events.

Darrell Mulligan tied with Dick Allen of Reedsport in the Group One competition. Lynn Mulligan won first place in the junior boys division and Beverly Mulligan captured first place in Group Two.

Dick Allen's wife Evie picked up a second-place trophy in Group Two, to account for another family winning.

The only Roseburg drivers to capture honors were Neal Flanagan and Clarence Silvers, who finished first and second in Group Three. Donna Brock of Eugene tied with Silvers for the second-place slot.

In the junior boys division, Dan Koeks of Springfield finished second and Bill Savard of Medford came in third. George Wilkinson of Eugene placed third in the Group Two action.

Top times among the 31 cars entered were 24.5, coming for Darrell Mulligan in the adult division and for Jerry Cordray in the juniors division.

Among the highlight's of the races, sponsored by the Roseburg Slo-Karts, was a collision between Orville Cornett of Roseburg and Charles Cutting of Eugene in the fourth lap of the first heat in Group Two. Cutting's kart was flipped over and he suffered from several asphalt burns and was unable to continue the race. Cornett got cleared away and went back to finish the race.

Also in the Group Two races, T. E. Kerwood of Medford went off the track, flipping his kart over three times and ending up in the pit area during the first lap of the second heat. Kerwood was not injured, but had to repair his kart and engine. He raced in the next two heats.

Wayne Denny of Eugene, in Group One, lost control of his kart, running into the fence during the fifth lap of the first heat. Denny was not injured, but was unable to finish the races because of engine trouble.

The next races will be Aug. 11.

AREA FOUR CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHY is held by Lockwood Motors coach Bill Harper, as he shakes hands with pitcher Dick Williams and offers a big grin to centerfielder Bob Manning. The Lockwoods downed the Klamath Falls Falcons 2-0 at Legion Field Monday night to claim the area championship and the right to meet Salem starting Thursday night in the state quarterfinals. Williams was the winning pitcher and Manning the leading hitter. (Photo by Bob Leber)

Dick Williams Paces Victory By Striking Out 17 Batters

By BILL SPARKS
News-Review Sports Writer

Dick Williams stepped onto the mound at Roseburg's Legion Field Monday night when all the chips were down and electrified 2,321 fans by pitching the game of his life to blank the Klamath Falls Falcons 2-0 and give Lockwood Motors the Area 4 American Legion Junior Baseball Championship.

The defendin state champion Lockwoods will face Salem at Legion Field Thursday, Friday and Saturday (if needed) in the state semifinals. All will be night games and reserved tickets for season ticket holders go on sale at 10 a.m. Wednesday at Coen Supply.

The fast-balling right hander turned in the greatest performance of his career as he struck out 17 Klamath Falls batters, including striking out the side in the tension-packed ninth inning. Williams gave up only four hits and one walk as he had his fast ball humming past the Falcon batters and his curve nipping at the corners of the plate throughout the night.

In addition to fanning the 17, Williams threw out four runners as he fielded brilliantly from the mound, took one on a slow hopper and outraced the runner to the bag and took a throw from first baseman Dave Sevall on a grounder for another out. And at the plate, he worked Falcon pitcher Jim Jackson for a walk in the bottom of the sixth inning and raced home on a wild pitch later on to score the Lockwoods' first run.

Both Lockwood runs came in the sixth inning, as Bob Manning pounded out his second hit of the night, a line drive single between third and short after Williams had scored. Manning stole second and scored when Jim Beamer laced a line shot single through the same hole between third and short.

Monday night was the now-or-never game for the Lockwoods, as they had come down to the wire in their best two-out-of-three playoff with the Falcons. They had edged the Falcons 2-1 on a brilliant 19-strike out performance by lefty Ran Cool Saturday night and then dropped an 8-3 decision at Klamath Falls on Sunday.

With all the chips on the table, coach Bill Harper once again called on Williams to stop the Falcons. He had beaten them 13-1 in the playoffs last year to claim the area crown.

