Dodgers Win Crucial Game; Yanks Bury Senators

By United Press International
Chalk up two more strikeout records for Los Angeles fireballer Sandy Koufax today.

Koufax struck out 11 batters in the Dodgers' 3-1, 11-inning triumph over the Chicago Cubs Wednesday.

Koufax' 11-strikeout lifted his season total to 210 in 213 innings and made him the first National League left-hander to record three consecutive 200-strikeout seasons. It also was a league record 48th time in which he has struck out 10 or more batters in a game.

Koufax turned over a tie game to relief ace Ron Perranoski and the latter gained his 11th win of the season when the Dodgers came up with two runs in the 11th inning on Tommy Davis' homer, singles by Willie Davis and Al Ferrara and an error by Ellis Burton.

The victory enabled the Dodgers to increase their NL lead to six games when the Houston Colts topped the San Francisco Giants, 1-0, and the New York Mets surmounted the St. Louis Cardinals, 7-3. The Philadelphia Phillies beat the Cincinnati Reds, 2-1, and the Pittsburgh Pirates shaded the Milwaukee Braves, 5-4, in other NL action.

Dick Farrell went 8 1/3 innings and Hal Woodeshick threw a game-ending double play ball to pinch hitter Harvey Kuenn to give the ninth-place Colts their fifth win in their last six home games with the Giants. The Colts scored the game's only run off

Jack Sanford in the fourth inning on Al Spangler's single, a sacrifice and John Bateman's single. Jim Hickman hit a homer, a triple, double and single and Duke Snider had three hits in the Mets' 11-hit attack that brought Tracy Stallard his fifth win. Ernie Broglio, who had beaten the Mets three straight previous games, suffered his eighth loss against 12 victories.

Brundage To Miss UO Grid Season

EUGENE (UPI)—Mike Brundage, former all-state quarterback from Roseburg, will not be playing football this fall for the University of Oregon.

The sophomore quarterback told head coach Len Casanova Wednesday that he plans to enter the service this fall. He will enlist in the U.S. Army's six-month program and will return to school for the spring quarter and spring football practice.

Brundage was starting quarterback on the Duck's freshman team two years ago. He was redshirted last year and did not play.

Jim Maloney's seventh-inning wild pitch enabled Tony Taylor to score with the run that snapped his six-game winning streak and dealt him his fourth loss against 37 wins. Cal McLish pitched an eight-hitter to win his 11th decision for the Phillies.

Relief pitcher Frank Funk's wild pitch in the ninth inning let Bob Bailey score the winning run for the Pirates and gave relief ace Al McBean his 11th victory compared with three defeats. Jerry Lynch homered for the Pirates and Lee Maye had four hits for the Braves.

Al Downing strengthened his bid for AL rookie of the year honors Wednesday night when he pitched a three-hitter as the New York Yankees downed the Washington Senators, 9-1. Joe Pepitone hit his 20th homer of the season and Elston Howard his 22nd to lead the Yankees' 14-hit attack.

The Chicago White Sox defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 7-3. The Cleveland Indians beat the Baltimore Orioles, 4-1. The Detroit Tigers nipped the Boston Red Sox, 5-4, and the Minnesota Twins whipped Los Angeles, 9-4, in other AL games.

Pete Ward, Downing's strongest rival for the AL rookie award, hit his 14th homer and two singles to lead a nine-hit White Sox attack that carried Juan Pizarro to his 14th win against five losses. Pizarro yielded nine hits and three runs in 7 2/3 innings with Jim Brosnan preserving the win. Orlando Pena suffered his 15th setback for the Athletics.

Homers by Joe Azcue and Fred Whitfield provided the power for Cleveland's Jim Grant to register his eighth victory of the season with a five-hitter. A double by Woody Held, a walk, Al Luplow's single and Larry Brown's infield out produced the other Indian runs as Milt Pappas of the Orioles was tagged with his seventh defeat.

Al Kaline's three-run seventh-inning homer off Red Sox relief ace Dick Radatz lifted Detroit relief pitcher Bill Faul to his fifth win. Kaline also had a double and a single and drove in four runs to lead the Tigers' 12-hit attack while Gary Geiger hit two homers and Dick Stuart connected for a two-run homer for the Red Sox. Harmon Killebrew's three-run eighth-inning homer gave the Twins a 5-4 lead and relief pitcher Bill Dalley's three-run shot in the ninth clinched their triumph at Los Angeles after the Angels staked Ken McBride to an early 4-0 lead. The homer was Killebrew's 28th and gave him the league lead. Leon Wagner hit his 22nd homer and Jim Fregosi to lead the Tigers' 12-hit attack had four singles for the Angels.

PARNELLI JONES TESTED RIVERSIDE TIRES ON THE INDIANAPOLIS 500 SPEEDWAY TRACK. THEY DELIVERED OUTSTANDING PERFORMANCE FOR HIM AT STRAIGHT-AWAY SPEEDS UP TO 138.46 MPH!

Parnelli Jones, record-breaking winner of the '63 Indianapolis 500-mile race, proves Riverside tires are built to last!

For the second time this year, Parnelli Jones drove the searing 2 1/2 miles of Indianapolis track. This time to prove the strength and endurance of Riverside ST-107's tires. Jones was merciless. He ground into turns and rocketed down at straightaway speeds up to 138.46 mph! The ST-107's were pounded and baked in the Indiana sun. They suffered more abuse than tires ever receive; and they held! This was no stunt.

Riverside engineers knew the strength and quality built into every Riverside tire would take it. Though you will never drive 138 mph, it's comforting to ride on tires that can deliver high-speed proven Riverside tires!
