8 The News-Review, Roseburg, Ore.—Fri., Aug. 9, 1963

Patricia Sterba Now Mrs. Forrest

At a nuptial high mass at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Eugene Aug. 3, Patricia Jane Sterba of Phoenix, Ariz., became the bride of David Roy Forrest of Roseburg. The mass was sung at 11 a.m. by Father Moore, who performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George R. Sterba of Phoenix. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Forrest of this city.

Decorations at the church were white chrysanthemums, roses and orange blossoms. Special music was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Dale Cooley of Eugene.

George Sterba came from Phoenix to give his daughter in marriage. She was charming in her full length, slim, white taffeta sheath with a bouffant overskirt overlaid with Alencon lace. Her veil of imported silk illusion was gathered to a lace cap sprinkled with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and orange blossoms.

Maid of honor was Lynn Forrest of Roseburg, sister of the bridegroom. She wore a floor-length sheath of Kelly green with matching peau de soie overskirt. She carried white spider chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Karen Elfving of Coos Bay, Mickey Plouts of Salem and Carol Lorenz, Ginger Harris and Charlene Dent, all of Roseburg. All were dressed in Kelly green and carried spider chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom's brother, William Forrest Jr., was best man. Ushering was done by Scott Forrest, Tom Mitchell, Frank Dice, Doug Elliott and Roger Mack.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Sterba wore a pale blue sheath dress. Mrs. Forrest wore a pink sheath.

A reception for the young couple was held in the King Cole Room of the Eugene Hotel. The cake was served by Mrs. R. L. Howe, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Clifford Wynkoop. Pouring coffee were Mrs. Homer Mornhinweg and Mrs. Charles Mornhinweg, great-aunts of the bride. Mrs. Karen Gresham presented the guest book.

At the reception the bride and bridegroom toasted each other with an heirloom Swedish goblet belonging to the Forrest family.

The newlyweds left on a honeymoon at coastal points, the bride wearing an olive green knit suit with a red blouse and matching green accessories. The couple is now at home at 3724 SE 35th Place, Portland.

Both young people attended Oregon State University. The bride is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, and the bridegroom is affiliated with Theta Chi Fraternity.

The bridegroom is employed by Borg-Warner Co. in Portland.

Miss Casey Has Coffee Tuesday

Miss Helen Casey entertained the Humane Society members at a lovely coffee Tuesday afternoon at her attractive home on SE Blakeley Ave. Hydrangeas formed the pretty decorative motif on the serving table and living room bouquets.

Enjoying the occasion with Miss Casey were Mrs. Francis Engle, Mrs. Ralph Wise, Mrs. Albert Flegel, Mrs. Hazel Lester, Mrs. Charles Goe, Mrs. John Hurrell, Mrs. Daniel Dimick, Mrs. Paul Jenkins, Mrs. Paul Hult and Mrs. William Barnes.

The group will sponsor a booth with the Kennel Club at the fair. The next meeting will be Sept. 3 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ralph Wise.

Former Glide Girl Married In California On July 17

Coming as a surprise to Douglas County residents was the recent announcement of the marriage of Miss Sandra Isaakson of San Francisco and George J. Huddleston. The young people were married July 17 in a quiet ceremony in San Francisco.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Emil Palm of Glide. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Huddleston of Beach Grove, Ind.

The bridegroom attended the University of Chicago, majoring in geology, and is now employed by the U. S. Government Coastal Geodetic Survey. He sailed July 22 on the USS Pioneer on a four-month cruise in the Pacific, stopping at ports at Kodiak, Alaska; Honolulu, Hawaii; Sydney, Australia; and Yokohama, Japan.

The bride was graduated from Glide High School in 1960, and worked two years in Roseburg for the Local Loan and Pacific Finance companies, transferring to the San Francisco office of the latter concern.

Mrs. Huddleston visited in Glide with her mother for a week and has since returned to her job. On her husband's return, the young couple will reside in Oakland, Calif., where the government offices are located.

Mrs. W. L. Tozer Is Club Hostess

Mrs. W. L. Tozer entertained her Round Robin Duplicate Bridge Club Monday afternoon at her beautiful home on the North Umpqua River. Summer flowers formed the attractive decorations for the occasion. At the tea hour lovely refreshments were served by the hostess to Mrs. S. G. Palmer, Mrs. B. L. Hardenbrook, Mrs. L. W. Metzger, Mrs. Roy Catching, Mrs. R. D. Coen, Mrs. Walter Fisher and Mrs. Harold E. Schmeer.

Duplicate bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. Tozer tying for high score.

Family Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Les Forney and their three children were honored guests at a planned potluck dinner given at the Green Community Church Friday evening. Women of the church were in charge of arrangements. After the dinner Al Cummings led the group in singing, with Mrs. Cummings assisting at the piano. Gary Lorentz and the Rev. Leonard Floth both spoke briefly of the regard held by members for the Forney family. The people of the church presented them with a lovely gift for their new home in Portland.

