The Olivet Presbyterian Church in Glendale was the scene of a wedding at 2:30 p.m. July 28, when Loeta Elizabeth Rife, daughter of Mrs. Alice Green and the late Howard Green, Canyonville, became the bride of James G. Wales of Sutherlin.

The Rev. Norman S. Naugher read the vows before an altar flanked with huge baskets of white gladioli arranged among greenery.

The bride was given in marriage by Edward Pickett, nephew of the bride. She was lovely in a powder blue lace afternoon dress over tulle waist and matching powder blue hat. The bride wore a corsage fashioned of gold roses.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Green chose an afternoon dress of white nylon patterned with lavender flowers, matching accessories and an artificial corsage of butterfly orchids.

A reception was held in the church parlors, which were decorated with bouquets of spring flowers, following the ceremony.

Mrs. Jack Middleton served the wedding cake which was made by Mrs. Mina Johnson and decorated by Mrs. Betty Baalman. Also, served were two layer cakes which had been baked for the occasion by Mrs. Mary Reed, Wynona Reed and Mrs. Alice Green, mother of the bride, served punch and coffee. Mrs. Charles Pickett presided over the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a powder blue suit with white accessories. The couple will be at home in Azalea following a honeymoon trip.
