

Difference Is What Ace Takes

By OSWALD JACOBY
(Written For NEA)

Perhaps the one characteristic that separates the good player from the average player is that the good player is always careful to give himself the best chance for success.

South's three no-trump contract he will merely pick up the deuce. South will make three diamond tricks and his contract.

♦♦♦CARD SENSE♦♦♦

Q—The bidding has been:
East South West North
1♦ 1♥ 1♠ 2♣
4♠ 5♥ 6♠ 6♣
Pass

You, South, hold:
♠ A Q J 7 6 5 ♦ 4 ♠ A K 9 8 7
What do you do?
A—Pass. A double would call for a diamond lead. A pass will probably produce a club lead and you should set the contract.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You hold the same hand. West passes after your one heart overcall. North bids one spade and East passes. What do you do now?

CAUGHT OFF BASE, St. Louis Cardinals' Mike Shannon (18) is run down by Cincinnati Red's Pete Rose (14) in the Cards-Reds game played at St. Louis Thursday. Catcher John Edwards threw the ball to first baseman Don Pavletich, catching Shannon off first base in the eighth inning. He was finally tagged out by Rose. The Cards won 3-2 to tie the San Francisco Giants for second place in the National League, 4 1/2 games behind the Los Angeles Dodgers. (UPI Telephoto)

Writers Favor New Strike Zone

BOSTON (UPI)—A slim majority of the nation's sports editors believe that the enlarged strike zone has improved major league baseball. Very few editors think it has harmed the game. Those were the results of a poll of the Academy of Sports Editors announced here. Eleven per cent of the academy, which is made up of 100 of the nation's leading sports editors, voted a "strong yes" to the question of whether increasing the zone has helped baseball. An additional 48 per cent voted a "moderate yes," making a total of 59 per cent which expressed approval. Another 32 per cent said that the new rule has made no difference. Seven per cent voted a "moderate no" and two per cent a "strong no," making a total of only nine per cent opposed to the new zone.

Offensive End Gail Cogdill Inks Pact To Bring All Detroit Lions Into Camp

By United Press International
DETROIT (UPI)—Gail Cogdill, the Detroit Lions' last holdout signed Thursday after four of his teammates, including All-Pro middle linebacker Joe Schmidt and defensive halfback standout Dick (Night Train) Lane, had agreed to terms with the National Football League club within the previous 48-hour period. The Baltimore Colts who dominated the Western Division a few short years ago, returned to their foremost weapon the forward pass—in Thursday's draft, which had quarterbacks Johnny Unitas, Lamas McHain, and Gary Cuozzo throwing along with halfbacks Lenny Moore, Tom Matte and J. W. Lockett. The Cleveland Browns continued to polish their offense against the blitz with traps, flares and screen passes. Star of Thursday's workout was Frank Parker, a 6-6, 267-pound tackle. The New York Giants sold former Notre Dame lineman Bob Bill to the Washington Redskins for a 1964 draft choice. The 240-pound Bill, an offensive guard, spent last season on the Giants' "taxi squad" after injuring his knee in a pre-season game. The Redskins sent linebacker Gene Cronin to a Washington hospital for treatment from a severe lower back strain. Tom Landry, coach of the Dallas Cowboys, was especially pleased with his defense during the Cowboys' last heavy workout prior to next week's charity game against the Los Angeles Rams, although quarterbacks Eddie LeBaron and Don Meredith both looked good. Coach Norm Van Brocklin also found reason to be pleased with his Minnesota Vikings, who put on a polished performance. Veteran backs Tommy Mason and Bill Brown each scored a TD during a half-hour scrimmage. Colchico Returns Defensive end Dan Colchico returned to action with the San Francisco Forty Niners Thursday after a week's absence due to an injured right knee. In American Football League developments, sprinter Bo Roberson of the Oakland Raiders will miss Sunday's exhibition game against the Boston Patriots. Roberson, who suffered a pulled groin muscle 10 days ago, had been listed as a probable starter. The New York Jets acquired Constantinos (Charlie) Theokas from the Patriots and signed halfback Bill Wood, a free agent. Cookie Gilchrist, the AFL's leading ground gainer in 1962, gave his best performance of the training season during the Buffalo Bills' dummy drill, the Denver Broncos trimmed their roster to 60 men, and veteran linebacker Jack Rudolph joined the Patriot casualty list with a pulled muscle.

