

Sandra Monett Becomes Bride

MR. AND MRS. BYRON MOREHEAD, above, were married Aug. 3 at the Nazarene Church in Hayward, Calif., by the Rev. C. W. Grim. The bride, Ella Mae Bishop, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren W. Painter of Winston. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Morehead of Castro Valley, Calif. (Picture by Vert, Inc., Photographers, Hayward, Calif.)

The very lovely wedding of Miss Sandra Monett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Monett of Umpqua, and Chester Craig Broady, son of Mrs. Wayne Rader of Oakland and Neil Broady of Portland, was solemnized Aug. 1 at 8 p.m. in the Oakland Community Presbyterian Church before some 200 guests.

The impressive single ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Neil Brown. Traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Ruth Bridges. Mrs. Shirley Brown sang "Because" just before the ceremony and "A Wedding Prayer" during the rites.

The altar decorations by Mrs. Eric Wattman, were tall candelabra with white candles, placed behind baskets of white gladioli and dahlias. The candles were lighted by David Monett, brother of the bride, and Glen Crouch.

The bride, on the arm of her father, was beautifully gowned in white slipper satin with an overlay of white lace. Satin piping trimmed the scooped neckline. The fingertip sleeves were of white lace. The skirt was accented by a full chapel train, made by Mrs. Ed Wolff. Her elbow-length veil was secured by a crown of white net and lace trimmed with pearls with a tear drop pearl at the forehead. She wore a pearl necklace with a diamond inset, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a heart-shaped satin pillow with a gathered lace border, which held a bouquet of white gladioli.

She was preceded by her maid of honor, Miss Linda Gibson, a cousin from Klamath Falls, and her bridesmaids, Miss Susan Monett, sister of the bride; Miss Pam Gibson, cousin of the bride from Klamath Falls; Miss Diane Peterson, Neil Broady and Snyder Floerke, all of Portland.

white gladioli. All bouquets and corsages had been made by Mrs. Archie Moore, Mrs. Lawrence Haines, Mrs. Lester Richardson and Mrs. George Wilcox.

The bridegroom's attendants were: Best man, Terry Rader, his brother; groomsmen, Ernest Crane; and ushers, Rodney McCord, David Stribling and David Wattman.

A delightful reception in the social hall of the church followed the wedding and was served by Mrs. Eric Wattman, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Walter Bergstedt, Mrs. David Stribling and Mrs. Marvin Wattman.

The five-tiered wedding cake was decorated with yellow roses and aqua trim and was made by Mrs. Robert Monett, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Harold Cole. The bridegroom's cake was passed by Miss Kathleen Crouch.

Miss Diane Calkins was in charge of the guest book, and Miss Dawn Vasterling, Miss Elaine Vale and Miss Dixie Steele presided over the gift table.

For the wedding trip to Salem and coastal points, the bride chose a red sleeveless brocade sheath dress and red feather hat. Her accessories were white. The newlyweds plan to be at home soon to their friends at the Comstock Apartments in Sutherlin.
