

Stoffel-Collins Wedding July 20

Blue and white gladioli formed the altar decorations at St. Joseph's Catholic Church July 20 when Billie Marie Collins and William John Stoffel exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony. Father Marion Corbin officiated at the 2 p.m. nuptial rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Edna Collins. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stoffel. Both families reside in Roseburg.

The traditional wedding march was played. Mrs. George Graike was soloist.

Charles Collins gave his sister in marriage. She was lovely in her full-length gown of Rochelle lace. The bodice was designed with a scalloped square neckline. The front of the skirt featured a bow detail, and the back was a cascade of alternate layers of tulle and lace ruffles. Her fingertip veil was secured by a chiffon rose. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and carnations.

Mrs. Charles Collins was matron of honor for her sister-in-law, Linda Greenfield was bridesmaid. Both were garbed in baby blue satin with chiffon overskirts. Their veils and slippers matched their frocks. Their bouquets were blue and white carnations and roses.

Patricia Faye Collins, niece of the bride, was flower girl.

Herman Stoffel Jr. of Anaheim, Calif., was best man for his brother, Boe and Benny Collins, the bride's brothers, were ushers.

Following the wedding, a reception and buffet were given by the bridegroom's parents at their home in Melrose. Forty guests attended.

The couple honeymooned in Portland and are now at home in Melrose. For traveling, the bride wore a two-piece aqua silk suit.

The bride attended Roseburg High School and is employed at Newberry's in Roseburg. The bridegroom attended high school in Anaheim, Calif., and is employed as a surveyor for Douglas County.

Coming from out of town for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ude Bauer, from Anaheim, Calif.

Miss Hastings Bride Of July

Shirley Jean Hastings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Hastings of Wolf Creek, and Thomas Brock Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Asa L. Lewis of Glendale, were married July 27 at the office of Jack Day, Glendale Justice of the Peace. Pat Hastings and Mrs. James Stewart were witnesses.

The bride was lovely in a white chiffon ballerina-length dress with a lace jacket and orchid-colored accessories. She wore an orchid corsage.

The bride was a resident of Wolf Creek for several years and attended both the Wolf Creek schools and the Grants Pass high school.

The Lewis family has resided in Glendale for the past five years. Brock was graduated from Prescott High School in Prescott, Ark., before the family moved here. Since he has attended Magic Valley Christian College in Alvon, Idaho, and one term at Southern Oregon College in Ashland.

The newlyweds are now making their home in Glendale. Lewis plans to return to Magic Valley Christian College this fall, where he has a scholarship. He will resume his training there. He plans to be a Physical Education and history teacher and to coach basketball.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM STOFFEL, above, were united in marriage July 20 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church. The bride, Billie Marie Collins, is the daughter of Mrs. Edna Collins, Roseburg, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Stoffel, Melrose. The newlyweds are now at home to friends in Melrose. (Picture by Chris' Studio of Photography).

Rehearsal Buffet Is Held At H. J. Bauer Residence

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bauer, parents of the bridegroom-to-be, were host and hostess at a charming buffet Friday evening. The party was given for members of the wedding party and relatives who came from out of town to attend the wedding of the Bauer's son, Ronald, and Miss LaVeta Ball. The dinner was held after rehearsal. The young couple exchanged vows the following night.

Those attending were Miss Ball, Ronald Bauer, Mrs. Wimar Wurm of San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Knoph, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Bill F. Huckabay and son, Billy, of Sacramento, Calif.; Janet Bauer and Mrs. James Doyle, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Esco Ball, Donna Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ziegler, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Belmont, Jack Smith, Jim Spurgeon, Mrs. Don Greenfield and the host and hostess.

OES Social Club Elects Officers

Thursday at the Eastern Star Social Club meeting in Canyonville, members elected officers for the coming year. They include Mrs. Joseph Anderson, president; Mrs. Francis McCabe, vice president; and Mrs. Charles Pruden, secretary-treasurer. The group discussed the Masonic-Easter Star picnic to be held at Stanton Park Aug. 11 at 12 o'clock. The affair will be potluck. Coffee and watermelon will be provided. Canyonville and Riddle lodges will join together at the picnic.

