

Doris Davison Now Mrs. Morgan

White gladioli with accents of blue flowers, floor candelabra holding tall white cathedral candles and blue net bows marking the pews, formed the setting for the beautiful summer wedding of Doris Davison and David S. Morgan Sunday, July 28, at the First Presbyterian Church. Rev. John E. Adams performed the impressive double ring ceremony at 4 p.m. in the presence of 200 guests. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Davison of Roseburg, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Morgan all of Roseburg.

Baskets of blue and white flowers decorated the back of the church and the organ. Mrs. Homer Grow, organist, played classical background music as the guests assembled and the traditional wedding marches. She accompanied vocal soloist Ernie Shipp, who sang "Hawaiian Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was very beautiful in a white silk organza gown over white satin fashioned along Princess lines with short sleeves, floor-length belted skirt and bodice trimmed in the same lace to match the floor-length veil and of seed pearls. She carried a white orchid on a satin covered Testament. The bride's lace handkerchief was brought by the bridegroom's mother from Brussels. The traditional garter worn by the bride was a gift from a close friend, Gretchen Baird, of Coopersburg, N. D.

Miss Susan Bowers, Coos Bay, was maid of honor, and Miss Jan Egan, Astoria, and Miss Sylvia Schubert, Ocean Lake, classmates of the bride at Willamette University, were bridesmaids. They wore street-length dresses of blue silk linen with matching blue hats and shoes. They carried blue and white nosegays of gladioli.

John Morgan of Salem acted as best man for his brother and Dennis Brundage and Orville Petersen Jr. of Portland and Wayne Henninger of Sacramento, Calif. were ushers. The altar candles were lighted by Dennis Brundage and Wayne Henninger.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Davison wore a lace covered sheath in pastel green, blue and pink with a sleeveless bolero jacket, green accessories and a corsage of pink orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a white lace sheath over pink satin with pink satin cummerbund, pink accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

A wedding reception followed in the fireplace room of the church. Mrs. Paul Jenkins, a friend of the bridegroom's family, arranged the floral decorations in the entry, while the reception decorations were in charge of Mrs. Paul H. Helweg and Mrs. Maurice J. Newland. The table, arranged in the shape of an L, was covered by blue net cloths over white satin damask and centered by Italian cupid figurine compotes holding exquisite bouquets of blue and pink hydrangeas and white ruffled petunias. The colonnade wedding cake was circled by blue and white hydrangeas and topped by wedding bells. The gift table was covered by draped blue net.

Mrs. John Morgan, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, of Salem and Mrs. Willard Morgan, aunt of the bridegroom, of Coquille, cut the cake with a gift knife from Susan Bowers, maid of honor, who is a Willamette University classmate of the bride.

Mrs. Velma Vols of Vancouver, Wash., aunt of the bride, served the punch, and Mrs. Carl Schneiderman, also of Vancouver, aunt of the bride, served the coffee. Miss Connie Muggard of Roseburg was in charge of the guest book.

Guests coming from out-of-town for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schneiderman and son, Carl, and Mrs. Velma Vols all of Vancouver, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan and sons, Calvin, David and Jeffery, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Morgan of Coquille, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Henninger of Sacramento, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Brundage and Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Petersen Jr. of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Larry D. Martin of Cottage Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nelson of Yreka, Calif.

For traveling the bride chose a beige linen three-piece suit with tan accessories and a coral gladioli corsage. Following a honeymoon to the Oregon coast, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will make their home at 477 NE Jackson St., Roseburg.

The bride attended Jamestown College in Jamestown, N. D. and Willamette University in Salem. The bridegroom was graduated from University of Oregon with a degree in business administration. He is associated with his father in the Roseburg Book Store.

Mrs. Noel Campbell of Linnell Ave. was surprised to find herself the honoree for a pink and blue shower Thursday. The affair was planned by the afternoon Bible study and prayer group, and was held in the home of Mrs. Bob Simonson also of Linnell.

After the completion of the study hour the hostess presented a folding highchair from the group. She then served delicious refreshments to her guests.

Those attending were Miss Pat Mason, Mrs. Leroy Wilson, Mrs. Carl Weikum, Mrs. Dale Bowman, Mrs. Lloyd Wagler, Mrs. Victor Rice, Mrs. John Ciappano, Mrs. Dick Reiser, Mrs. Forrest Fenstermaker, Mrs. Ben Huckaby, Mrs. Ralph Preston and the honored guest, Mrs. Campbell.