Packers Picked Over Stars

CHICAGO (UPI)—Gridiron know-how made Vince Lombardi's Green Bay Packers a two to three touchdown favorite today for the 30th annual game matching the National Football League champions against the College All-Stars. The All-Stars, coached by Otto Graham for the sixth consecutive year, have their share of 260 and 270 pound behemoths and more

Eugene Emeralds Claim 7-0 Victory Over Tri-City Team

By United Press International
The two Oregon teams, Salem and Eugene, are holding down the top and bottom spots in the Northwest League and it's beginning to look as if Eugene wants out of the basement. The Emeralds, dead last all year, moved to within one game of Tri-City Thursday night with a 7-0 victory over the Angels. Salem, meanwhile, won its eighth straight, a 5-6 win over Lewiston and holds a 3 1/2-game lead over second-place Yakima. Yakima kept step in the other game with a 6-3 win over Wenatchee. John Bauer of Eugene spaced eight Tri-City hits for his shutout and got good hitting support from Bob Pearson and Jim Lynn. Pearson pounded out three hits, scored two runs and drove in two and Lynn helped out with a solo homer in the eighth. Lewiston scored five runs in the first frame against Salem but Ken

Page took over and allowed but one run after that and Salem fought back and moved ahead in the sixth. Page won his sixth of the year. Yakima got all its runs in the third with the aid of three Wenatchee errors. Winning pitcher Dick Smith doubled home two runs during the inning and Don Ganus hit a two-run single.

The pro club has won 19 of the 30 games, the All-Stars eight and two games have been tied, while the Packers will be seeking to rack up the fifth straight pro triumph in the series and their 20th consecutive exhibition victory. Last year Green Bay whipped the Stars, 42-20, with a 21-point spurge in the fourth period. Tonight's game was expected to draw about 65,000 fans to Soldier Field on Chicago's lake front despite network television over 200 stations and an uncomfortable weather forecast. The weather outlook was for a warm night with a high temperature during the day between 85 and 90 and Tundershowers likely. Both teams took their final workouts under the lights at Soldier Field to become acclimated to the turf with the Packers winding up their drills Thursday night.

OLSEN SIGNS CONTRACT
CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI)—Bud Olsen, a one-year veteran of the National Basketball Association has signed his 1963-1964 contract with the Cincinnati Royals. Olsen, a former University of Louisville star, is the fifth Royal to agree to terms.

Portland Beavers Complete Clean Sweep Of Four-Game PCL Series With Tacoma 9

By DAVE ROWE
UPI Sports Writer
The Portland Beavers of the Pacific Coast League have been making life miserable for the Tacoma Giants these days. Thursday night the two clubs concluded a four game series with Portland making a clean sweep. In so doing, they picked up four games on second place Tacoma in the Northern Division. The losses also put a crimp in the Giants' plan to catch Spokane's front running Indians, who now lead Tacoma by 9 1/2 games. The Beavers have won 11 of 19 games from Tacoma this year and Thursday night they downed the Giants 9-0. In other games Denver downed Dallas-Ft. Worth 11-7; Spokane shut out Oklahoma City 5-0; San Diego came from behind to whip Salt Lake City 7-6 and Seattle edged Hawaii 7-4.

The league leaders punched across single runs in the first three innings and then added two more in the fifth. Moeller had a no-hitter going until the fourth. The loser was starter Wally Nixon, who along with two other hurlers, was touched for 12 hits. Denver concentrated its scoring punch in the three middle innings for its 11-7 victory over Dallas-Ft. Worth. Chi Chi Olivo went the route for Denver although he was touched for three home runs. Two came in the top of the ninth when John Ward and George Banks potted pitches over the wall. Jim Rantz made his 47th appearance as a relief pitcher but did not figure in the final outcome for the Rangers. Seattle counted six runs in the first two innings and then took things easy to gain its victory over Hawaii. Jim McGlothin took the brunt of the Rainer attack and lost his fifth game. Bo Botinsky made his second appearance in relief and gave up four hits in as many innings. Felix Maldonado was the top hitter for Seattle having three singles. Ron Debus drove in three runs for Seattle and Bob Roselli did likewise for the Islanders.

The Beavers made good use of four Tacoma errors, three of them by Jesus Alou, to score score their deciding tallies. Meanwhile Lew Krausse went the distance, shutting out the Giants and giving nine scattered hits. It was his 11th decision against 8 losses. The loser was Gerry Thomas who now has 12-9 for the season. San Diego finally broke into the win column against Salt Lake City but it wasn't until the top of the ninth inning. A double by Art Shamsky scored the deciding tallies. Salt Lake City has downed the Padres 14 times in 19 meetings. Deron Johnson banged out his 28th home run of the year to take the lead in the PCL in that department. Mel Queen also had a four-run swat for the Padres. Dick Luebbe took the victory in relief and Jack Warner lost his relief assignment.

Spokane, behind the shutout pitching of Joe Moeller, continued its winning skid in sweeping the three game series from Oklahoma City. The big right hander fanned 11 batters and allowed only one man to reach third base. Deron Johnson banged out his 28th home run of the year to take the lead in the PCL in that department. Mel Queen also had a four-run swat for the Padres. Dick Luebbe took the victory in relief and Jack Warner lost his relief assignment.

Tom Landry, coach of the Dallas Cowboys, was especially pleased with his defense during the Cowboys' last heavy workout prior to next week's charity game against the Los Angeles Rams, although quarterbacks Eddie LeBaron and Don Meredith both looked good.