Also planned was a social club picnic to be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Anderson Aug. 15 at 1:30 p.m. During the business session plans will be made for a rummage sale to be held in the early fall.

Glendale Couple To Be Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Arlet (Pop) Smith of Glendale will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary at an open house to be held Sunday, Aug. 18, at 2 to 5 p.m. at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Steens, on Old Highway 99, near Glendale.

All friends and relatives of the couple are invited to be present.

TO MARRY — Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bintliff, Wilbur, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Sharon Vernelle of Portland, to Jerry A. Moore, also of that city. He is the son of Mrs. Ruby Helmers of Sweet Springs, Mo. A fall wedding is planned, to take place in Wilbur.

Nuptials Unite Couple July 27

Gladioli in shades of white and soft lavender decorated St. George's Episcopal Church July 27, for the wedding of Leveta Melvina Ball and Ronald Lynn Bauer, both of this city. White satin bows and lily of the valley marked the pews.

The Rev. Alfred S. Tyson performed the double ring ceremony which was attended by a large number of relatives and friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Esco Ball of W. Bradford Drive. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bauer of NW Almond St.

The traditional wedding music was played by Mary Beth Hill, organist.

Wearing a gown of white bridal satin which had been fashioned by her mother, the bride was given in marriage by her father. The dress, designed by the bride, had a floor length skirt which featured a full back flowing into a long train. The scalloped neckline had a wide yoke of Chantilly lace accented with rows of seed pearls. Tiny covered buttons were featured on the long sleeves. The bride's elbow-length veil was caught by a dainty white satin rose headpiece. Her bridal bouquet was of white spider chrysanthemums. She carried a linen handkerchief which had been given to her by Mrs. F. A. Hayes, grandmother of the bridegroom. The center stone in the bride's engagement ring was a family heirloom, also a present from Mrs. Hayes.

Donna Sue Ball, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridegroom's sister, Janet Bauer of Portland, was bridesmaid. They were dressed identically in lavender sheaths with short bolero jackets and overskirts of lavender and purple chiffon. They carried bouquets of white gladioli with lavender net which matched their headaddresses. Their slippers and gloves complimented their dresses.

Norman J. Belmont was best man. Ushers were Gene Knoph of Salem, cousin of the bridegroom; Ed Zeigler, another cousin; and Jack Smith of Glendale.

Following the ceremony, a reception, given by the bride's parents, was held in the parish hall. The fireplace was flanked by baskets of lavender and purple hydrangeas.

The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth and was centered with a three-tiered colonial cake which was decorated with lavender asters and cream-colored roses. The cake was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom in a heart of lace. The cake was cut and served by aunts of the bride, Mrs. Bill Huckabay of Sacramento, Calif., and Mrs. Troy Ball. Punch was served by Mrs. Jim Doyle of Portland, aunt of the bridegroom. The guest book was presented by Mrs. Donald Greenfield, cousin of the bride. Other cousins, Mrs. Bobby Bert Ball and Mrs. Robert E. Scott, had charge of the gifts.

For the wedding and reception the mother of the bride wore an orange and beige sheath dress with beige accessories and a corsage of tangerine carnations. The mother of the bridegroom was attired in a blue sheath with matching accessories and a corsage of white and blue carnations.

The couple left on a honeymoon on the Oregon coast and Portland, the bride wearing a two-piece sharkskin nautical suit with red and white trim and a corsage of white roses. The young people are now at home to friends at 469 Winchester Court Apartments.

The bride attended Roseburg schools. The bridegroom went to school in Myrtle Creek. He is employed by Martin Bros. Container & Timber Products Corp. at Oakland.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Huckabay and sons, Billy and Mike, of Sacramento, Calif.; Mrs. Jim Doyle and Gregg and Jeff, Miss Janet Bauer and Mrs. Don Olson and Bunny Ann and Don, all of Portland; Mrs. Cal Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Knoph, all of Salem; Mrs. Wimar Wurm, San Francisco; and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Larson, Cottage Grove.