Williams issued four hits Monday night, all of the scratch variety. The first was a looping fly ball over third by Larry Binney in the first inning. Next came a high hopper by LeVoy Young in the third that came down slow enough to allow the fleet Young to beat the throw to first. Then in the ninth, Lanny Guyer hit a slow roller to third and beat the throw to first and Mike Kitching followed up by bouncing one over the first baseman's head.

But when he had to be tough, Williams was tough. He struck out the side in the first, second and ninth innings and racked up a pair of strike outs in the fourth, fifth and seventh.

Manning led the defending state champions at the plate, as he broke the ice in the bottom of the fourth by blasting a 1-0 pitch 350 feet off the right field fence for a triple. Jim Beamer came within a few feet of putting the Lockwoods ahead 2-0 at that point when he flied deep to left to end the inning.

Williams started the rally in the sixth by working loser Jim Jackson for a walk. Mike Blomberg then stepped in and laid down a perfect sacrifice bunt to move Williams to second. Artie McDonald struck out, but the Falcon catcher dropped the third strike, and when he threw to first to get McDonald, Williams moved on to third. Jackson then threw a wild pitch, allowing Williams to score the first run of the game.

Then it was Manning's turn to wield the power bat again, as he singled, stole second and scored on Beamer's single. Roseburg's other hit was a line single over the shortstop's head by second base man Mike Markham in the bottom of the seventh.

Monday night's vital win gave Williams a 10-2 record for the season and boosted the team record to 42 won and eight lost.

Salem will come into town Thursday night sporting a 33-3 record. One of their losses was a 2-1 decision to Klamath Falls in 12 innings.

Early indications are Salem coach Al Geddes will call on lefty Jim McCandlish to pitch the first game. McCandlish has an 11-0 season's record. Other pitching records are right-hander Ron Morgan, 10-2, right-hander Loren Whittaker, 7-0 and Lefty Ed Albers, 7-0.

Salem defeated Albany 2-1 in 11 innings Saturday night and 15-2 Sunday to win the Area 3 championship. The Dalles won the Area 1 crown and Sergeant Construction won the Area 2 (Portland) title.

In the hitting department, Salem will be paced by first baseman Walt Looney, hitting about .375, center fielder Jeff Lankow, .350, shortstop Lute Barnes, .370 and third baseman Rich Quackenbush, a long-ball hitter currently batting .275.

KLAMATH FALLS	AB	R	H	ROSEBURG	AB	R	H
Binney	4	0	1	Blomberg	3	0	0
Young	4	0	1	McDonald	4	0	0
Suyer	4	0	1	Manning	3	1	2
Kitching	4	0	1	Beamer	3	0	1
Parisotto	4	0	0	Morrison	3	0	0
Paxton	3	0	0	Markham	3	0	1
Johnson	3	0	0	Sevall	1	0	0
Gray	2	0	0	Boucock	3	0	0
L. Jackson	3	0	0	Williams	2	1	0
TOTALS	31	4	4	TOTALS	25	2	4

Klamath Falls 000 000 000—0 4 1
Roseburg 000 002 00x—2 4 2

Batteries: Klamath Falls, Jim Jackson and Paxton; Roseburg, Williams and Beamer.

American League Pitching Shines In Monday's Action

By MILTON RICHMAN
UPI Sports Writer

Notice how those American League managers always are crying about lousy pitching?

Notice, too, how they're not saying one single word today?

They couldn't possibly, because they wouldn't have a leg to stand on after one look at Monday night's boxscores.

For example:

—Robin Roberts and Mickey Lolich tangled in a pair of two-hitters until Dick Brown hit a pinch two-run homer with two out in the ninth for a 2-1 Baltimore victory over Detroit.

—Joel Horlen hurled hitless ball for 8 1-3 innings, then wound up losing a two-hitter when Don Lock's two-run homer with two out in the ninth brought Washington a 2-1 win over Chicago.

—Dean Chance of Los Angeles held Cleveland hitless until the seventh and settled for a two-hit 11-0 victory.

