Family Dinner Enjoyed Sunday

The Roy Byrd home on the North Umpqua River was the setting for the celebration of James Byrd's birthday.

James Byrd's father was postmaster of the first post office east of Huntsville, Tenn., and the settlement of Byrd, Tenn., was named for him.

James Byrd was born in 1876 at Byrd. As far as is known, he is the only one left who was in the battle with Teddy Roosevelt at Santiago De Cuba in the war with Spain in 1898. His hobbies are hunting and fishing. He served 30 years with the Southern Pacific Railroad without a demerit mark. He has been active in church and school affairs.

It was the first time in a number of years that all six children of James Byrd were together. A beautiful birthday cake was served after dinner on the patio. Lovely gifts were presented to the honored guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard (Lois) Levy and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Duts, (Betty) Saari and children, Linnae and "Willy," Seattle, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Whipple and Lori; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wickham, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Byrd, Grants Pass; Larry Lockman of Salem, were out of town guests.

From Roseburg were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Byrd, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Byrd, Roy Byrd, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Chambers, Mrs. Duke Ricketts and Linda, Rick, Pat and Cinda Byrd.

Telephone Employees Hold Delightful Picnic Here

Tom McGill, who is with the public relations department for the telephone company with head quarters in Portland, formerly of Roseburg, reports the annual Telephone Employees Association picnic was held Wednesday evening at Umpqua Park. Bud Elliott, chairman, stated there were 150 telephone employees and their families in attendance.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew V. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Labrot B. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Woodward, Portland, and Jack Perry of Eugene. Smith and Edwards are department heads for commercial plants and traffic departments respectively.

The committee in charge of the event were Bob Raffenberger, Marilyn Snyder, Pearl Kaine, Hannah White, Bruce Rein and Helen Bryson. Games were enjoyed during the social hours.

Miss Stein Gives Shower For Miss Judy Alspaugh

A lovely bridal shower was given Tuesday evening for Miss Judy Alspaugh who will marry Clifford Isham. Miss Alspaugh is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Alspaugh of this city.

The shower was given by Miss Margaret Stein in her parent's home.

Several games were played before Miss Alspaugh opened her gifts including one in which interesting looking bridal veils were fashioned out of tissue paper for models Janet Willis and Pat Moran. Miss Bernadette St. Onge assisted the guest of honor, keeping the gift list when the gifts were opened.

Those attending were Miss Cindy Sevall, Mrs. Danny Gilbert, Mrs. David Willis, Miss Mary Beth Hill, Miss Janet Svarverud, Miss Donna Ball, Miss Pat Moran and Miss Bernadette St. Onge. Miss Anne Svarverud, unable to attend, sent a gift.

Shower Party Compliments Miss Robbins On Monday

Miss Margie Robbins, bride-elect of James M. Brown, was fettered at a miscellaneous shower Monday evening by Joan Archer and Linda Brown. The party was held in the Brown home in Oakland. The living room was beautifully decorated in lavender and white.

Games were played, with prizes going to Gladys Robbins and Mrs. Everett Brown.

Those attending the shower were Clara Knudson, Edna Cole, Eleanor, Pam and Ronnie Jarvis, Helen Whiting, Shirley Barrick, Bev Brown, Mrs. Anderson, Effie Johnson, Mrs. Everett Brown, Mrs. W. Robbins, Gladys Robbins, Linda Kenwisher, Rose Young, Betty Butcher and Patty Propst.
