

MR. AND MRS. MARVIN JONES, above, cut the first piece of their wedding cake at the reception following their marriage. The bride, Carolyn Mae Brent, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Caroldean J. Brent of Canyonville, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jones of Modesto, Calif. The wedding took place at the Neighbor Church in Modesto, Calif. (Picture by Von Braun, Stockton, Calif.)

Carolyn Brent Now Mrs. Jones

The Neighbor Church in Modesto, Calif., was the scene of the wedding Aug. 2 of Carolyn Mae Brent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Caroldean J. Brent, Canyonville, and Marvin Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jones of Modesto, Calif.

The Rev. Inman of the Salida, Calif. Assembly of God Church read the vows before an altar flanked with huge baskets of white gladioli.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was beautiful in a white full-length taffeta wedding dress adorned with three tulle roses and a full sweeping train. Lace and sequins were fashioned around the square neckline. The bride carried a wedding bouquet of pink carnations.

Mrs. Ronald Brent, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor, and Betty Gale Willis was bridesmaid. They wore white brocade sheath dresses. Their headpieces were pink rolled roses with net. They carried bouquets of carnations.

Rachel Ivers and Barbara Stevens were candlelighters. Allen Randolph acted as best man for the bridegroom. Ushering was done by Dick Linn and William Cummings, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Shelia Jones, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. The ring bearer was Bobby Lindley.

Cynthia Chass, organist, played appropriate music while the guests gathered, as well as the traditional wedding marches. She also accompanied Rachel Ivers who sang "At Dawning." Ronald Brent, brother of the bride, sang "If I Could Tell You" and "Submission." Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Brent sang a duet, "Whither Thou Goest."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brent chose a baby blue summer crepe afternoon dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink street dress with white accessories.

A reception was held in the church annex following the ceremony. Miss McKim served the tiered wedding cake. Delois Jones, sister of the bridegroom, and Evelyn Jones, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, served punch. Vonda Cummings, sister of the bridegroom, presided over the guest book which was placed on a wishing well setting made by Mrs. Brent, mother of the bride. Barbara Stevens sang at the reception.

The gift table was decorated as a lamp stand adorned with baskets of rosebuds and white chapel bells. Mrs. C. J. Brent made a large heart of white satin, decorated with doves and ribbons, with pink lettering for the refreshment table.

The couple honeymooned at Yosemite National Park for a week following the wedding. For traveling the bride wore a blush rose, heavy linen, semi-fitted suit with white accessories.

The bride was graduated from Canyonville Bible Academy, attended Central Bible Institute in Springfield, Mo., and this spring finished two years in Bethany Bible College, Santa Cruz, Calif., as a Christian Education major. She is employed as a counselor in the Juvenile Hall, Santa Cruz. The bridegroom was graduated from high school in Modesto, Calif., and will be graduated next spring with a BA degree in pastoral theology at Bethany Bible College. He plans to enter full time gospel ministry following his studies. He is presently employed by the Sylvania Electronics Co.

Among guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Brent, parents of the bride, and Mrs. Nettie Harding, all of Canyonville and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Brent, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, of Springfield, Mo.

A LOVELY BRIDE of Aug. 17 was Rita Delores Kelstrup, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Kelstrup of Seattle, formerly of Roseburg, and Douglas Richard Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Peters of Portland. The wedding took place at the 15th Avenue Bible Church in Seattle. (Picture by Kennell-Ellis, Seattle.)

Former Roseburg Girl Is Bride

The wedding of Rita Delores Kelstrup of Seattle, Wash., and Douglas Richard Peters of Portland was an event of Aug. 17 at the 15th Avenue Bible Church of Seattle. Nearly 200 guests were present for the 8 p.m. ceremony.

Officiating were the bride's father, the Rev. Arthur Kelstrup, and the Rev. H. R. Currie, both of Seattle, and the Rev. Raymond Targgart of Portland.