Radatz Shines Again

Dick Radatz came up with another one of his brilliant relief jobs to nail down a 7-5 triumph for Boston over Minnesota and Dave Wickersham of Kansas City pitched his first major league shutout to stop the Yankees, 5-0, in the other AL games.

Over in the National League, the Los Angeles Dodgers checked a four-game losing streak with a 6-2 win over the Philadelphia Phillies, the Milwaukee Braves beat the Cincinnati Reds, 8-2, and the San Francisco Giants won their eighth straight with a 5-4 decision over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Roberts' two-hit victory over the Tigers was the 253rd of his major league career and his ninth of the year for the Orioles. Lolich had a one-hitter and a 1-0 lead until pinch hitter Al Smith singled with one out in the ninth.

The Detroit rookie then got Luis Aparicio on a fly ball but Brown came off the bench to deliver a two-run homer that dealt Lolich his sixth setback in 10 decisions.

Heart-Breaking Loss

Horlen's loss to the Senators was equally heart-breaking. Recalled from the minors last week, the White Sox righthander held Washington hitless until Chuck Hinton singled over second base with one out in the ninth.

Larry Osborne grounded out for the second out but Lock then drilled his 17th homer into the left field bullpen.

Lock's homer made a winner of knuckleballer Ronnie Kline, who relieved starter Steve Ridzik in the eighth.

The only Cleveland hits off Chance were Fred Whitfield's bloop single in the seventh and Woodie Held's single in the eighth after Los Angeles had already clinched the game with an eight-run rally in the third.

Felix Torres highlighted the Angels' outburst with a grandslam homer off Jerry Walker, who had relieved loser Dick Donovan. Chance struck out 12 batters and walked two in bringing his record to 10-10. Donovan now is 6-9.

Bill Monbouquette registered his 14th victory for the Red Sox although tagged for four homers by the Twins. Radatz came to Monbouquette's rescue in the eighth and struck out three of the six batters he faced.

Loser Jim Perry ran into a five-run Boston rally in the first, marked by Dick Stuart's 22nd homer with two on and Ed Bressoud's 13th homer with the bases empty. Roman Mejias doubled home two more runs for the Red Sox in the third. Bob Allison hit his 23rd homer for the Twins, Earl Battey his 21st, Vic Power his sixth and Don Mincher his 10th before Radatz made his 44th appearance of the season.

Wayne Causey's two-run homer in the first inning and Norm Siebern's three-run blow in the sixth settled matters between the A's and Yankees. Both blows came off Al Downing, who went down to his third loss in nine decisions. Wickersham scattered eight hits for his eighth victory and for KC's first shutout against the Yankees since Aug. 31, 1960.

McKays Drop 2 Loop Tilts

McKay Drugs lost two games in the Twilight softball league last weekend, as they were edged 3-2 by the Winston Merchants Friday night and downed 12-3 by Suiter's Saturday.

The win for the Winston team was its second of the year, giving it a victory in its first and last games. Everett Carleton was on the mound for Winston and held McKay's to one hit, a single by John Pardon.

Mike Hilt rapped out two hits in three trips to the plate for Winston.

On Saturday, Suiter's broke the game wide open in the fifth and sixth inning by exploding for seven runs. In the hitting department, for Suiter's, Lennie Floth went two for five, Jim Taylor three for five, Leonard Floth Sr. two for four, Les Forney two for three, and Butch Richardson two for four, including a triple.

Jim Taylor, pitching his first game of the year, picked up the victory by striking out seven and walking five, while giving up only three hits to McKays.

Mock Motors won the Twilight league championship Saturday by defeating Suiters 4-3.

LINESCORES:

Suiters	212 034 0	12-13
McKays	200 010 0	3- 3

Batteries: Suiters, Taylor and Cummings; McKays, Bray, Fennell (4) and Pardon.

Winston	200 100 0
McKays	000 110 0

Batteries: Winston, Carleton and Wesley; McKays, Hesselgesser and Pardon.

Champion Races Scheduled Here

Roseburg Speedway has been selected for the site of the two-day Pacific Northwest stock hardtop championship race on Aug. 24 and 25.