The Forneys came to Roseburg six years ago, and he taught in the fourth and sixth grades, at Green School during that time. For the past two years he had been acting vice principal, and had charge of the athletic program. The Forneys were active members of the Green Community Church, and participated in many valuable community activities.

Forney is leaving the Roseburg school system to accept the principalship of the West Hills Christian Elementary School in Portland. This is an inter-denominational eight-grade school, which had its beginnings in 1949. A few parents support and maintain the institution, which has over 100 students, and is growing.

The Forneys say they are looking forward to a good year, teaching and working. They will also be near their respective families, all of whom live in Portland.

HONORED at a dinner party at the Green Community Church Friday evening was Les Forney, above, teacher at the Green School the last six years, and his wife and their three children. A lovely gift was presented by the group to the Forney family.

Three Families To Hold Picnic

The Powell-Rader-Minter picnic will take place Sunday, Aug. 11, at the Tye picnic area across the Bullock Bridge. The picnic will begin at 12:30.

All relatives in the three families, together with their friends, are cordially invited.

Strattons Family Has Visitors For Three Weeks

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stratton of this city were hosts for a three-week period recently for a family group gathered for a reunion.

Coming from Rapid City, S.D., were Mrs. Stratton's brother-in-law and sister, the Rev. and Mrs. Harold Cottrell, who also spent some time in Wilbur with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bintliff; her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pittman, Council Bluffs, Iowa; her nephew, Hal Cottrell of Los Angeles; and a niece, Sharon Bintliff of Portland. The latter two also spent some time at the Bintliff home in Wilbur. Only family members absent were the Stratton's son, Jon, presently serving as a medical corpsman on the USS Constellation out of Japan, and Mrs. Stratton's brother, Delmer Forster, construction foreman on a power plant in Calcutta, India.

Sightseeing tours including trips to Crater Lake and Lake Tahoe, were on the agenda for the visitors and their hosts along with many family dinners and other social events. It was the first time in many years for family members to assemble jointly.

44th Wedding Anniversary Celebrated By Leo Harts

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hart of Green celebrated their 44th wedding anniversary recently at a family reunion. This was the first time in nine years that the family had all been together. The Harts' four daughters were all present, coming from the east and north.

Miss Pauline Hart of Cleveland, Ohio, where she is director of dietetics at Ohio University, and Miss Elsie Hart of Terre Haute, Ind., where she is secretary at the Bible center, both came west together, and were able to stay for a week with their parents.

Picnic Held At VA Park

The American Gold Star Mothers Inc. annual picnic was an event of Sunday at the VA Hospital with 36 assisting Martha Ball, hospital chairman.

Coming from out of town for the event were Mrs. Mary Champ, department president; Lucy Lichty, Sadie and George Pro, Addie and Helen White and Izell Haley, all of Salem; Mildred Edner, first vice president; Tillamook; Bertha Chaney and Mabel Christensen, Coos Bay; Matilda Karanich, Marie and John Klenz and Lulu Stephens, Coos Bay; Leona Baker, past department president; Myrtle Kapsa, Mary Bishop and Betty and Bruce David, all of Eugene; Ernest and Sally Cotter, Mary Hamilton and Winnifred Harter, Grants Pass; Cecelia Everett, hospital chairman, Portland; Roberta Wheeler, Albany; and Edna Castle, past department president, Oregon Coast Chapter.

Wayne Holmes Has Birthday

Wednesday Wayne Allen Holmes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Holmes, celebrated his fifth birthday at a wiener roast at Stewart Park complete with marshmallows and a lion birthday cake decorated in yellow and white.

Gifts were presented to the guest of honor from his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Holmes and Harvey Carey, Jackie Lukehart, Terry, Mark and Kim Lantier; his brother, David Michael; his aunt, Mrs. Loyal Arrant, and family, and his parents.

To Be Honored

Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Finlay, prominent Roseburg residents for many years, will be honored on their golden wedding anniversary Aug. 18 at an open house to be held at Oak Tree Inn from 2 to 5 p.m., with their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. James R. Finlay acting as host and hostess. Coming for the event will be their older son, Gilbert, who resides in Champagne, Ill. Relatives and friends have been requested to please not give gifts.

INTERESTING NEWCOMERS being welcomed to Roseburg are Dr. and Mrs. Henry Hirschman and two sons, Jason, 3, and David, 2, who have moved to 1410 Ulrich Place, to make their home after living in New York City the last two years. The Hirschmans chose this locality because they are both outdoor enthusiasts and feel the area has much to offer in the way of climate, scenery and attractions for outdoor activities. Dr. Hirschman is an associate of Dr. John William Unruh of Roseburg. His hobbies are fishing and photography. Mrs. Hirschman loves horseback riding and all outdoor sports. The family arrived here in July and report that already it is finding its newly chosen place to live a very happy choice. (Picture by Chris Studio of Photography).