The bride and her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Kelstrup, are former residents of Roseburg. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Peters of Portland.

Candelabra in a fan design, together with two large bouquets of fall flowers, served as altar decorations. Miss Arlee Grow of Grandview, Wash., was organist. She accompanied the soloist, Don Brumfield, who sang "I'll Walk With God" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of nylon organza over taffeta, styled with a bell skirt. The bodice was of Chantilly lace, pointed at the waistline and embroidered with seed pearls and opalescent sequins. Lace appliques decorated the skirt front and outlined the shepherdess back. The bride's veil was fashioned of the finest English tulle with hand-rolled edge, falling from an open crowned pill box head piece. She carried an orchid on a white Bible, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Janet Clifford, a college friend of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Jeannette Deffenbaugh, Diane Johnson and Betty Eidsness. They were dressed in brown brocade, the maid of honor's dress of a deeper shade. The frocks were designed with scoop necklines, three-quarter-length sleeves and semi-gathered skirts. Each girl carried a single long-stemmed chrysanthemum in bronze, orange and gold tones.

Charles Peters was best man for his brother. Ushers were Roy Kelstrup, brother of the bride; Richard Nomura and Robert Dick, cousin of the bridegroom.

Ricky Lee and Bobbi Lyn Williams, cousins of the bride, were candlelighters.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kelstrup wore a turquoise blue silk sheath with matching slippers. The bridegroom's mother wore blue crepe. Both mothers had orchid corsages.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the church. Mrs.

Harder-Brooke Wedding Friday

Pink gladioli and white cathedral candles formed the setting for the wedding Friday evening, Aug. 16, of Beverly F. Brooke and Fred S. Harder, both of Roseburg, at the First Christian Church. James Smith, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of close friends and relatives of the couple.

The bride was charming in a silver-blue two-piece dress with pink feather hat and silver slippers. She carried an arrangement of pink gladioli blossoms. She was escorted down the aisle by Charles V. Stanton.

Mrs. Earl Preston of Springfield, was matron of honor and wore a pink chiffon dress with pink hat. Her bouquet of gladioli and her slippers were in a deeper pink shade. David Damon of Oakland, Calif., son of the bride, was best man. Kenneth Miller, son-in-law of the bride, and Dr. Bruce Tuck, were ushers.

A wedding reception followed at the home of the bride and bridegroom at 326 W. Laurelwood Ct. Mrs. Harry Jones catered the affair. The bride's table was covered by a pink lace cloth centered by a beautifully decorated wedding cake topped with white roses and white wedding bells and flanked by pink carnations and white tapers.

The bride and bridegroom received the congratulations from their friends with the bride's mother, Mrs. Myrl Griswold, of San Francisco, who was attractive in a beige lace sheath dress with multi-colored silk ribbon hat and a corsage of pink gladioli blossoms.

Mrs. Edwin Nolte served the wedding cake. Mrs. Bruce Tuck served punch and Mrs. Larry Rutter of Medford, daughter of the bridegroom, poured the coffee. Mrs. Kenneth Miller, daughter of the bride, had charge of the gifts and Mrs. Harold Patterson presented the guest book. The lovely arrangements of hydrangeas used throughout the rooms were arranged by Mrs. James Byron. Mrs. Frederick J. Porter acted as hostess. The bridegroom's two daughters, Anne and Joy, assisted in the serving.

Coming from out of town for the wedding were the bride's son, David Damon, of Oakland, Calif.; her mother, Mrs. Myrl Griswold, of San Francisco; her aunt, Mrs. Wally Getchell of Eureka, Calif.; the bridegroom's daughter, Mrs. Larry Rutter, of Medford; Mr. and Mrs. George Clark of Klamath Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Preston of Springfield.

The bride is assistant society editor and a staff writer for the News-Review and the bridegroom, who is the son of Arthur E. Harder, of Astoria, is a partner of Perry Upright in the Roseburg Printing Co.

