ed a two-out single through the box.

Three walks and a sacrifice fly accounted for the tieing run in the seventh. Jim Roddick, Dick O'Neil and Dick Trapp drew free passes to load the sacks before Gose lofted a high fly to center which scored Roddick after the catch.

Alaska's lead was short-lived, with the Bees scoring the winning run in the bottom of the seventh. Butch Watson reached first when the catcher couldn't hang onto a third strike. Watson went to second on a wild pitch and scampered to third when an attempted pick - off play at second went astray. Withers singled to drive

Musial Announces Retirement Plans

ST. LOUIS, Mc. (UPI) — This is the final season for Stan (The Man) Musial.

Musial, one of the greatest hitters in baseball history, announced Monday night he will retire as an active player at the end of the current season.

The 42-year-old Musial, who spent e quarter of a century in the Cardinal organization as a player, will continue to work for the Red Birds in an executive capacity.

capacity.

When the Cardinals retire the familiar No. 6 this fall it will complete the longest playing carcer of any major leaguer with one team.

Owns Many Records
The lithe, slightly stooped slugger, with the unique "corkscrew" batting stance, will bow out with complete or partial ownership of 53 major league, National League and All-Star records.

The surprise announcement at a Cardinal picnic at the plalatial home of club owner August A. Busch Jr. came only a week after Musial said he would not make a statement concerning his retirement until the end of the current season.

"Baseball has been my life," Stan told the gathering of players, their wives and children, and a few newsmen. "I love baseball.

I like nothing better to do than play baseball.

"Nothing beats playing in the big leagues and putting on that big league uniform.

"I came in with a winner in my first full year with the Cardinals in 1942 and I'd like to go out the same way. I've dreamed for a long time of playing one more World Series. I think we still have a chance to do it."

Loss To Game.

Coss To Game
General manager Bing Devine called Musial's decision "a great loss to the playing end of the game but a gain to the executive side."

loss to the playing end of the game but a gain to the executive side."

"It's a sad thing for baseball for St. Louis, for Stan's many friends, for Stan's wife and family — but a happy one for the Cardinals who need so me on e like Stan to step into our midst, Devine said.

Indication that Musial's relirement was imminent came when his batting average continued to tumble this season. Musial went for a week at a time without being in the lineup, then when he was put in he would be lifted often for a pinch-runner or devensive replacement.

Asked if anything particular made him decide to quit, Musial said. "I just think Ive had enough, regardless of what winter, and by next baseball season I'll be heading for 44."
