

Dear Abby!

Don't Be Too Proud!

— By ABIGAIL VANBUREN —

DEAR ABBY: This is regarding that woman whose husband was unfaithful and then came crawling back to his wife with promises to "make it up to her." She asked me if she should let her husband share her bedroom again, and you replied with one word, "Yes." Are you crazy or something? Why should the wife take him back? I'd let him sleep out in the doghouse like the dirty dog that he is.

DEAR ABBY: As a young father married two years, I hope you'll print my gripe to show what a MAN thinks for once? I am struggling to pay rent, feed my family and keep up on my car expenses, plus a lot of incidental bills. We live 200 miles from my wife's relatives and are invited to every shower, birthday wedding, anniversary and party they have. I can't make my wife understand drive 400 miles every weekend, plus being expected to bring a gift. She refuses to realize this.

DEAR ABBY: If young people spend as they go — they won't go far. Show your wife what a BUDGET looks like. And tell her how many 400-mile trips per year you can afford. Then let her pick the "occasions." When a husband lays down the law for valid reasons, his wife can only respect him for it.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to make a comment on the letter signed "A BUDDY'S BUDDY." My boy friend was stationed in Germany for two years. We were engaged before he went away. After dating other fellows, I sent my fiancé a "Dear John" letter—only it was a "Dear Ralph." I don't agree with Buddy. My promise was made in good faith. But promises are made to be broken, and I don't think it is right to string a guy along until he gets home.

DEAR DEE: Who said "promises are made to be broken?" Not in my book! And what kind of an "engagement" is it that permits the lady to date others? I still say if a girl has a change of heart when her fiancé is away in the service of his country, she should wait until he comes home to hit him with the news.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "BLUE BLOODS." Better "nouveau riche" than never rich.

By ERMA BEST
Susan O'Donnell of Riddle was champion and winner of the trophy for intermediate girls at the Northwest Sectional shoot sponsored by the National Field Archers Association recently in Puyallup, Wash. Host range was Skookum Archers of Puyallup.
Miss O'Donnell, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Forrest Brittain, and brother, Larry Bergstrom, spent two weeks in Washington, visited Mrs. Brittain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Newell in Tumwater and in Aberdeen with another daughter, Mrs. Ralph Daniels, and family. They also visited friends in Seattle where they met other friends there from Pennsylvania.
They were accompanied home by a Seattle friend, Lars Peterson, who spent several days here before going on south; Mrs. Brittain's grandson, Gene and Bruce Daniels; and a nephew, Stephen Korst of Hoquiam. Another grandson, Kenny Brittain, has come down from Roseburg to join the visitors during their stay.
Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hiles killed a rattlesnake in their yard at dusk one day recently. It measured 30 inches and had seven rattles and a button. Mrs. Hiles reported that this was the first rattlesnake that had been seen on the place in the 19 years they have lived on the Shoestring road.
