Missing Man Found Dead

"I won't need this where I'm going," Melvin Millard, 62, of Lakeview, told his ex-wife, Ruth Lynch, who was staying at Briggs Camp, as he handed her his billfold and other papers, then drove away in his car.

That was Aug. 2. Millard had not been heard from since.

Today, a body believed to be that of Millard, has been located on Lava Creek, in the vicinity of Clearwater Park near Stump Lake.

A radio dispatch received about 11 a.m. by the sheriff's office from deputies and Dr. James K. Gray, county medical examiner who went there this morning to investigate, confirmed finding of the body about one-fourth mile from Millard's abandoned car.

However, positive identification and cause of death had not been fully determined.

Search for Millard was started Monday afternoon, after identification of an abandoned car in the area of the upper North Umpqua River region was traced. It was registered to Millard.

Check was made with the sheriff at Lakeview, and Millard's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Dunbar of that town were contacted.

Dunbar assisted Douglas County deputies Monday in a search of the area around the car, and a party had been organized for further search today.

Millard was known to have had a 22 pistol, and the empty holster was found in the car seat. Details on finding of the body were not clear. Sheriff Ira Byrd said his office received a call this morning from Diamond Lake Lodge that the body had been found.

Millard had not been seen since visiting his ex-wife. She told officers that Millard had threatened suicide on other occasions, so she had not taken his words seriously.

Report of the abandoned car came from L. L. Harpole, Rt. 1, Box 392, Roseburg, who said it had been there about two weeks.

A state policeman earlier had checked out the car, but no action was taken as the owner had not been reported missing.

The car was repossessed by a Lakeview bank.

Bullet Sparks Start A Fire

A boy shooting at a squirrel was said to be responsible for a brush fire shortly after noon Monday on the Stuart Lawrence place on Reston Road about four miles from Tenmile, according to Mrs. Walter Coats, correspondent.

Richard Lawrence, 15-year-old son of the Lawrences, reportedly missed his target with a 22-caliber rifle and hit a rock instead. The resulting sparks started a fire.

The incident occurred within view of the Lawrence house and while the youth battled to put out the blaze the Tenmile Fire Department was called into action by Mrs. Lawrence. The Tenmile Department in turn called Dee Farmer of the DFPA, stationed at Tenmile, who responded with the DFPA truck. A second truck was sent from Roseburg.

The fire covered an acre of grass and brush before being controlled. Sparks from a trash burner on the Lawrence Worley property on Eakin Road near Glendale sent the Quines Creek crew of the DFPA into action Monday afternoon. The fire covered a quarter of an acre in grass and piled lumber, but was prevented from spreading to adjacent buildings and a portable sawmill.

The Roseburg Rural Fire Department was called at 6:48 p.m. Monday to the Town and Country Mobile Park, 2777 NW Mulholland Dr., where an overheated electrical extension cord reportedly started a fire in the laundry building. Damage was estimated at $100.

A minor fire Monday at the Civil Defense Lockout in the 600 block of Denver St. caused an estimated $5 damage to the wooden walk, according to the Roseburg City Fire Department.

PEREZ JIMENEZ cause fails

Ex-Venezuelan Chief Arrested

MIAMI (UPI) — A commission of Venezuelan authorities arrived aboard a chartered airliner early today to take former dictator Marcos Perez Jimenez back to Caracas to face embezzlement charges.

The pilot of the four-engine DC6B Avensa Airlines plane was told to be ready to leave for Caracas early today but hours later the time of departure still was uncertain.

The former strongman is accused of looting the Venezuelan treasury of $13.5 million dollars during his reign as president.

In a last ditch move Perez attorneys scheduled a hearing before a federal court at Jacksonville during the afternoon to seek a stay of extradition pending a ruling on appeals Perez Jimenez has made.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk ended Perez' long fight against extradition Monday when he ordered the former strongman extradited at the request of Venezuelan President Romulo Betancourt.

Weight In Nickels Is Prize At Fair

Some lucky fair-goer will take home his or her weight in nickels—real, shiny, 5 cent coins, that is—when the 1963 Douglas County Fair and Exposition rings down the curtain with the big fair finale at 9 o'clock Sunday evening at the Fairgrounds.

Along with an evening packed full of entertainment others will be given their weight equivalent in such commodities as nails, soft drinks, dairy products, motor oil, sugar and canned goods.

