

Dodgers Topple Colts On Podres' Near No-No

By United Press International
Johnny Podres, a winner, and Roger Craig, a loser, have little in common today — except for a few tears of regret.
Podres, who is used to winning, came within three outs of a no-hitter when he hurled the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 4-0 triumph over the Houston Colts Sunday night. Johnny Temple opened the bottom of the ninth with a ground single to ruin the no-hit bid and after Podres hit Bob Aspromonte, Larry Sherry came in to retire the Colts.
Craig, who has learned how to lose since joining the New York Mets, has a lot more reason to cry after tying a National League record by dropping his 18th consecutive game. Craig produced his own downfall with a damaging error as the Milwaukee Braves edged the Mets, 2-1, and made the hard-luck New York pitcher a 20-game loser for the second year in a row.

In other games, the Philadelphia Phillies dropped the St. Louis Cardinals into third place by sweeping a doubleheader, 7-3 and 5-2. The Cincinnati Reds won two games from the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-2 and 4-1 and the San Francisco Giants downed the Chicago Cubs 2-1 in 10 innings.
Yankees, Orioles Split
In the American League, the New York Yankees squeezed out a 10-inning 11-10 victory over Baltimore after the Orioles went the opener, 7-2; the Detroit Tigers shut out the Cleveland Indians, 2-0, in the first game of a doubleheader but the Indians pulled out the nightcap, 3-2; the Washington Senators beat the Boston Red Sox, 7-5; the Kansas City Athletics downed the Minnesota Twins, 6-2; and the Chicago White Sox defeated the Los Angeles Angels, 8-1.

St. Joseph's Keeps Undefeated Record In Church Loop Play

St. Joseph's kept its undefeated record intact Tuesday night by downing the Conservative Baptists 19-1 in a Church League softball game. The St. Joseph's crew now has an 8-0 record in league play.
Bob Walters was the winning pitcher, striking out eight and giving up four hits. Walters went three for five at the plate, including a triple.
Another top hitter for St. Joseph's was Tom Reese, who went four for five, including a home run in the sixth inning.
David Stolbert went two for three for the CB crew, with a double in one of his trips to the plate.

'Football Fix' Trial To Begin Today

ATLANTA (UPI)—A $10 million libel suit brought by former Georgia Athletic Director Wally Butts against the Saturday Evening Post begins in federal court today.
Butts' suit was sparked by a Post article last March called "The Story of a College Football Fix."
The trial will get under way in the courtroom of Judge Lewis Morgan. Picture taking and broadcasting of the trial proceedings were forbidden.
A 12-man jury with two alternates sitting in will decide if the Post article printed March 23 libeled Butts when it said that the former athletic director gave away information on key Georgia football plays and formations to rival coach Paul Bryant of Alabama. The Post story quoted Atlanta insurance man George Burnett as saying he was accidentally connected into a telephone conversation that took place between Butts in Atlanta and Bryant in Tuscaloosa, Ala. The alleged conversation, the Post article said, took place Sept. 13, 1962, nine days before the Georgia-Alabama game in Birmingham, the opening contest for both teams.
Burnett, the story said, made hurried notes of the purported talk between Butts and Bryant. These are expected to figure prominently in the trial.
Alabama was a 17-point favorite in the game and won, 25-0.
Both Butts and Bryant issued heated denials of the Post story and both filed multi-million dollar libel suits. Bryant's suit against the Curtis Publishing Company magazine was filed as a separate action.

Mock's Nipped By Salem 9 In State Softball Playoffs

Mock Motors, winners of the YMCA Twilight League softball crown, fell to the Salem Merchants in a hard-fought three-game series for a berth in the state tournament at Salem Aug. 8-13.
The local crew evened the series at one game each Sunday afternoon with a 1-0 decision as Dick Blehm tossed a nifty one hitter, then lost the decider to the invaders 2-1. Salem had won the opening game on its home field Saturday by a 4-0 count.
In the opener at Salem the Merchants broke a scoreless deadlock in the third inning when free passes and singles by Don Moye and Dick Norton gave the home team two runs. Two more rallies crossed the plate for the winners in the fourth inning with pitcher Norv Hilfiker and outfielder Art Weston providing the hitting power.
While Salem was racking up four runs, Mock's never managed to dent the plate. Norv Hilfiker limited the Roseburg nine to two hits—a pair of singles by Jim Taylor, Blehm came on strong in the second game of the series when the two teams returned to the Roseburg field. The fireballer had periods of control trouble, but each time settled down to retire the invading Merchants. Tim Rose picked up the right-center to score Fennel for the only hit off Blehm. Blehm struck out three and walked seven.
The winning run for Mock's scored in the third inning. Troy Fennel led off with a single to right field and was sacrificed to second by Dale Cooley. Taylor belted a line-shooting right-center to score Fennel with the deciding run.
In the finale both teams scored in the initial frame. Walks to Deny Peters and Weston, a sacrifice and singles by Wayland Piesley and Norton gave the Merchants a pair of runners.
Mock's bounced back with a single run as Don Wells singled and took second on a throwing error. Paul Barnhart bounced a single

