

Oakland Church Youth Hold Outdoor Event

The younger group of Oakland Church of Christ youth held a recent outing at the home of Steve Harger with 16 young people attending. Mr. and Mrs. Myron Oberman, sponsors, were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Varlan Oberman. A cookout and games and swimming were on the evening's program.

Members from the church attending Grove Christian Camp recently were Bill Spencer, Sandra Haines, Paul Haines and Kathy Crenshaw. The Rev. R. D. Spaulding, church pastor, was instructor there for two weeks. Sandra Haines was the winner of the "Best Camper" award and received a campership for next year.

The Rev. and Mrs. Spaulding are vacationing this week and Harlan Haines and Ted Baimbridge were Sunday speakers at the church. Twenty-five persons attended the monthly fellowship dinner held Saturday at the church. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Laherty of Drain and Ellen Cole and Vernon Landreth of Boise, Idaho, were special guests.

Elimination Play Works For Slam

By OSWALD JACOBY
(Written For NEA)

The old recipe for rabbit stew starts with the advice, "First catch a rabbit."

The best advice to bridge players is "First bid your slam, then make it."

In the York, Pa., regional practically every South player reached six spades and almost all of them took the club finesse and went down.

Col. Bill Christian of Staten Island, made the slam in spite of the club finesse being wrong. His strategy was an elimination play that forced West to give him the hand. Of course, the elimination play might not have worked, but Bill kept the finesse in reserve in case the extra chance did not come off.

Bill started proceedings by winning the diamond opening and ruffing a diamond. Then he cashed his ace of hearts and noted that West dropped the ten. Two rounds of trumps left Bill in dummy and exhausted the adverse trumps.

Then Bill discarded one club on dummy's last high diamond, led a heart and played his eight.

West had to win with the queen and Bill's eliminator had done its job. West couldn't lead a heart or a trump. If he led a club the play would take Bill's finesse for him, if he led a diamond Bill would ruff in dummy and discard the last low club from his own hand.

Non-Support Trial Set

Robert J. Carlton, 30, of Elkton, pleaded innocent when arraigned Wednesday before Circuit Court Judge Don Sanders on a charge of non-support.

Judge Sanders set the case for trial on Oct. 18. Carlton is charged in an indictment handed down by the Douglas County Grand Jury.