Center-stage in front of the Fairgrounds grandstand will be a giant balance where those persons whose names are drawn from a giant drum will be seated on a colorful throne as their weight is matched with their prize. Master of ceremonies will be Ernie Bryan.

Scheduled for the entertainment portions of the program are such attractions as Jack and Sylvia Mann and the top winners of the annual Ricketts Revue and Talent Contest.

Area merchants will participate in the prize presentations.

Runway, Street Contracts Given

Roseburg Paving Co. has been awarded contract by the Roseburg City Council to resurface eight city streets and seal-coat the runway at the municipal airport.

The firm was sole bidder on both projects. A bid of $9,899.00 was accepted for resurfacing eight streets in southeast Roseburg.

Streets involved are Jackson St. from Court to Douglas, Main Street from Mosher to Iawthorne, Main Street from Douglas to Court, Fowler Street from Court to Deer Creek, Jackson Street from 10th north of Biakely to Mosher, Jackson Street from Haynes to Waite, Overlook from Chadwick to Terrace and Court Avenue from Fowler to Jackson.

Also accepted was the firm's bid of $6,383.99 for sealcoating the airport runway. This project is tentatively supported by a grant of $4,870 from the state Board of Aeronautics.

Roseburg Paving Co. was also low bidder on a proposed airport ramp to be developed at a site west of the present hangar building. The bid of $6,542.50 was referred to the Douglas County Court for review. The city is hopeful of obtaining a grant-in-aid from the county to cover the full amount of the cost.

Four Californians Cited On Vagrancy

Cornea Luis Ramirez, 21, of Oakland, Calif., was lodged in the city jail on a vagrancy charge, after the car he was driving was stopped and checked out by city police Monday night.

A 17-year-old companion from Los Angeles, and two 16-year-olds from Oakland, Calif., also were taken into custody on vagrancy, lodged in the county jail and held for juvenile officers.

Police said Ramirez told them he was on a 60-day leave from the Army. He had no operator's license, except a military vehicle operator's license restricted to that use. He was cited for driving without a license. He had no other identification.

He told officers he was headed for Texas from California, but was bringing his younger companions to Eugene to see some girl friends. The four were taken into custody when their stories did not jibe.

$20,000 Bid Submitted For Dillard Bottom Job

Roseburg Paving Co. Monday submitted a bid of $20,440 for paving of 3,850 lineal feet of roadway in the Dillard Bottom Subdivision. Engineer's estimate on the project was $20,280.

County Road Engineer Al May said the project is to be completed this fall.

Involved is the street paving of Reston Avenue and 4th and 5th Streets, which involve 50 property owners in the residential subdivision.

John Birch Group Coordinator Due

The state coordinator of the John Birch Society will be in Roseburg tonight to report on what he calls "the other side of the United Nations."

The meeting is scheduled at 8 p.m. at the Umpqua Hotel.

The speaker will be Leslie Fleming. The society has gone on record as strongly opposed to the U. N. Earlier, the Roseburg John Birchers challenged the League of Women Voters to a debate on the subject because of the League's support of the U. N. The League turned down the offer.

President's New Tax-Cut Formula Draws More Enthusiasm On 'Hill'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy's new tax-cutting formula drew a much more enthusiastic response from congressional Democrats today than the original plan he presented last January.

The revised plan was outlined Monday to the House Ways & Means Committee by Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon. It would take effect next Jan. 1, and would provide net tax reductions of $10.6 billion for individuals and corporations with the relief staged over two years.

Compared with Kennedy's original $10.3 billion tax-cutting program, the new plan would provide slightly more total tax relief and more would go to individuals and less to corporations.

By its chief political attraction was that it was burdened with fewer of the tax-tightening provisions that made Kennedy's original plan so controversial.

To compensate for this revenue loss, the new plan would provide reductions averaging only 20 per cent in individual tax rates, compared with 23.3 per cent in the original plan.

The initial response of influential committee Democrats was so favorable that it seemed possible the committee might improve the new plan with only relative minor tailoring, if it decided to vote for tax cuts of $10 billion or more. But that was a big "if."

The magnitude of the tax reduction was the big issue still undecided as the committee summoned Dillon for a second day of questioning behind closed doors. The committee was not expected to begin voting on the proposed rate cuts before Thursday.

