Yost-Paulson Wedding Sunday

The Seventh-day Adventist Church on Garden Valley Blvd. was the scene of a lovely Sunday evening wedding when Miss Bernadine Louise Paulson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Paulson, became the bride of Jerry Marlyn Yost, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Yost of Medford. The impressive ceremony was read by Elder Duane Corwin, an Adventist evangelist friend of the families.

The church was tastefully decorated with brass candelabra and baskets of white stock and carnations. As the guests entered the church Miss Judy Yost, sister of the bridegroom, handed each a letter from the bride which called attention to the sacredness of the marriage ceremony and of marriage itself with a wish for each one's well being. Mrs. Delbert Parks, a cousin of the bride, was in charge of registering the guests.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in her white sheath gown of silk organza with full overskirt. Her elbow length veil was held in place by a tiara of flowers. The matron-of-honor was Mrs. JoAnn McBroom from Loma Linda, Calif., a college roommate. Bridesmaids were Beverly Paulson, a cousin, Nadine McCoy and Elizabeth Bright. Their street-length dresses were of aqua colored organza with back trim of a darker shade of the fabric. They carried nosegays of white carnations.

The bridegroom's attendants were Gerald Haeger, a college roommate, as best man, a brother, Gene Yost, and two cousins, Leonard and Rudy Yost. Burnell Paulson, brother of the bride, served as usher with Douglas Lockwood, Charles Brainard and the bridegroom's cousin, Monte Swanberg as helpers. Mrs. Alfred Paulson, the bride's paternal aunt, served as receptionist.

Bernie Paulson, brother of the bride, sang "Wedding Prayer" and "Whither Thou Goest." He was accompanied by Carol Cobb who also provided appropriate organ music for the service.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Paulson wore a pink lace sheath dress with pink and black accessories. Mrs. Yost chose a beige colored dress with beige and aqua accessories.

At the reception held in the YMCA reception hall Mrs. R. W. Pearson served as hostess. The beautiful white wedding cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Elvin Woods, a family friend, graced the lace-covered table and was flanked by candelabra. It was cut by Mrs. Weldon Fletcher of Myrtle Creek and Peggy Henderson from Ocean Lake. Mrs. Norman Nelson, aunt of the bride, and Louise Bright poured the punch. Mrs. Quintus Dickerson, another aunt, and Doreen Paulson, a cousin, opened and displayed the many lovely gifts. Elaine Swanberg, the bridegroom's aunt, provided background organ music. The bride's brothers, Burnell and Bernie, sang.

TO MARRY — Mr. and Mrs. Lester Spurgeon of Glendale announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Leslie Anne, to Richard King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Myers King of Kansas City, Mo. The bride-elect is with the Wells Fargo Bank of San Francisco and the bridegroom-elect is studying for his doctor's degree in biophysics at Berkeley, Calif. Mrs. Gary Bliss of Redding, Calif., was hostess at a delightful surprise party for her mother, Mrs. Virgil Jennie, at the Jennie home Friday evening.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bliss to Mr. and Mrs. Jennie, Mr. and Mrs. Paulus McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Blevens and Richard Blevens.

Bingham Family Feted At Party

Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Norris, 1744 NW Estelle, entertained at a charming outdoor party at their home Sunday night to honor Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bingham and son, Mike, who are moving to Eugene.

Late in the evening, guests enjoyed a buffet arranged inside. Floral decorations were white and salmon-colored gladioli.

Present for the affair were the Bingham family, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Crooch and Kathy, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hesselstine, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunning and Kathy, Mrs. H. S. Cain, Charles Norris and the host and hostess.

Grangers Enjoy Mock Wedding

Highlight of the evening's entertainment at the South Deer Creek Grange meeting Saturday evening was a mock wedding for Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hartz, honoring their 25th wedding anniversary. Naomi Murdock sang an appropriate song.

The wedding party consisted of Mrs. William Bailey, Mrs. Inez Stanchiff, Glen Murdock and Melvin McCord Jr.

A 25-year grange pin was presented to Melvin McCord following the program. Lovely refreshments of homemade ice cream and cake were served the large group in attendance.

Dakotans Picnic

About 50 residents and former residents of North Dakota enjoyed a picnic recently at Stewart Park.

According to the committee, it is planned to make the picnic an annual affair.

"NAVARRE HATH MADE A VOW, . . . No woman may approach his silent court," The Princess of France (Shirley Patton, Ashland), her Lord Bayet (Tom Vail, Portland), and her court have come to Navarre only to discover that the King has taken a vow of three years study and will impose a heavy penalty upon any woman who enters his kingdom, in this scene from "Love's Labour's Lost," directed by Rod Alexander at the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, Ashland. Also in nightly rotation from July 24 through Sept. 7 will be "The Merry Wives of Windsor," "Romeo and Juliet," and "Henry the Fifth." (Picture by Dwaine Smith Classic Studio).

Harrison Winstons Hosts At Buffet Supper, Dance

A delightful buffet supper and dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Winston at their lovely home on the South Umpqua Saturday evening in honor of the birthday of the hostess, Mrs. Winston, her mother, Mrs. Maude Massen, and Mrs. Robert Grensky.

Guests dined on the patio overlooking the river. Lovely floral arrangements graced the living room and dining room of the Winston home.

Intermingled with the dancing was guitar music, provided by Leonard Grensky and Ezra Exceen, and group singing.

Those present for the lovely affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Grensky, Mrs. Clara Grensky, Mrs. Bernice Minx of Los Angeles, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Exceen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grensky, Mr. and Mrs. A. W.