Don Hein, president of the Pacific Racing Association, said today that hardtops from all the western states will be represented at the event, which will guarantee a purse of at least $2,000 or 50 per cent of the gate, whichever is larger. A Seattle racing association has already indicated their intention of entering at least 10 of their top cars and drivers in the contest, and entry forms are being sent to individual drivers throughout the northwest and into Canada.

The cars will time in for position in the usual manner, but only the top 32 cars and drivers will be eligible to compete in the main events with a consolation race being held for those unable to time in under a specified time.

The event is sanctioned by the Roseburg Junior Chamber of Commerce, and reserve seat tickets will go on sale within the next few days.

North Roseburg Faces BLM Today

North Roseburg Church tries tonight to break back into the win column when it meets the Bureau of Land Management on the Veterans Administration diamond at 6:30.

North Roseburg has had an up-and-down month in which it has won one and lost two. It lost to St. Joseph's, 11-8 and the Veterans Administration Patients, 10-6, while winning one from the Conservative Baptists, 6-4. Its last outing was the loss to the VA Patients.

Arnold Palmer Adds To His Winnings By Taking Western Open In Playoffs

CHICAGO (UPI) — Usually a bogey won't win a duffer a beer, but for pro golf's leading money winner, Arnold Palmer, a bogey was good for $11,000 and the Western Open championship.

Palmer won with a bogey because Julius Boros got a double bogey. The third playoff contestant, Jack Nicklaus, also got a bogey.

The over-all performance of the trio on the 205-yard 17th hole at Beverly Country Club Monday may have been the worst ever on network television or in the final round of a $57,200 tournament.

Palmer, who wound up with a one-under-par 70 for the 6,867-yard course, said he had "seen worse," however. Boros finished with a 71 and Nicklaus with a 73.

Palmer, who said he played "pretty well for 13 holes—and then I wasn't too sharp," started the 17th tied with Boros at two under par, with Nicklaus even par.

Palmer hit into a trap and Boros into the rough behind the green. Nicklaus' tee shot stopped five feet from the pin.

Palmer's blast from the trap went 35 feet past the pin and Boros dubbed his approach and his ball stopped 22 feet short of the flag. Both missed their first putts.

This set up a situation in which there could have been a three-way deadlock if each player sank his next putt. Instead, Nicklaus missed and three-putted for his four. Palmer sank his putt for the bogey. Boros, barely 18 inches from the flag, missed and three-putted for a five.

This hole wrapped up Palmer's sixth tourney championship of the year. On the 18th he parred, missing a 12-foot birdie putt, but Boros missed his birdie try from seven feet to lose his comeback chance.

The trio tied for first place after the regulation 72 holes with 280, four under par, to set up the playoff.

Palmer's victory increased his 1963 earnings to $96,955.

Both Boros and Nicklaus earned $4,450 for the round with Nicklaus increasing his 1963 earnings to $79,590 and Boros to $69,996 to run two-three behind Palmer. The trio contributed their 50 per cent of the day's gate receipts to the Chick Evans caddie fund.

It was Palmer's sixth win in 11 playoffs and the second playoff defeat for both of his opponents, in four tries for Nicklaus and five for Boros. It was the seventh playoff in 30 tournaments on the PGA tour and the fourth for Palmer in his last five tournaments.

Portland 9 Edges Tacoma In Pacific Coast Action

By United Press International

Even when the Spokane Indians are idle, they pick up ground in the Pacific Coast League chase.

The Indians stretched their northern division lead to 6½ games when Portland edged second place Tacoma 3-2 in a sharp pitching duel between Monty Monteagudo of the Beavers and Ron Herbel of the Tacomans.

In other action Monday night, Salt Lake edged San Diego 9-7 and Seattle picked up a 10-4 decision over Hawaii. Everybody else took a break, but all 10 teams are in action again tonight.

Monteagudo helped his own cause at the plate in the contest at Portland. He singled in the third and came on Billy Harrell's double and also knocked in a run in the fourth win an infield single. Harrell's homer in the seventh put Portland ahead 3-0.