Main Features
The main features of the revised plan:

—Individual tax rates would range from 11 to 70 per cent instead of the present 20-91 per cent schedule originally recommended by the administration. The lowest rate of 14 per cent would apply to the first $500 in taxable income of the single person and the first $1,000 of taxable income of married persons with joint returns. The top rate of 70 per cent would apply to all taxable income in excess of $100,000 for single persons ($200,000 for married couple filing jointly).

—Taxes on corporation income in excess of $25,000 would be reduced from the present 52 per cent to 48 per cent. That compares with the 47 per cent rate which the administration initially proposed. The tax rate on the first $25,000 of corporate earnings would be lowered to 23 per cent from the present 30 per cent. The administration originally proposed a 22 per cent levy.

—Limit the revenue-producing revisions in tax structure to less than one-third of the $3.3 billion originally advocated. So far as individuals are concerned, the revised plan called for adoption of only two major structural changes which have not already won committee approval. All of the committee-voted changes were accepted by the administration.

One of the two additional revisions it recommended would provide a new "minimum standard deduction" under which many families with low incomes would be able to claim deductions in excess of the present 10 per cent standard. This would provide tax savings of $310 million for such taxpayers. The other additional change would gain $370 million in new revenue by repealing the preference in tax rates on income from stock dividends in excess of $50 a year for single persons and $100 for married couples.

Glendale Board Hires Teachers

Four new teachers were hired by the Glide School Board and one resignation was accepted at Monday's meeting.

The new instructors for the 1963-64 school year include Alfred Price, Gordon Carrigan, Chester Wood and John Edmiston. Price comes to Glide from Burley, Idaho, and will teach drafting and industrial arts in the high school. Carrigan will serve as boys physical education instructor and head basketball coach. Prior to his assignment at Glide he taught at Mapleton.

Wood, a recent graduate of Portland State, will teach German I and II and English at the high school level. He is from Milwaukie.

Edmiston will serve as an eighth grade instructor at Deer Creek. He is a graduate of Gonzaga University and attended high school in Hermiston.

The resignation of Russell Briles, teacher in the Deer Creek Elementary School, was accepted by the board, reports correspondent Mrs. Arthur Selby.

Don Brown was installed as a new member of the board at Monday's meeting, replacing Bert Albeny who recently resigned.

The board opened bids for the purchase of the Bungalow school site which was inherited by the school district. The property is an area 5.37 acres located between the Clyde Hatfield and Justin Elfert property. The lone bid entered was $160 from Clyde Hatfield. The board will make a decision at its next meeting.

In other action the board changed the student insurance plan from Oregon School Activities Association to the Oregon Physicians Service and William Gilbert, Idelyld Park, was hired as a custodian.

SUMMER ENCAMPMENT preparations are being made by three members of Roseburg's Co. B, Second Battalion, 162 Infantry, Oregon National Guard, which will head for Ft. Lewis Wash., Thursday afternoon. Left to right are Sgt. Jim Huckins, Pfc. Bill Robinette and Sgt. Bill Hagar. An advance detachment was scheduled to leave Roseburg today. The two-week summer encampment will be spent practicing the tactics and maneuvers which have been studied in weekly drills. The local unit will spend the first week in the field on bivouac and the last week in the main fort stationed in barracks. The unit will return home Aug. 30. (News-Review photo)

Two Tracts Sold In National Forest

U. S. Plywood and the D. R. Johnson Lumber Co. of Riddle were successful bidders on two tracts of timber in the Little River District of the Umpqua National Forest.

The larger of the two sales was the Lower Cuttus Sale located 41 miles southeast of Roseburg on 206 acres with 10,200,000 board feet of timber involved. The appraised price was $183,180. U. S. Plywood purchased the timber with a bid of $183,280, paying the appraised price for Douglas fir and pine and $7.50 per thousand on western hemlock and other species.

The Lower Cuttus sale included 8,200,000 board feet of Douglas fir and pine appraised at $17.95 per thousand.

Other bidders were J. R. Standley and Sons Logging and National Plywood, both of Roseburg.

D. R. Johnson Lumber Co. was high bidder on the Camp Grant Partial Cut Sale located 40 miles east of Roseburg on 70 acres. A total of 2 million board feet was contained in this tract including 1,500,000 board feet of Douglas fir and pine appraised at $28.25 per thousand.

