

CARRYING THEIR BELONGINGS, survivors of July 26 earthquake leave shattered town of Skopje, Yugoslavia. On Wednesday of this week, engineers dynamited buildings to keep down threat of disease from rotting corpses of quake victims.

PRIVATE David Seiler, 24, of rural Theresa, Wis., was slain by North Korean raiders early this week. Three soldiers were ambushed as they drove to a guard post south of the de-militarized zone in South Korea. They were about 75 feet from the zone when they were hit.

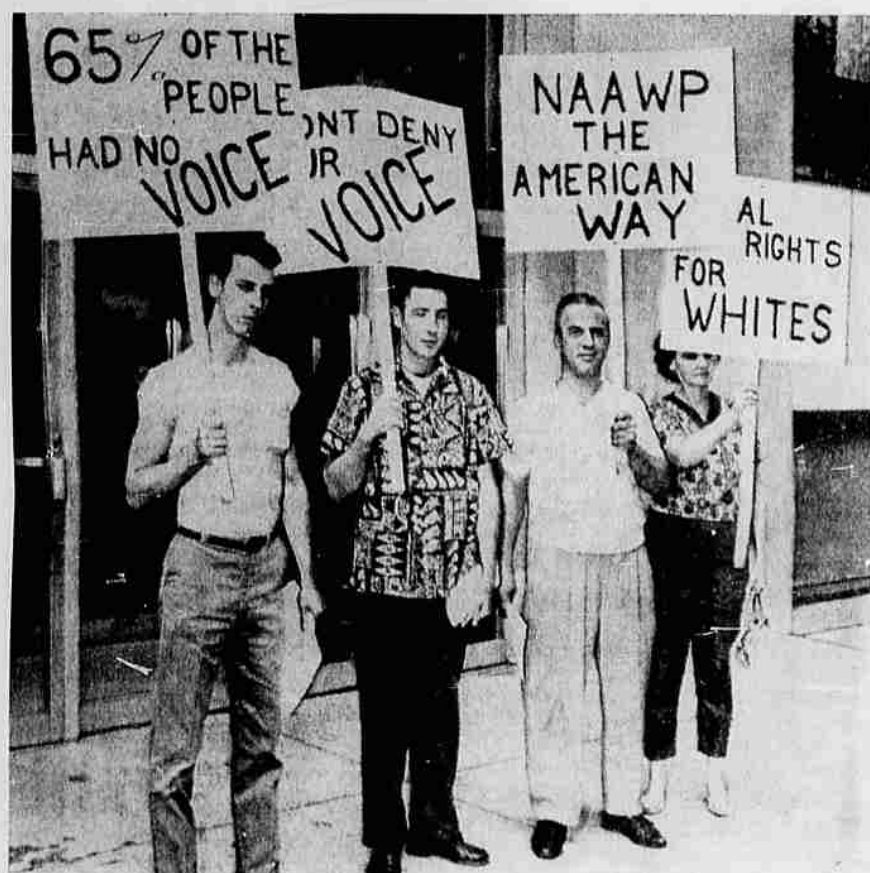

THAT'S NOT A MEAL ticket sticking in the bridle of this saddle horse tied to a parking meter at Madison, S.D. Owner of the pinto left him standing too long and the time ran out on the meter. The local traffic officer placed a parking ticket on him — just like any other offender.

Picture Page

All pictures via UPI Telephoto Service

12 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore.—Sat., Aug. 3, 1963

SIGN CARRYING PICKETS of Gary, Ind., chapter of NAAWP (National Association for the Advancement of White People) demonstrate in front of St. Mary's Mercy Hospital Tuesday. They are protesting a pact the hospital made with a Negro civil rights group. The group also threatens demonstrations at Methodist Hospital which has agreed to a similar pact. The organization was denied part in negotiations that led to the agreement.

KILLED IN KOREA — Pfc. Charles T. Dessart III, of Drexel Hill, Pa., left, and Army Cpl. George F. Laron, Jr., 24, right, (shown in 1961 file photo taken while serving in the Marine Corps) of Davison, Mich., are two of three GIs killed this week in encounters with North Koreans. Dessart had planned to make the Army his career.

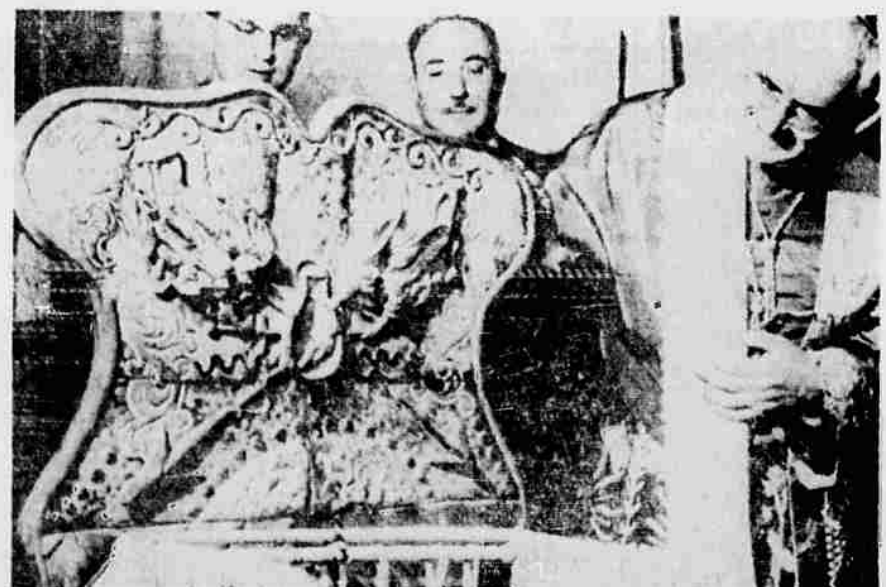

INCLUDED in the 11-man delegation scheduled to go to Moscow for signing of the limited test ban treaty are (at top left to right) Sen. George Aiken R-Vt. and Sec. of State Dean Rusk. (center left to right) Sen. Leverett Saltonstall and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, of Minnesota. (bottom left to right) Democratic Sens. John O. Pastore, R.I., and J. W. Fulbright, Ark.

CELEBRATING the third birthday of Portland's Lloyd Center are (left to right) Miss Oregon, D'Ann Fullerton of Roseburg; Emmett Kelly, Jr.; Miss Oregon of Miss Universe contest; JoBeth Fisher.

SEVEN MEMBERS of the original crew of PT 109 who served under President Kennedy, then Lt. (jg) John F. Kennedy, during the war are shown at Los Angeles Tuesday as they board plane for flight to Japan. While in Japan, they will attend services commemorating the 20th anniversary of the sinking of their PT 109 by the Japanese destroyer Amagiri. They will be guests of the Japanese Institute of Foreign Affairs. Pictured left to right, they are Maurice Kowal, Pat McMahon, Ray Starkey, Bucky Harris, Gerard Zinser, Ed Durwitch (wearing hat) and John McGuire.

BISHOP FRANCESCO FASOLA (right) admires a fine ceramic Monday at Caltagirone, Sicily, which local artisans built to be presented as a token of peace to the expected third child. Ceramic bas-relief depicts two figures holding a large, space-capsule-shaped cross.