But in the ninth, Tim Talton and Gil Garrido singled. A sacrifice fly, a double by Jesus Alou, and a single by Joe Sparks made it 3-2.

The 19-year-old Monteagudo, now 9-10, increased his loop-leading strikeout total with 10 more. Herbel is now 12-10 for the Giants.

Salt Lake starter Cal Koonce was staked to leads of 7-2 and 9-4 by his heavy hitting mates and needed those runs when San Diego's Jim Saul whacked a three-run homer in the ninth. Fred Burdette, one of the league's sharpest relievers, came in to preserve the win.

Jesse White, Bob Will, Billy Cowan and Mack Kuykendall all belted two hits apiece for the winners, while San Diego's Rogelio Alvarez also hit a homer for the losers.

Seattle roared off to a five run lead in the first inning and then coasted in as Pete Smith and Hal Kolstad combined on a five-hitter.

Mel Nelson surrendered most of the Seattle runs and absorbed the defeat.

Dave Hall and Russ Gibson each knocked home two runs in the big first inning.

But the news was not all glum for the Islanders. In Honolulu, it was announced that the team surpassed its 1962 home attendance after just 54 dates this year.

A total of 151,832 csstomers have watched the team with 19 home games remaining. Last year, the club drew just 149,737.

General manager Lew Matlin said he is sure the club will surpass the 206,000 mark this season.

STANDINGS

PEE WEE STANDINGS
MAJOR LEAGUE

	W	L
Winchester Red Sox	7	0
High School Giants	5	2
Fullerton Reds	4	3
Green Huskies	2	5
Fullerton Phillies	2	5
Eastwood Orioles	1	6

Results:
Reds 6, Huskies 3
Red Sox 11, Orioles 0
Giants 7, Phillies 4

MINOR LEAGUE

	W	L
Fullerton Cubs	7	0
Eastwood Athletics	6	1
Winchester Senators	5	1
High School Pirates	4	3
Fullerton Colts	3	4
Fullerton Mets	3	4
Riverside Angels	3	4
High School Dodgers	3	4
Winchester White Sox	2	4
Riverside Indians	2	5
Eastwood Owls	2	5
Eastwood Vikings	1	6

Results:
Cubs 9, Mets 2
Colts 8, Owls 6
White Sox 5, Vikings 4
Athletics 7, Senators 0
Pirates 9, Angels 1
Dodgers 3, Indians 2

MIDGET LEAGUE

	W	L
High School Braves	7	0
Fullerton Cougars	5	1
Winchester Wildcats	4	2
Eastwood Bulldogs	4	3
Riverside Yankees	3	3
Eastwood Twins	3	3
Riverside Tigers	3	3
Fullerton Bearcats	2	4
High School Cardinals	2	4
Winchester Wolves	2	5
Green Rams	0	7

Results:
Bearcats 9, Rams 6
Bulldogs 9, Wildcats 7
Twins 17, Wolves 1
Braves 5, Tigers 3
Yankees 17, Cardinals 3

BILLS BUY JACOBS

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) —Linebacker Harry Jacobs, who played three seasons for Boston, was purchased from the Patriots Friday night by the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League. It was a straight cash deal. Jacobs played his collegiate ball at Bradley.

Yank Trackmen Favored; Gals Are Underdogs Again

BRAUNSCHWEIG, Germany (UPI) — The touring United States women's track and field team takes on the German national team today in the opening of their two-day meet with the host nation favored to hand the Yank girls their third straight loss.

West German publications are predicting victory for their team and there is little to indicate that the German girls will fail. However, the American girls, who lost by a lopsided score to Russia and then made it close against Poland last weekend, were expected to make perhaps their best showing of the tour, although even American officials traveling with the team would not go so far as to predict a victory.

While the Yank girls were expected to take their third straight defeat their male counterparts are being counted on to beat the German men's team in the start of their dual competition at nearby Hannover Wednesday. Both the men's and women's competition is over two days and at different sites with the girls getting underway a day ahead of the men.

