Carole Stadig Becomes Bride

Candelabra with tall white tapers and a large basket of gladioli and roses decorated the altar of the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg July 27 for the lovely wedding of Miss Carole Ann Stadig and Charlie Jay White.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stadig of Winston. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Losson White of Dillard.

The Rev. John Adams performed the double ring ceremony at 2 p.m. before a large group of friends and relatives of the couple.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was radiant in a gown of Chantilly lace over white bridal satin, which had been designed and made by her mother. It was fashioned with lace covered satin bodice with sleeves which came to points at the wrists. The full skirt formed a chapel length train. Her fingertip veil of tulle was held in place by a tiara of rhinestones. The bride carried a bouquet of stephanotis centered by a large white orchid.

Miss Lorraine Cornett was maid of honor. She wore a gown of chiffon over blue taffeta and carried blue gladioli.

Bridesmaids were Linda Easton of Portland, cousin of the bride, and Mary Exceen, sister of the bridegroom. They wore matching frocks of chiffon over white taffeta with bodice and skirt embroidered with shades of blue flowers. Their flowers matched those of the maid of honor.

Flower girls, Kathy Stadig and Roberta Easton, sister and cousin of the bride, wore matching blue dresses. They carried white baskets of blue carnation petals, and wore wristlets of white carnations with blue bows.

Dennis Stadig, brother of the bride, was ring bearer. Best man was Noel White, brother of the bridegroom. Ushers were Leon White, brother of the bridegroom, Mike Easton and Ed Wagner of Portland, cousins of the bride, and Russell Brice.

Mrs. John Tucker sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Oh Perfect Love." She was accompanied by Mrs. Homer Grow at the organ. Mrs. Grow also played the traditional wedding marches.

The mother of the bride chose a pink brocade silk sheath dress and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a shaded gray polka-dotted linen dress suit with white accessories. Both wore corsages of white roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given in the reception room of the church for 100 friends and relatives.

The bride's table was attractively decorated with blue net over white. The net was gathered at the corners with large white bows. Candelabra of tall white tapers graced each side of the 3 pillar wedding cake, beautifully decorated with blue flowers and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Veve Mintz of Eugene, great-aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Service of the coffee was Mrs. Jeanette Easton of Portland, aunt of the bride.

Mrs. Gertrude Brown of Eugene, great-aunt of the bride, served the cake. She was assisted by Ann Forrest.

Mrs. Freda Baird and Miss Beverly Baird of Eugene, great-aunt and cousin of the bride, were in charge of gifts. Mrs. Betty Reber, sister of the bridegroom, presented the guest book.

For traveling, the bride chose a blue silk sheath dress and pink accessories. Following a honeymoon trip to Portland, Mr. and Mrs. White are now at home to their friends in Coos Bay, where he is employed as a bridge builder with the state Highway Dept.

The bride and bridegroom are both graduates of Douglas High School in Winston.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Price Wagner, Ed Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Easton, Mike Easton, Linda Easton and Roberta Easton, all of Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Wes Brown and Mrs. Gus Mintz from Eugene.

MR. AND MRS. CHARLIE WHITE, above, were united in marriage at the First Presbyterian Church in Roseburg July 27. The bride, Carole Ann Stadig, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stadig of Winston and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Losson White of Dillard. (Picture by Barbra E. Wackerbarth).
