

Days Creek Friends Visited By Former Area Residents

By MRS. DURNIN SWINGLEY
Former Days Creek residents Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kising and Mr. and Mrs. Alan, of Turlock, Calif., stopped over for a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin recently while on their way north to the Seattle area.

Michigan Couple Visits
Also visiting at the Robert Martin home were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hansard of Holly, Mich., who were enjoying their first trip through the west coast states. They expressed an especial liking for the local area. Mrs. Hansard and Mrs. Martin were former schoolmates in Detroit.

Camille Ellefson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ellefson, left recently to join her sister, Judith, at Willow Creek, Calif., where both are employed for the rest of the summer.

Mrs. Cecil Smith (Wilhelma Hutchison) and three children, Jackie, Kathy and Joy, of Weaverville, Calif., were recent visitors at the Jess Smith home. They were accompanied from California by the former's father, Walter "Hutch" Hutchison, who had been visiting there for a while. Hutchison also accompanied Mrs. Smith and children on north visit another son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bromley, and family at Cottage Grove and his eldest son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Hutchison, at Creswell. When the group returned to Days Creek Hutchison remained at the Jess Smith home for a longer visit before returning to Cottage Grove where he makes his home.

Vacationers Return
Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Long have returned from a vacation trip to Crescent City, Calif., and north along the Oregon coast visiting friends and relatives. They visited Long's son's family, the Jimmys, at Empire; his daughter's family, the Harveys, at Coos Bay; and Mrs. Long's daughter's family, the Edys, at Eugene. This was their first trip since the new section below Gold Beach and the new highway between Bandon and Coos Bay were completed and they reportedly were very much impressed with the improvement.

Linda and Colleen Martin have returned from Coos Bay where they spent several days visiting their older sister, Marilyn, and a friend, Jack Prickett.

Mrs. Margaret Martin of Whit-tier, Calif., has been a recent visitor here at the homes of her three sons and families, the Harry Martins, Robert Martins, and Ralph Martins.

Miss Alice May Woolley, pastor of the Days Creek Community Methodist Church, has returned from a ten-day camp meeting south of San Francisco.

Chickens May Soon Wear Eye Glasses

PETALUMA, Calif. (UPI)—Elderly chickens wearing glasses may soon be a sight to cause traffic jams on the Redwood Highway as it traverses this community which prides itself as California's egg basket.

Even poultry-conscious Petaluma, which has gotten used to such things as a main-street pharmacy devoted solely to prescriptions for chickens, has come to attention with an announcement from a laboratory in nearby Santa Rosa.

Contact lenses for chickens have now been perfected, according to Vision Control Research of Santa Rosa, and are intended to cope with chicken frustration and nervous breakdowns at dawn.

Nothing so frustrates a chicken as pecking at a bug that isn't there, or pecking at chicken feed and stubbing the bill on gravel, according to chicken psychiatrists who have studied the matter.

The contact lenses evolved by the Vision Control Research people are of red-tinted plastic according to President Albert Shriner, and will reduce flightiness and feed waste.

"Birds will be easier to handle, shell quality will be enhanced, and breakage reduced, and less feed required per flock," Shriner asserts.

How a contact lens is fitted to an individual chicken remains a trade secret up to this point.

THE LOCKS THAT FAILED

MENLO PARK, Calif. (UPI)—Every available locksmith around here was out to work by police Sunday at 133 banks, jewelry stores, pharmacies and other establishments.

A thief broke into the office of a local janitorial service and stole the keys to the firms.