The high bid entered by the D. R. Johnson Lumber Co. was $38,250, well above the appraised price of $48,775. The bid included $34.50 per thousand on Douglas fir and pine, and $13 per thousand on white fir and other species.

Other bidders included Tilley Logging, Sutherlin; Miles H. Ferro and Paul B. Hult Lumber Co., both of Dillard; and J. R. Standley and Sons, National Plywood, U. S. Plywood and Douglas County Lumber, all of Roseburg.

Liquor Charges Result In Fines

Keith Allen Muters, 24, Gresham, pleaded guilty to furnishing liquor to minors on arraignment in Roseburg Municipal Court Monday. Judge Warren Woodruff fined him $100 and $5 costs.

Charles Vernon Eastwood, 20, was fined $25 and $5 costs for illegal possession of alcohol. Two 15-year-old girls and a 17-year-old boy taken into custody with Muters and Eastwood were turned over to juvenile authorities. They were arrested when the car operated by Muters was checked out here by police and liquor found in it early Monday.

Fines of $70 and $5 costs for contributing to the delinquency of a minor and a further fine of $25 and $5 costs for illegal possession of alcohol were meted to Jimmie Alan Tibbets, Tiller, and Daniel Steven Criswell, Canyonville, both 18, on pleas of guilty. A 15-year-old Myrtle Creek girl with them was released to juvenile authorities.

In other municipal court actions, Donald Weir Mitchell, 47, of 493 NW Sweetbriar, forfeited $75 bail for failure to appear in answer to a charge of being drunk in an auto. Donald Bruce Ekholm, 24, of Roseburg, forfeited $25 bail on failure to appear on a disorderly conduct charge.

Four vagrants were fined $25 and $5 costs each. Another was fined $10 with $5 costs, and a sixth was fined $5. Two drunk cases resulted in a fine of $30 and $5 costs for one man, and a $35 bail forfeiture for a second.

Innocence Plea Made By Woman

June Elene Lyman, 24, Winston, pleaded innocent to a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor on arraignment before Circuit Court Judge Don H. Sanders Monday. Trial will be set at a later date.

She was indicted by the Grand Jury for alleged lascivious conduct in front of a 16-year-old boy on June 9.

Velma Irene Bell, 47, of Salem, also pleaded innocent to obtaining money by false pretenses in connection with the alleged passing of a worthless $10 check at the Rose Room in Roseburg June 6.

The case of Lawrence Heidenreich, 18, of Idleyld Route, Roseburg, was continued to give him an opportunity to see an attorney. J. V. Long was appointed by the court as counsel to represent Heidenreich.

Judge Sanders refused to appoint an attorney at the county's expense to represent Roger Del Clardy, 19, of Winston, on the latter's request.

Clardy was arraigned in the District Court of Gerald B. Hayes Monday on a charge of counterfeiting a bank note, and the case was continued to give him an opportunity to see an attorney.

Appointment of counsel in criminal cases must be done by a Circuit Court judge, and only in cases where the accused is unable to afford to hire his own attorney. Judge Sanders ruled this was not the case with Clardy. The youth is accused of attempting to alter a $10 bill to make it appear as a $20 bill, which was presented at a Winston market Sunday.

'Around-Clock' Security Continues For Governor

SALEM (UPI)—Around-the-clock security protection for Gov. Mark Hatfield is continuing, his office said today.

Uniformed members of a special security detail under the administration of the superintendent of state police may be seen near the governor's residence here.

The security force was established after the 1963 legislature adopted a resolution calling for strengthened security measures for Hatfield.

The legislative action came shortly after an incident in May in which a disgruntled person fired more than a dozen shots near the governor's house.

At the recent governor's conference in Miami it was brought out that security is provided all governors who live in state-owned executive mansions, and that most other governors have some type of security provided either by state or municipal authorities.

Earlier this summer United Press International revealed the Federal Bureau of Investigation had been called last December to probe a threat on Hatfield's life. Announcement of the probe was delayed at the request of the FBI.

The present security force includes five full-time members. Travis Cross, press secretary for Hatfield, said the size of the force was subject to change as conditions merited.

Local News

Allen Ellsworth, executive secretary of the Pacific Northwest Council of YMCA, and his associate secretary, Jack Wiley, of Seattle were visitors in Roseburg at the YMCA over Friday, where they met with executive board members.