For traveling the bride chose a black and white ensemble. Following a honeymoon to Ocean Lake and other coastal points, Mr. and Mrs. Harder will be at home to friends at 326 W. Laurelwood Ct.

MARRIED Friday, Aug. 16, at 7:30 p.m. at the First Christian Church by James Smith, pastor, were Beverly F. Brooke and Fred S. Harder, pictured above at the reception which followed the wedding at their home in Laurelwood. The couple will honeymoon at coastal points. (Picture by Chris Studio of Photography.)

Dance Announced

A "Cotton Pickin'" dance will be sponsored by Women of the Moose Saturday, Aug. 24, at 9:30 p.m. at the Moose Hall. Members and their guests are invited to enjoy the affair. Officers of Women of the Moose will act as hostesses for the affair, which promises to be of unusual enjoyment.

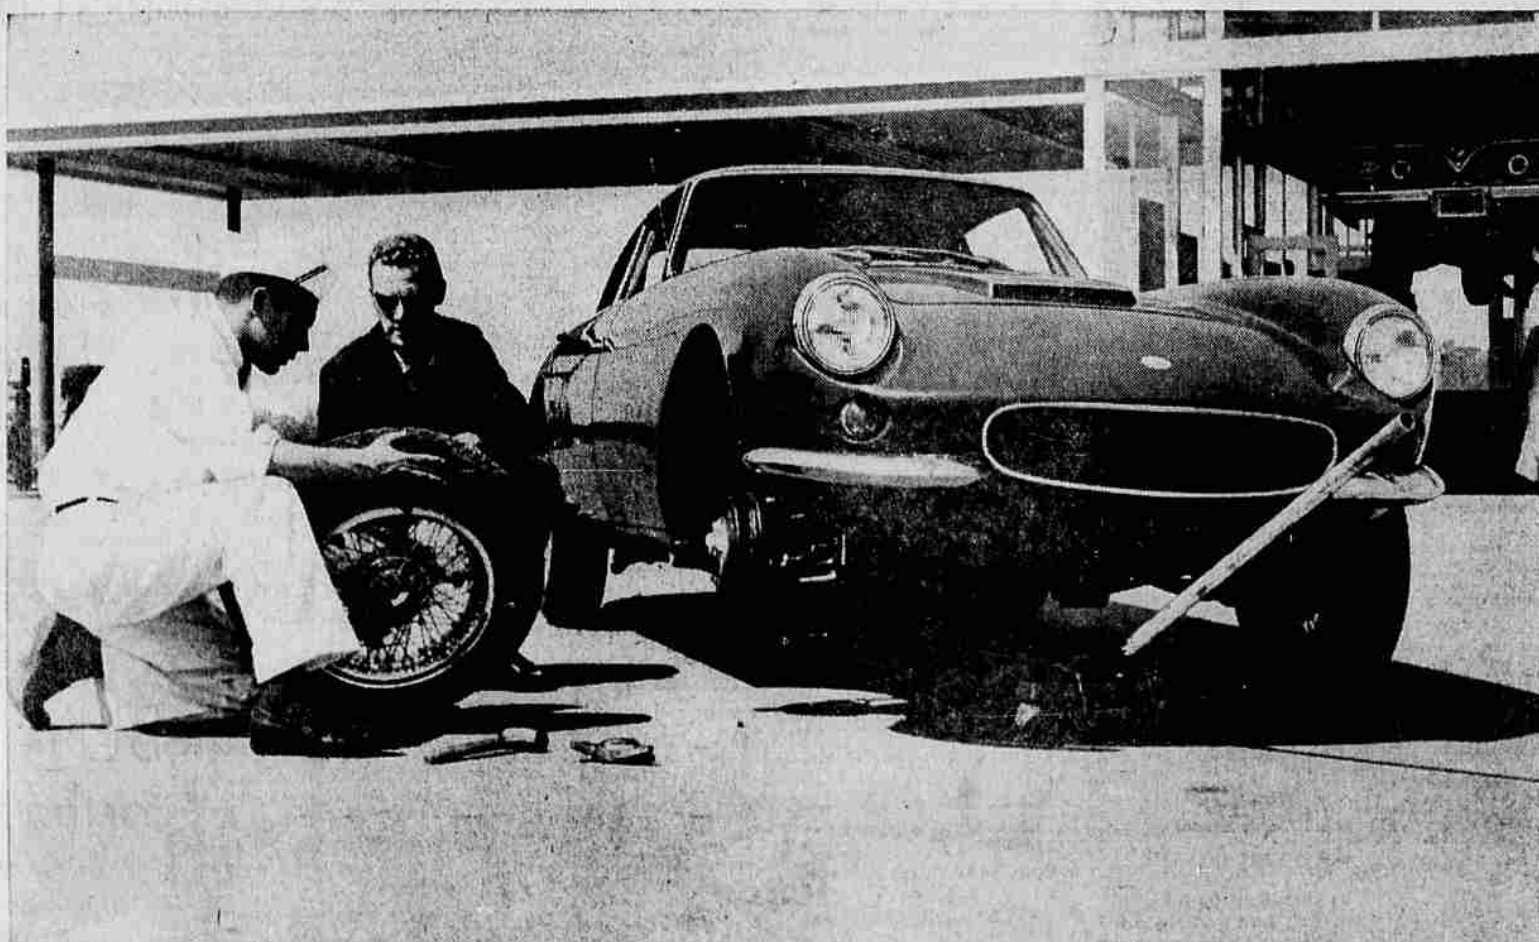

Donald Isakson and Miss Carol Isakson of Roseburg cut the cake. Coffee was served by Linda Kelstrup and Mrs. Cecil Hoff, aunts of the bride. Barbara Fowler laddered the punch. Cousins of the bride, Phyllis and Louise Hanson of Custer, Wash., had charge of the guest book and attended to the gifts.

The newlyweds left for a honeymoon at Lake Quinalt Resort. For traveling, the bride wore a cranberry-colored wool sheath with gunmetal patent accessories.

The bride attended Roseburg High School and Seattle Pacific College. The bridegroom was grad school in Portland and Seattle Pacific College. He is employed as a chemist for Crown Zellerbach in Oregon City.

