Community News Briefs

The PNG Club will hold a rummage sale in the basement of the IOOF Hall from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Friday, Aug. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Messenger of Coos Bay were recent overnight visitors at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Barnes.

Miss Jerilyn Jacoby, who has been attending summer sessions at Oregon State University at Corvallis, is spending the remainder of the summer here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jacoby.

Evelyn Powell, Frank "Ricky" Powell, Adeline Creason, Laura Allen and Laura Goodell assisted with the dance given at the VA Hospital Monday evening. Assisting during the day from the Camas Valley Garden Club were Ruth Wiley, Bernice Redwine and Ninetta Spurlock. Mrs. Wiley is an expert on Oregon and Washington wild flowers.

Larry Inman is spending this week at the Suttle Lake Methodist Church camp, serving as a counselor for the Junior age session. He was taken there Saturday by Mr. Inman, and their daughters, Kathie and Laurel. Kathie is spending the month in Springfield with her grandmother Mrs. C. L. Inman, and Laurel is also staying there for the current week.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Murdock of this city have returned home from The Dalles, where they were called by the death of the former's brother, Kenneth M. Murdock, 63, who was killed in an automobile accident west of The Dalles last Tuesday. The funeral was held in The Dalles Thursday. Murdock was manager with Pacific Northwest Loggers Association until it was liquidated last November and he retired to his ranch near Canby. He was doing a special job of industrial accident research for an insurance concern in Idaho at the time of the death. He is survived by his wife, Russell Varney Murdock; two daughters, Suzanne of Salem; Mrs. William Scott, who is at the parental home while her husband is in service; two grandsons, two brothers, Glen, Roseburg, and Ray, of Raymond, Wash.; and a sister, Mrs. Vera Pochel of Raymond. He was well-known here as he was Coos resident engineer during the 1930's and engineered Eden Ridge Logging Railroad and the Agnes-Powers road for the Forest Service.

Peek-A-Boo Gowns Shown For Fall, Winter Season

NEW YORK (UPI) — Peek-a-boo gowns — touched off by an eye-catching triangular "window" exposing the tummy — were displayed by designer James Galanos this week in his fall and winter collection.

In addition to the expanse of bare midriff in clinging evening dresses, the collection featured low-cut fronts and exposed backs and shoulders.

The dresses to cheer girl watchers were made of cloque, wool and velvet.

Advances Russian Sable
The West Coast designer, member of the Coty Hall of Fashion Fame, also advanced a Russian sable jump suit for the woman who has everything.

Fringe, top and bottom, also figured in the collection.

Suits in the collection had two-third length coats with a tunic or tiered back — sometimes loose, sometimes belted. These topped skirts and blouses in muted colors including a lot of black and brown.

Galanos also introduced the suit coat over subtly shaped dresses body-accenting slightly in front and falling straight in back.

Favors Modified Chemise
He favored the modified chemise for day dresses and showed it most often in black.

Gail Pugh of Portland is here visiting at the home of her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Dallen Jones, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Walsh of Portland spent the weekend here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Tozer on the North Umpqua River. They are former residents of this city.

Charles Fingerlos, who recently underwent major surgery at Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene, is reported to be getting along nicely and expects to return to his home here within a short time. Mrs. Fingerlos, who has been in Eugene with him, has returned to her work at the News-Review.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Elliott are back at their home in Laureldwood, following a trip to Portland, where the latter had her annual medical check-up and then accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Lucille Sisco, of Portland, they went to the coast for a vacation. Mrs. Sisco accompanied them back to Roseburg this week and then returned to her home.

Dr. and Mrs. A. N. Johnson have returned to their home in Roseburg, following a trip to the Scandinavian countries. During their time of vacationing they traveled 20,000 miles via jet, train, ship and private car. Dr. Johnson met some 80 relatives around Bergen, Norway, and Mrs. Johnson visited the home places of her parents in Sweden.

Mrs. Ruth Porter of Roseburg and her sister, Miss Margaret Morris, of Bend, Ore., have returned from a vacation trip to Alaska. They traveled to Winlock, Wash., by automobile and then went on to Vancouver, B.C. to take the ship to Skagway. They traveled the inside passage stopping to tour Ketchikan, Juneau and Haines. An excursion trip by railroad to Tracy Arms and to the Glacier-lined fjord was enjoyed. On the return trip they spent two days in Vancouver and attended the Lerner and Loewe stage production, "Camelot." En route home they stopped over in Victoria, B.C., and then went back to Winlock to pick up their car. They visited relatives there and then returned south via the coast route, where they stopped in Long Beach, Wash., to go clamming. They also visited relatives in Seaview, Wash. They report a most enjoyable trip and vacation.