Mantle Returns For Yanks With Pinch-Hit Four-Bagger

By United Press International
Baseball old-timers insist Babe Ruth had more magnetism and Joe DiMaggio had a bit more poise, yet Mickey Mantle possesses the same flair for the dramatic that marked the careers of his New York Yankee predecessors.
You'd have to go back to the Babe and the DiMag to compare the ovation Mantle received from 38,555 fans at Yankee Stadium Sunday when he made his first appearance in two months as a pinch hitter in the second game of a doubleheader against the Baltimore Orioles.
The applause reached a deafening crescendo seconds later when Mantle, after looking at a called first strike, blasted a slider by Baltimore southpaw George Brunet into the left field stands to tie the score at 10-10 in the seventh inning.
The Yankees went on to win the game, 11-10, in the 10th on a pinch sacrifice fly by Yogi Berra and gain a split of the twin bill. The Orioles won the opener, 7-2, on homers by John Powell, John Orsino and pitcher Steve Barber.

single. Joel Horlen limited the Angels to six hits but needed relief help from Hoyt Wilhelm in the eighth.
Moe Drabowsky pitched a five-hitter, scored a run and knocked in two tallies for the A's. Drabowsky's bases-loaded single climaxed a five-run burst against Jim Perry in the third inning. Jim Hall and Harmon Killebrew homered for the Twins.
The Senators outslugged the Red Sox with the help of a three-run pinch homer by Minnie Miros and a pair of solo smashes by Jim King. Don Rudolph, with relief help from Pete Burnside and Ed Roebuck, picked up his seventh victory. Wilbur Wood took the loss.
Hank Aukire permitted only a pair of singles and Don Wert hit a solo homer in the Tigers' opening game victory. The Indians won the nightcap on Tito Francona's two-run single in the ninth inning off Jim Bunning.

Cool After 14th Consecutive Win In Tonight's Opener With Madison

Ran Cool, the curve-balling left-hander who started Lockwood Motors off on the right foot in both playoff series during the past 10 days, will draw the starting assignment again tonight when the Roseburg squad takes on Sargent Construction Co. of Portland for the American Legion Junior Baseball state championship.
Game time for this first in a best three-out-of-five series is 8:30 p.m. at Legion Field. Because of the tremendous crowds for the playoffs with Klamath Falls and North Salem (over 8,800) all of the state championship games will be played at Legion Field. Ticket information may be found in a story on page one.
Lampard Is Named
Sargent Construction Co. coach Bill Wiitala has indicated he'll start right-hander Keith Lampard on the mound against Cool. Lampard, with a 9-0 season's record, is also the team's leading hitter, as he goes into tonight's action with a booming .473 batting average.
The Sargent squad is the Madison High School team from Portland which won the state high school championship. Gone from the team is ace pitcher Rick Wise, who signed a professional contract with the Philadelphia Phillies following graduation.

The Sargent team chalked up a 13-3 record in Portland City League play during the season and won four straight in the playoffs. In the state semifinals last week they defeated The Dalles 15-6 and 6-1. Lampard and lefty Steve Chamberlain were the winning pitchers in that series. Chamberlain has a 5-2 record for the season.

Defending Grid Champs Surprised In Openers

By United Press International
The results of the American Football League's opening exhibition games indicated this could be a tough year for the top dogs.
The Kansas City Chiefs (nee champion Dallas Texans) and the Houston Oilers, Eastern Division titlists, were surprised in the AFL's first pre-season clashes Saturday night.
Paul Lowe, who sat out the 1962 season with a broken arm as San Diego reeled to a 4-10 record, scored twice against Kansas City as the Chargers swept to a 26-14 victory and their 13th straight exhibition win without defeat since the league was founded four years ago.
Rookie quarterback Mickey Slaughter of Louisiana Tech threw two touchdowns in Denver's 27-10 upset of Houston.
The Oakland Raiders, who snapped a 13-game losing streak by beating Boston in the last game of the 1962 season, upended the Patriots, 21-17, Sunday.
Four exhibition games are on tap next weekend — Houston vs. New York at Shreveport, La., and Kansas City entertaining Buffalo on Friday night, Boston at San Diego Saturday night and Denver at Oakland Sunday.
In the National Football League, Dallas is at Los Angeles on Thursday while in Saturday exhibitions, Baltimore plays Philadelphia at Hershey, Pa.; Chicago meets New York at Ithaca, N.Y.; Detroit hosts Cleveland; Green Bay faces Pittsburgh at Miami, Fla., and Minnesota takes on San Francisco at Portland, Ore.