The American men are undefeated in two starts. They beat the Russians by just five points, 119-114, but routed the Poles, 125-83.

Sports Calendar

Tuesday
Babe Ruth Baseball
State Tournament
South Douglas All-Stars play first game at 4:30 p.m. at The Dalles.
Pee Wee Baseball
Regular schedule.
Softball
Church League
Conservative Baptists vs. St. Joseph's, 6:30 p.m., VA Diamond.
North Roseburg vs. BLM, Vet's Diamond, 6:30 p.m.

SEPTIC TANK INSTALLATION
Permanent CONCRETE TANKS
LAST A LIFETIME!
FOR FREE ESTIMATES CALL
PRE-MIX CONCRETE PIPE CO. Ph. 672-2694

Our
GM Factory Trained Mechanics
Will Do A Better Job Servicing Your
BUICK-PONTIAC or CADILLAC
Take Your Car "Home" For Service
ROSEBURG MOTORS
504 S. E. Rose 673-6651

Spahn Defeats Reds 8-2

By United Press International

Warren Spahn now ranks as the all-time left-handed strikeout king of the majors — but you'd better put an asterisk in front of that.

Until Friday, anyway.

That's when Milwaukee's superlative 42-year-old southpaw is due to work next and since he'll go against the Mets that night, he'll probably dispel any existing question.

Actually there should be no question even now. To all intents and purposes Spahn broke the strikeout record for left-handed pitchers by fanning five batters in an 8-2 victory over Cincinnati Monday night.

Those five strikeouts upped his major league total to 2,378. No argument there. But there is some argument over Rube Waddell's total.

Most record books say the former Philadelphia Athletics' southpaw struck out 2,375 batters during his career but in some books his total is listed at 2,381.

Ostensibly that was all settled 17 years ago when Bob Feller was officially recognized the single season record-holder after striking out 348 batters for Cleveland in 1946. Feller was acknowledged to have broken the record even though Waddel was credited with 349 strikeouts for the 1904 season in some books and 343 in others.

Those six strikeouts by Waddell are the same ones under question now even though it was all supposed to have been settled in 1946. According to the Little Red Book of Baseball, Waddell's total was 2,375. But some purists insist on going by "One for the Book," which lists Waddell's total as 2,381.

Regardless, Spahn has a much better chance of getting rid of his asterisk than Roger Maris has. All the veteran southpaw needs is four strikeouts against the Mets Friday night and he'll be the new record-holder in everybody's book.

Spahn held the Reds to six hits Monday night in posting the 340th victory of his major league career and his 13th triumph of the season compared with five defeats.

Hank Aaron's 30th homer of the season with one on and Lee Maye's eighth homer with one on, both off loser John Tsitouris in the first inning, proved enough margin for Spahn, who later yielded solo homers to Vada Pinson and Frank Robinson.

The Los Angeles Dodgers snapped their four-game losing streak and maintained their 4½ game lead with a 6-2 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies while the San Francisco Giants won their eighth straight by beating the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-4, in the only other National League action.

Sandy Koufax checked the Dodgers' backslide with a five-hitter over the Phils that earned him his 17th victory against four losses. Koufax struck out seven and walked four. Two-run homers by Tommy Davis and Willie Davis sent 37-year-old Cal McLish down to his sixth defeat compared with 10 victories.

Willie Mays' 24th homer with two on gave the Giants their victory over the Pirates and marked the third time within a week that Mays has delivered a game-winning homer. His blow wiped out a 3-2 deficit and came off Vern Law, who also gave up a solo homer to Chuck Hiller in the third.

Jim Duffalo, second of four Giant pitchers, was credited with the victory, his third without a defeat. The loss was the 10th straight for the Pirates at Candlestick Park dating back to last season.

In the American League, Baltimore shaded Detroit, 2-1, Boston downed Minnesota, 7-5, Los Angeles crushed Cleveland, 11-0, Washington beat Chicago, 2-1, and Kansas City blanked New York, 5-0.