A COFFEE honoring Allen Ellsworth, above left, executive secretary of the Pacific Northwest Council of YMCA, and Jack Wiley, associate secretary of the same staff, (right) both of Seattle, was enjoyed Friday at the Roseburg YMCA. The two visitors are pictured with YMCA executive secretary Wayne Schulz. Board members of the YMCA attended the coffee. (News-Review Photo.)

We'll gladly patch up your punctured pride.

Anytime your traveling companion comes down with a limp, the man at the sign of the Chevron will get you back on the road fast.

He'll also give you bumper-to-bumper service, and your choice of three grades of gasoline. Why three? So you can choose a gasoline made to fit the requirements of your car—without paying for extra power you can't use.

All three gasolines have Methyl* power—a research breakthrough in antiknock compounds that stands up under the extreme temperatures of high compression engines. Unlike others, Methyl spreads evenly to all cylinders, giving uniform antiknock performance. And it combines with all the other ingredients required for the best performance a car can deliver.

For the very highest-powered cars, use Custom, highest-powered gasoline in the West. For all other high-compression cars, fill up with Supreme. For cars designed to run on regular, choose Chevron.

You'll get on-the-road proof we take better care of your car.

Chevron Dealers - Standard Stations, Inc.

* STANDARD OIL COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA

The hottest CHRISTMAS sale ever!

Everything goes at year-end prices. Even our 1963½ Comet V-8 Sportsters and Mercury Marauders. So come in while the spirit moves us to make gifts of all our cars. Every last one must go during this big year-end "Christmas Clearance Sale".

MOCK MOTORS, INC.

1590 N. E. Stephens Street